AMUSEMENTS.

THE FRENCH THEATER.—Mr. Juignèt commenced his third season of French theatricals on Tuesday evening, with a representation of Scribe's "Bataille de Dames." The attendance was both large and brilliant. We saw only the first act of the performance, and that was rather below mediocrity. The general appearance of the theater is inviting; excellent taste is displayed in the matter of scenery, stage-decorations, &c.; and when the new members of the company get to feeling a little more at home, and certain details in the management are as liberally arranged as at the other theaters, we have no doubt that Mr. Juignèt will deserve and achieve his usual success. The plays for to-morrow night will be La Chanoinesse and Mon Isméne.

WINTER GARDEN.—Mr. J. S. Clarke will close his engagement at this house on Saturday. There is to be a benefit on Friday, but, judging from the care with which the management has kept its details from reaching the eyes of the public at large, we presume it would be considered discourteous in us to reveal even the little that we know about it.

NIBLO'S GARDEN.—Mr. Forrest will give his famous rendering of Febro, in "The Broker of Bogota," to-night for the last time. On its first representation a good share of the honors were carried off by Mr. Wheatley, whose impersonation of Antonio de Caberero may perhaps be considered (and this is no mean praise) his finest performance.

To-morrow evening Matilda Heron will give her powerful and characteristic rendering of Medea.

The next great event at Niblo's will be the production, with great scenic splendor, of Shakespeare's tragedy of "Coriolanus," which Mr. Wheatley has had in preparation for several months, and means to bring out in a style of magnificence never surpassed on the American stage.

Concerts.

The concert of Mr. Gottschalk met with the customary favor which attends these entertainments. The performers were Miss Lucy Simons who sustained the exceedingly favorable and flattering impressions of her previous debuts. The pieces she gave were tests of good vocalism—difficult, florid, bravura compositions. Young Mr. Sanderson grows constantly in force and sentiment under the superior influences with which he is surrounded. Mr. Gottschalk has stereotyped triumphs now, and little or nothing new remains to be said of him. The other performers in the bill were Mr. J. R. Thomas and Mr. Theodore Thomas.

CONCERT MATINEE.—On Saturday at 1 o'clock, at Irving Hall, Mr. Th. Thomas will give his second Matinee, with orchestra, solo singers, Miss Riddell, &c., and Mr. Gottschalk on the piano. Entertainments these of speculative merit and attraction. They are the best means of hearing living orchestral compositions—not simply those of the dead.

On Tuesday evening, Nov. 3, at Irving Hall, Mr. Stoepel will present his Orchestral and Vocal symphony of Hiawatha.

On Wednesday evening, at Irving Hall, there will be a magnificent concert—a testimonial affair to the late Mr. Wollenhaupt. A committee of literary and musical gentlemen have it in charge. A number of the most eminent vocal and instrumental artists in the country will be the magnets.

Railroad Accident.

CINCINNATI, Thursday, Oct. 29, 1863.

Five cars on the Kentucky Central Railroad, containing a portion of the 2d Ohio Heavy Artillery, were thrown from the track twenty-seven miles from this city this morning. One man was killed, eighteen severely wounded, and twelve slightly injured. The accident was caused by a broken rail.

The National Finances.

PHILADELPHIA, Thursday, Oct. 29, 1863.

The subscription agent reports the sale of $3,792,000, the largest sale yet made in any one day, the Boston house took over $2,000,000. At this rate the amount remaining unsold will be consumed in six weeks or less. The ten days' notice, which was published some time since, only referred to the withdrawal of the loan by the Secretary, while the amount authorized was unsold. So little remains that it will probably be left to be exhausted on the principle of "first come first served."

Business Notices.

MORTON'S GOLD PENS are now sold at the same prices as before the commencement of the war; this is entirely owing to the Manufacturer's improvements in machinery, his present large Retail Business and Cash-in-Advance System; for, until he commenced advertising, his business was done on Credit and strictly with the Trade.

The Morton Gold Pens are the only ones sold at old prices, as the makers of all other gold pens charge the Premium on the Gold, Government Tax, &c.; but Morton has in no case changed his prices. Wholesale or Retail.

Of the great numbers sent by mail to all parts of the world during the past few years, not one in a thousand has failed to reach its destination in safety; showing that the Morton Gold Pen can be obtained by any one, in every part of the world, at the same price, postage only excepted.

Reader, you can have an enduring, always ready, and reliable Gold Pen, exactly adapted to your hand and style of writing, which will do your writing vastly cheaper than Steel Pens; and at the present almost universal High Pressure Price of everything, you can have a Morton Gold Pen cheaper, in proportion to the labor spent upon it and material used, than any other Gold Pen in the World. If you want one call on A. MORTON, No. 25 Maiden Lane, or inclose stamps for circular.
