THE REV. O. B. FROTHINGHAM.—The services of the Rev. O. B. Frothingham, Pastor of the Third Unitarian Church in this city, will be resumed To-Morrow (Sunday) at the Stone Church in West Twenty-eighth street, near the corner of Broadway.

OUR RUSSIAN GUESTS.—The Special Committee of the Aldermen and Councilmen to entertain the Russian officers was to have met yesterday morning, but owing to the absence of some of the members, the meeting did not take place. During the coming week, the Admiral, with his suite, will visit all the public institutions. Baron Stoeckel, the Russian Minister, has received an invitation to be present at the banquet, and is awaiting a fitting opportunity to thank the City authorities, on behalf of his Government, for the courtesies extended to the officers of the fleet. The Baron has suggested Thursday as a convenient time for the banquet, and it is probable that the 8th instant will be selected. From the arrangements that are being made it promises to be a brilliant affair. Yesterday a large number of the officers of the fleet visited the Central Park, and were escorted to the Ramble and other places of interest by the police force. They expressed their pleasure at the visit, and were especially pleased with the new Croton reservoir.

Large numbers of the sailors belonging to the fleet daily visit the city "on leave," and meet with attention on every hand from our citizens, who give them all the information they desire. Many of them speak three or four languages, and consequently experience no trouble in traveling about.

DARTMOUTH COLLEGE.—The Rev. Dr. Smith of this city has signified to the Board of Directors his acceptance of the Presidency of Dartmouth College to which he was unanimously elected, and will probably enter upon his duties there about the middle of the next month. His departure from New-York is much regretted in ministerial and other circles.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.—The Rev. Messrs. Smith and Colburn, with their wives, and Mr. Haws, who goes out to assist Mr. Bennett in the printing department, will sail in the steamer City of Washington to-day, on their way to Burmah as missionaries of the Baptist Board. In nine years of the Rev. C. C. Norton's pastoral care of the Sixth-street Baptist Church of this city, 381 persons have been added to the congregation by baptism, and a debt of $10,000 on their meeting-house has been paid. Mr. Norton is about leaving for Yorkville.

MUTILATED TREASURY NOTES.—Considerable complaint has been and still is made at the refusal of the Post-Office to receive the worn and mutilated Treasury notes and postal currency. They are redeemed only at the Treasury of the United States at Washington whither they can be sent addressed to the Treasurer of the United States by mail free of postage. A draft on the Assistant-Treasurer at New-York for the amount allowed, will be returned in the same way, to the address of the person remitting the same. Mutilated fractional notes presented must be in sums of not less than $3 of the full face value.

MORE CHANGE.—The Madison Avenue Baptist Church have sold their lots, on the corner of Amity and Wooster streets, for $30,000. This property directly adjoins the church in which the Rev. W. R. Williams, D. D., has preached for so many years. The remains of the dead have lately been removed, among which were those of the Rev. John Williams, the father of Dr. Williams, who was so long and so favorably known in this city as a Christian minister. It is probable that the sale of the lots which formed the burying ground will be followed by that of the Amity Street Church property, with reference to a transfer of the church to some more eligible locality, although there is a question involved as to the right of the congregation to dispose of it, the donor of the property having exacted a rental of one cent per annum so long as it was used for religious purposes.

THE IRISH BRIGADE CLUB.—A meeting of the returned officers of the Irish Brigade was held at the Whitney House on Wednesday evening, when the above Club was organized by the election of the following officers:

President, Gen. Thomas Francis Meagher; Vice-Presidents, Col. Robert Nugent, Col. Patrick Kelly, Col. Henry Fowler; Treasurer, Maj. James Cavanagh; Secretaries, Capt. Charles Clarke and Capt. J. T. T.

An Executive Committee of Fifteen was also appointed, of which Lieut.-Col. John Smith is Chairman. This Club promises to become one of the institutions of the city. Its purposes are strictly of a patriotic, charitable and literary character. A series of lectures, concerts and other public entertainments will be instituted. The anniversary of the great battles in which the Brigade has been engaged will be celebrated in a public manner. The proceeds of all these entertainments will be devoted to a fund for the relief of the suffering families of the dead, and the erection of a monument to the memory of the fallen officers and soldiers of the Brigade. One great object in view is to hold together the remaining officers of the Brigade, and forming a center of action and communication with their friends wherever they may be, and holding themselves ready to act when called upon either to aid their native land or defend the nationality and support the laws of their adopted country. A club-room will be fitted up, and due notice of its location will be given.

PRIZE SALE.—Four hundred and eighty barrels of spirits turpentine, comprising the cargo of the blockade-runner Prince Leopold, were sold on Thursday afternoon, at Hoff's Wharf, Brooklyn, under the direction of United States Marshal Murray. The prices obtained were $2 02 and $2 72 per gallon. On the same day a sale of turpentine was also made in Boston, at $2 50 and $2 52½ per gallon.

LAND OF THE BRAVE AND FREE.—A spirited patriotic song with this title has just been issued by Mr Horace Waters. The words and music are by the Rev. J. S. Pinsley.

THE CITY MILITIA.—In consequence of neglect on the part of the officers of the various regiments composing the State National Guard in preparing their pay-rolls, the men who were on duty for a month after the riots have not yet received their pay from the State, and the apathy in the matter evinced by some of the Colonels has necessitated the issue of a peremptory special order on the subject from Division headquarters.

A WANT SUPPLIED.—Among Protestants here has been a great need of an early service on Sunday morning. Persons desiring such service are invited to attend St. Ann's Free Church, Eighteenth street, near Fifth avenue, at 7½ o'clock a. m.

GRAPE EXHIBITION.—The free exhibition of native hardy grapes open on Thursday and Friday at No. 41 Park row, and visited by crowds of amateur and professional culturists, is by far the largest collection of the products of the vineyard ever before seen in this city. Forty-one exhibitors from every section of the loyal States were present, contributing, some of them, hundreds of clusters each to this interesting show. Messrs. Charles Downing, D. S. Dewey, John Dailledouze, Wm. Chorlton, and Isaac Buchanan were the Committee of Award appointed by the American Fruit-Growers' Association. Among the leading exhibitors is Mr. Knox of Pittsburgh, who alone shows twenty large dishes of as many different varieties, which were unfortunately detained, by the delay of the train, until after the judges had completed their examination and made their awards. In view of the growing importance of vine culture in the United States, such exhibitions cannot fail to have a most beneficial effect. Those interested in this charming branch of horticulture should by all means see this collection of grapes, thrown open free to all. This is the last day of exhibition. The judges awarded prizes as follows:

Best Native Seedling, which has never before taken a prize, $10, to Peter B. Mead of New-York, for "Iona."

Best collection of Native Grapes, $10, to A. S. Fuller of Brooklyn.

Second best do. do., $5, to M. Olm, Flushing gardener to Orange Judd, No. 41 Park row, New-York.

Best six varieties of Native Grapes, $4, to F. F. Mercereau, Catawissa, Penn.

Second best do. do., $2, to George W. Martin, Brooklyn, E. D., N. Y.

Best four varieties Native Grapes, $3, to W. Brockbank, Hudson, N. Y.

Second best do. do., $2, to Fred. Baumeister, East Newark, N. J.

Best five bunches Native Grapes of any kind, quality to rule, $2, to J. W. Bailey, Plattsburg, N. Y., for "Adirondac."

Best five bunches Delaware, $2, to E. O. Eaton, Troy, N. Y.

Best five bunches Diana, $2, to F. C. Brehm, Waterloo, N. Y.

Best five bunches Catawba, $2, to W. B. Westcott, New-York (grown in city yards).

Best five bunches Concord, $2, to H. S. Young, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

Best five bunches Hartford Prolific, $2, to W. Taft, Fordham, N. Y.

Best five bunches Herbemont, $2, to C. F. Erhardt, Ravenswood, L. I.

Best five bunches Allen's Hybrid, $2, to John Hoag, Newburgh, N. Y.

Discretionary Prize of $1, to George W. Martin, Brooklyn, N. Y., for Brinkley, grown out of doors.

Discretionary Prize of $1, to Peter Raabe, Philadelphia, Pa., for Loomis's Honey, in point of flavor.

Discretionary Prize of $3, to N. Armstrong, Bergen, N. J., for collection of hot-house grapes.

The Committee add:

None of the prizes were awarded for foreign grapes, there being no competition under the schedule. For the only lot (containing one bunch of each kind), the Committee have recommended a discretionary prize.

With regard to Native Grapes, the Committee are much gratified, particularly with the quality of the fruit, considering the present unfavorable season, and are disposed to commend not only the design of the New-York Fruit Growers' Society, in arranging for this display, so interesting and instructive, but also the public spirit and enterprise of Mr. Orange Judd, Editor of The American Agriculturist, who placed his rooms at the disposal of the Society, and contributed the prize money and the entire expense of the exhibition.

THE WILSON ARSON CASE.—The examination of this case was resumed on Friday before Justice Dowling, at the Tombs. A number of witnesses were examined, eliciting nothing new. The most of the witnesses testified to the vindictive and quarrelsome disposition of Mrs. Larkin, the complainant, and to having heard her, on previous occasions, make threats against Mr. Wilson, the proprietor of the bakery. Two witnesses stated that they heard the complainant harangue a mob during the July riots, encouraging them to burn the bakery of the defendant in Cherry street. One of the witnesses, Mr. Johnson, a night-watchman, whom the complainant alleged was present at the breaking out of the fire, stated that he was in Second avenue at the time, making a call, and knew nothing of the matter until informed of it by a driver on one of the Second avenue cars, that he then hurried down town, and reached the scene of the fire about 10 p. m., about one hour and a half after the breaking out of the fire. Considerable unimportant testimony was taken, and the case was then submitted to the Judge without argument. Justice Dowling will probably render a decision on Monday.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.—The stated meeting of the Managers was held at the Bible-House, Astor place, on Thursday, the 1st inst., at 3½ p. m., Benjamin L. Swan, esq., in the chair, assisted by Wm. B. Crosby and Francis Hall, esqrs. The Rev. Dr. Tyng read parts of the 4th and 5th chapters in the 1st Epistle to the Thessalonians, and offered prayer. Two new auxiliaries were recognized—one in Iowa and one in Kansas. Communications were received from the Rev. Dr. Fuller of Baltimore, returning thanks for grant of 25,000 Testaments for the Baptist Sunday Schools in the Southern States; from the Rev. Benjamin Parsons, with a statement as to Bible distribution in the army; from the Rev. R. Holden, Bahia, as to the Bible work in Brazil, from the Rev. W. Goodfellow, Buenos Ayres, in regard to the distribution of the Scriptures in that region; from Col. Trowbridge, Chairman of the Swiss-Italian Committee, in reference to the remittance of funds from this Society; from the Rev. Dr. Van Dyck, Beirut, in reference to printing the Arabic Scriptures, and other topics; from the Rev. Dr. Schauffler, Constantinople, as to the translation of the Scriptures into Turkish; from the Rev. Isaac G. Bliss, Constantinople, with interesting statements as to the revision, printing, and circulation of the Scriptures in Turkey; from the Rev. S. Van Dissell, Curaçoa, as to the printing of the Gospel by Mark in the Creole's language, which was agreed to by the Board. The Committee appointed at the last meeting to draw up resolutions on the character of the Hon. Luther Prentiss, the late President of this society, presented their report through the Chairman, Dr. Tyng. Grants of books were made to the missionary society of the Protestant Episcopal Church of Nevada, to the United Presbyterian Church for freedmen in Vicksburg; to the American Missionary Association for freedmen; to Pennsylvania Bible Society to supply prisoners of war at Fort Delaware; to American Sunday-school Union for Italy; Italian Bibles for prisoners at Sing Sing. Grants were made to supply prisoners of war at Johnson's Island and Gettysburg; to supply several regiments of soldiers just drafted or in the war; books in Spanish, German, and French for Venezuela, with others of smaller amount, and to the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, $1,000 for Bible work in India, and $1,500 for Germany.

FOUND DEAD IN A POLICE CELL.—An unknown man, at a late hour on Thursday night, was taken into the Nineteenth Precinct Station House in a state of intoxication. The doorman having occasion to enter the cell a short time afterward, found him lying upon the floor, dead. The deceased was about 60 years of age, and five feet nine inches in right.
