JUST PUBLISHED.

I. CROQUET. By Capt. MAYNE REID. A complete and standard manual of this most fascinating of out-door games. Price 50c.

"Croquet is destined at no distant day to become not only the national sport of England, but the PASTIME OF THE AGE, worthy of being designated the king of games, the queen of sports or the prince of pastimes."

II. TOUSSAINT L'OUVERTURE: A BIOGRAPHY AND AUTOBIOGRAPHY.

This interesting volume contains two distinct works—the "Life of Toussaint," by Dr. Beard, revised by an American editor; the "Memoirs of the Life of General Toussaint L'Ouverture," written by himself in dispatches to Napoleon Bonaparte, now first published in English, having been expressly translated for this edition; and a valuable appendix containing important illustrative papers, essays and poems, by Elizur Christopher, Harriet Martineau, Wordsworth, Whittier, John G. Saxe, Longfellow and Wendell Phillips. Pp. 372. Illustrated with a map of Colonial St. Domingo, and an authentic portrait and autograph of Toussaint. Price $1 25.

LAMARTINE ON TOUSSAINT.

"The Aureol Soul."

NAPOLEON BONAPARTE ON TOUSSAINT.

"We take pleasure in recognizing the services which you have rendered to the French people. If the banner floats over St. Domingo, it is to you and the brave blacks that we owe it. Called by your talents and the force of circumstances to the highest post, you have destroyed civil war, put reins on the persecution carried on by ferocious men, restored to honor religion and the worship of God."

WENDELL PHILLIPS ON TOUSSAINT.

"Fifty years hence, when truth gets a hearing, the Muse of History will put Phocian for the Greek and Brutus for the Roman, Hampden for England, Fayette for France, choose Washington as the bright, consummate flower of our earlier civilization, and John Brown the ripe fruit of our noonday—then, dipping her pen in the sunlight, will write in the clear blue, above them all, the name of the soldier, the statesman, the martyr, TOUSSAINT L'OUVERTURE."

III. HOSPITAL SKETCHES. By L. M. ALCOTT. 2d ed., handsomely bound in cloth. Price 50c.

"Written with extraordinary wit and fidelity of style, and showing such power to portray character, surely she has a brilliant literary career before her."—[D. A. Wasson.

No volume recently published has received more flattering notices from the Press than this "wonderful little book." Its true humor and pathos, and graphic descriptions, have won friends for it everywhere. See the circular of "Books for the Times."

IV. SPEECHES, LECTURES AND LETTERS BY WENDELL PHILLIPS, "the ablest and most eloquent orator of modern times." 7th thousand. Prices, $2 25, $1 50, $1, according to style.

V. THE BLACK MAN. By WM. WELLS BROWN. Biographical sketches of fifty-eight distinguished colored persons. $1. 3d ed. Illustrated.

"The headcount of the negro ever put in print."—[BOSTON TRANSCRIPT. "Just the book for the time."—[ZION'S HERALD. "Will do more for the colored man's elevation than any book yet published."—[LEWIS TAPPAN.

GAIL HAMILTON SAYS:

"I have made the acquaintance of 'PETER CARADINE,' and it is a very pleasant one. It is a wholesome and evangelical work. I should think it would be very popular and do much good. It is neither 'high falutin' nor cowardly immoral. The characters are well managed. The passages between Oliver Savage and Sally Green are extremely well done, and naturally drawn. The little Stepmother and Mirandy are charming. It is a good book, and it is a good thing that a book that will be read so much is so good."

BOURNE'S CATECHISM OF THE STEAM-ENGINE.

D. APPLETON & Co., Nos. 443 AND 445 BROADWAY, PUBLISH THIS DAY

A CATECHISM
OF THE STEAM-ENGINE
IN ITS VARIOUS APPLICATIONS TO MINES, MILLS, STEAM NAVIGATION, RAILWAYS, AND AGRICULTURE, with Practical Instructions for the
MANUFACTURE AND MANAGEMENT OF ENGINES OF EVERY CLASS, by
John Bourne, C. E.
New and Revised Edition.
1 vol. 12mo., illustrated. Cloth $1 75.

In offering to the American public a reprint of a work on the steam Engine so deservedly successful, and so long considered standard, the Publishers have not thought it necessary that it should be an exact copy of the English edition. There were some details in which they thought it could be improved and better adapted to the use of American Engineers. On this account the size of the page has been increased to a full 12mo, to admit of larger illustrations, which in the English edition are often on too small a scale, and some of the illustrations themselves have been supplied by others equally applicable, more recent, and to us more familiar examples. The first part of Chapter XI., devoted in the English edition to English portable and fixed agricultural engines, in this edition gives place entirely to illustrations from American practice, of steam engines as applied to different purposes, and of appliances and machines necessary to them. But with the exception of some of the illustrations and the description of them, and the correction of a few typographical errors, this edition is a faithful transcript of the latest English edition.

New Publications.

NEW BOOKS AND NEW EDITIONS.
THIS DAY PUBLISHED:
MRS. CLIFFORD'S MARRIAGE.
REPRINTED FROM BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE.
A CHARMING LITTLE STORY.
Paper, 12mo., price 25 cents.

MABEL:
Or,
HEART HISTORIES.
By ROSELLA RICE.

"Mabel is one of those books which only women write or can write. It is a domestic novel, showing much insight into female character, in all its nicer shades.

"The scene is laid in New-England, and the tale reveals 'heart histories' that will have quite a charm for a large class of readers."

1 vol. 12mo., cloth, $1 20.

THE SEA.
By MICHELET, author of "Love," &c.

This book has been some time out of print, and a new edition is called for by the admirers of its ever entertaining author.

1 vol., thick 12mo., $1 25.

F., F. & Co. have lately published:

THREE YEARS IN CHILI. By an American Lady.

No book of travels has been more universally commended; it is spicy and readable, imparting much interesting information regarding a country of which but little is known.

1 vol. 12mo., 75 cents.

"ON THE ANCIENT EGYPTIANS."
THE ROMANCE OF THE MUMMY.
By GAUTIER. Introduction by W. C. PRIME, esq.

"The best picture of the Egypt of the Pharaohs that has hitherto been attempted. . . A story of charming interest."

1 vol., paper, 50 cents; cloth, $1.

FANCHON THE CRICKET. By GEORGE SAND.

"A very natural, well told, charming story. . . There are some, perhaps, certainly but few, who have not seen this beautiful story in a dramatized form, as produced in all the principal cities of the country by Miss Maggie Mitchell. We can only remark that the book is even more interesting than the play."

1 vol., cloth, elegant, $1; paper, 50 cents.

FOLLETT, FOSTER, & Co.,
No. 49 Walker-st., New-York.
