PROGRESS OF THE DRAFT.

THE SIXTEENTH WARD QUOTA.

NAMES OF THE FORTUNATE ONES.

The 17th District to be Drawn on Monday.

The man at the wheel reminds one of Sancho Panza over the soup-kettles, at Camacheo's wedding, ladling out now a pullet, now a duck, now a turkey, sometimes a goose, now fat, now lean, then fat and lean mixed. A revolution of the wheel, a dip of the hand, and up comes a corpulent speculator larded with contracts; another turn of the crank, another plunge of the hand brings to the surface a workingman bronzed at the forge or bleached in the mill, followed by millionaires and "mudsills," gentlemen of leisure and "greasy mechanics," bankers and hod-carriers, brokers and street sweepers, dandies and ragamuffins, statesmen and stage-drivers, lawyers and clients, physicians and patients, editors and their readers, black men and white men—dipped out from the "chaos come again" in the wheel by stone-blind chance, which is no respecter of persons.

APPEARANCE OF THE SPECTATORS.

There is an absence of riotous faces at the Provost-Marshal's office. This fact may be accounted for on the ground that the rioters do not wish to be exposed to the gaze of detectives; that many of them have gone into the country to avoid arrest; some have joined rebel friends in other states; some are in the hospitals, and a few have gone to prison.

COMMITTEE OF INSPECTION.

Alderman Lewis R. Ryers, ex-Councilman Samuel T. Munson, and William J. Haskett, Excise Commissioner, were appointed a Committee of Inspection to count the ballots.

THE ENROLLMENT.

The number of names enrolled in the Sixteenth Ward is 2,311—the number of names to be drawn is 1,181.

THE DRAWING IN THE SIXTEENTH WARD.

The drawing for the Sixteenth Ward commenced an hour earlier than usual in consequence of the large number of names required to fill the quota. There are a great many sons of foreign birth and a few colored men subject to draft in this ward. The ward extends from Fourteenth street to Twenty-ninth street, and from Sixth avenue to the North River. The business of the ward is varied. There are iron works, foundries, gas works, and many large establishments in which great numbers of men are employed, and the shipping trade gives work to great numbers of longshoremen.

At 12 o'clock the Commissioner announced that the ballots had been counted and the drawing would begin. The blind man took his place, the wheel revolved, and the name of Owen Crane was announced. The most profound silence preceded and followed the reading of this first name.

VAGARIES OF THE DRAFT.

One of the editors and two of the clerks in THE TRIBUNE office, one of the editors of The News, and one of the reporters of The Express, were drafted from the Ninth and Fifteenth wards, and yesterday Mr. Fitzpatrick, the New-Orleans correspondent of The Herald, was drafted from the Sixteenth ward.

THEOLOGICAL STUDENTS.

Half a dozen students were drafted yesterday from the Theological Seminary on Twentieth street. Those who "put their trust in God and keep their powder dry" will be likely to make good soldiers.

FIREMEN DRAWING PRIZES.

Mr. George Henderson, foreman of Engine Co. No. 24, Michael Gallagher, assistant-foreman of Engine Co. No. 48, Richard Doherty, foreman of Engine Co. No. 56, and George W. Romp of No. 24 Engine Co., and probably other firemen, obtained each a prize in the lottery of patriotism yesterday. Some of them were present when their names were announced, and were warmly congratulated by their friends.

MORE COLORED MEN DRAFTED.

The names of several colored conscripts were announced yesterday. An influential gentleman present (a resident of the Sixteenth Ward) remarked that he "believed in negroes fighting." No person objected to the remark, indeed the spectators seemed to approve of the blind man's selections. The valor of the negro troops in recent battles has silenced many of their traducers, and all loyal men are glad to see good fighters of any color go into the field. It is understood that they cannot ride to the field in the Eighth avenue cars, nor ride home in them should they return crowned with victory and honor.

OTHER PARTIES WHO WERE DRAWN.

Adjutant F. Wade, of Gen. Sandford's Staff; James Farmer, a police officer; Geo. Bradford, a detective; Patrick Croll, a member of the Tammany Hall Committee; Wm. Starr, a well-known gunsmith; Chas. A. Clarke, a member of the Board of Enrollment, and Wm. J. Haskett, one of the Committee of Inspection.

ENDING OF THE DRAFT IN THE SIXTH DISTRICT.

When the draft closed yesterday cheers were given for the officers, who had fairly and efficiently performed their duties. Chas. H. Spencer, esq., being present, was called upon for a speech, but he respectfully declined the honor, and the spectators departed in peace, and started homeward rejoicing.
