Ninth District.

TWENTY-SECOND WARD.

The drawing for the IXth District commenced on Wednesday forenoon in the hall, corner of Forty-seventh street and Broadway, under the management of Charles E. Jenkins, Provost-Marshal; John M. Sands, Commissioner; Dr. W. H. Thompson, Surgeon; John W. Watson, Deputy Marshal; Richard Clark, D. Walter Smith, Chief Clerks; Edwin Clark, Thomas Fay and J. S. Bonnell, Assistants, and H. G. C. Green, numberer of names.

At the time of the riot these officers were proceeding with the draft on the corner of Forty-sixth street and Third avenue, and had drawn 1,401 names, when the mob stormed and burned the building, and destroyed 401 ballots.

The number of names enrolled in the District is 4,912—of these 1,000 are drafted; consequently, 3,912 names were deposited in the wheel. From that number 500 names were drawn. When the officers were interrupted by the rioters, they lacked only 99 names of completing the draft. Hon. A. Ward, Ira A. Allen, Peter McCullum, Peter Masterson, and Schuyler Burns were appointed a Committee to supervise the counting of the ballots.

At an early hour on Wednesday morning a large number of spectators were present, many of them workingmen—but the best order was maintained. There was a competent military and police force on hand to check any violations of law and preserve the public peace.

Among those who had the fortune to draw prizes were David B. Mellish, a well-known short-hand reporter, a brother of Alderman Farley, and several prominent business men in the Ward. The drawing for the Nineteenth Ward will commence at 9 o'clock this morning.

Claims for Exemption.

SIXTH DISTRICT.

Since the completion of the draft in the VIth District, of which Capt. Farr is Provost-Marshal, a large number of clerks have been engaged in preparing and sending the following notification to the drafted men:

PROVOST-MARSHAL'S OFFICE,
..... District, State of .....
..... 186 .

To .....

SIR: You are hereby notified that you were on the ..... day of ....., 186 , legally drafted in the service of the United States for the period of ..... in accordance with the provisions of the act of Congress, "for enrolling and calling out the national forces, and for other purposes," approved March 3, 1863. You will accordingly report, on or before the ..... at the place of rendezvous, in ..... or be deemed a deserter, and be subject to the penalty prescribed thereon by the rules and articles of war.

Transportation will be furnished you on presenting this notification at ..... on the ..... or at the station nearest your place of residence.

..... Provost Marshal.
..... District.

The officers met with no difficulty in serving the notices and were courteously received by the persons to whom the notifications were addressed. In many instances the notices were returned indorsed by the officers—removed to Wisconsin—house closed for four weeks—no such man lives here nor has for a year—left on the 22d of August giving no notice where gone to—in army and family moved away—absent in country—never lived here, &c.

Mr. Murtagh Coleman, attached to the corps of City Inspector Roole, and owning a couple of carts in the service of the city, having drawn a prize, reported in propria persona on the day following the draft. The Commissioner informed him that he might continue his business until notified, but he replied that he had stabled his horses with the intention of entering the United States service. He was of opinion that it was high time for men of energy to lay hold at once, and put down the Rebellion, and he, for one, was determined to do his part of the work. A man at his elbow volunteered to act as his substitute for the moderate sum of $300, but he was told that his services would not be accepted at any price.

On Tuesday morning the Board of Enrollment of this District, composed of Capt. James W. Farr, Provost-Marshal; Commissioner Charles A. Lamont, and Surgeon James W. Powell, assembled at their headquarters, No. 185 Sixth avenue, for the purpose of hearing any claims for exemption that might be presented. Capt. Farr presided, and after the meeting had been opened it was resolved that the sessions be held daily from 9 a. m. until 12 m., and from 2 until 4 p. m. From fifty to one hundred applicants for exemption appeared, their countenances wearing the most anxious expression.

During the morning about half a dozen men were examined, four of whom were exempted on account of physical disability. James Jackson was exempted for being a non-resident; Isaac Russell, over age; Benjamin Thomas, alien; James Healy was exempted for being over age. He said he was over 45 years of age, had a wife and three children, and didn't know but he might find another before he got home. John Henry Powers, John H. Tupper, Isaac M. Bunsby, John C. Crandle, were exempted on account of physical disability. The above are a sample of the applications that were made during the day.

DEBATES IN THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

THE DRAFT EXEMPTION ORDINANCE.

On the question of concurring in the resolution of the Board of Councilmen, pledging the members of the Common Council to pass the exemption ordinance, notwithstanding the veto of the Mayor, at the expiration of the ten days during which it must lie on the table, according to the provisions of the Charter,

Alderman JEREMIAH—Mr. President, none of our citizens can view with feelings other than of unalloyed sorrow and regret, the fact that we have arrived at that period in the history of our country when it has been deemed necessary by the Government to enforce a conscription, for the purpose of filling the ranks of the United States. But, as in connection with this fact that the conscription was to be enforced in this city, about as soon among us, it is not to be wondered at that the subject should be regarded with much anxiety, and occasion considerable active discussion, particularly in a city such as this. Labor, like every other commodity, instinctively, naturally, seeks a market where it can receive the most remuneration for its services. As, therefore, a large city, especially a commercial center, affords great inducements, so does it from time to time gather together a vast number of people, who live exclusively upon the product of their daily employment, and who and it impossible to effect any accumulation. It therefore required not much thought to discover that the operation of this Act—the Conscription—in a community like ours, would be the occasion of much hardship, and that man is destitute somewhat of the milk of human kindness who would not instantly feel that he should make an effort, if possible, to mitigate some of its severities. With this view, and animated with a desire to accomplish this purpose, the Common Council convened and adopted an ordinance on this subject, after which certain persons, desirous of commending the scenes of confusion that were enacting at that time, circulated the impression that the Mayor would veto this ordinance, and therefore that it would be inoperative. In order to disabuse the public mind, the Common Council reassembled, and passed a pledge that in the event the ordinance was vetoed, it should be adopted, notwithstanding the veto. The veto came, and, true to their pledge, the Common Council reaffirmed the measure. Afterward it was discovered, owing to a conflict of some of its provisions with the laws of the State, that the ordinance, though passed, would be inoperative, and the Common Council, in the spirit of that pledge, recovered and passed an ordinance obviating the defects
