READY MONDAY, DECEMBER 7:
THE STARS AND BARS;
Or,
THE REIGN OF TERROR IN MISSOURI.
324 pp. 12mo. Price, $1 25.
This rare work of genius is a vivid and life-like picture of the fearful scenes that have been transpiring in Western Missouri, from the beginning of our civil conflict down to the Lawrence Massacre.
It is from the pen of the Rev. J. KELSO, one of the few loyal Ministers of Revelation, who dared face the perils of a reign of terror which has scarcely had a parallel in the history of our race. His book throws new light on the great Rebellion and although not for its somewhat in the form of fiction, it is a truthful and thrilling story of faithfulness and dark conspiracies, abounding in spirited dialogues, stirring incidents and startling exposures.

MR. PARTON'S NEW WORK IS READY.—GENERAL BUTLER IN NEW-ORLEANS; A History of the Administration of the Department of the Gulf in the year 1862, with an account of the capture of New-Orleans, and a sketch of the previous career of the General, civil and military. By JAMES PARTON, author of "Life and Times of Aaron Burr," "Life of Andrew Jackson," etc. Crown 8vo, with portrait on steel and maps. 650 pp. Price, in cloth, $2; half calf, extra, or antique, $3 50. When the extraordinary interest of the subject of this volume, and the rare ability of its author to clothe his relations of events with fascination are considered, it is evidently probable that the Rebellion will produce no more interesting volume than this. THE AMERICAN TRANSLATION OF RENAN'S LIFE OF JESUS is beginning to make a stir on this continent such as has rarely been known in the literary world.
IN PARIS,
where it has just made its appearance, the excitement is supreme.
The French correspondent of The New-York Tribune says: "The ordinary dog-day calm in literature is broken this season by the storm that rages about Renan's Vie de Jesus. The book is barely two months out of the press, and if the booksellers' advertisement is credible,
25,000 COPIES of it are already sold.
It has in its favor, with the general reader, singular charms of style, and of a truly poetic, though firmly, critically chastened sentiment. It is learned, deeply religious, utterly clear from skeptical sneer and polemic violence.
Sold everywhere, and sent by mail free, on receipt of price, $1 50, by

BY THE AUTHOR OF THE "WIDE, WIDE WORLD."
READY THIS MORNING:
THE OLD HELMET.
By the author of the "Wide, Wide World," "Queechy," &c., 2 vols., 12mo. $2 50.
"The multitude of a fairness of Miss Warner's earlier productions will rejoice to learn that another book from her pen has just been issued. The scene is laid in England. The filling up the author has managed with rare skill, and the same vein of Evangelical, Christian truth and sentiment which ran through her former works still more pervades the present. * * * We have read the volumes with great interest, and predict for them an extensive circulation."—[Observer.
"The style is fascinating, the plot good, the characters well sustained, and the impressions not merely moral but religious. * * * The work will have a sale, and although we think there is too much feeling and too little action, it is recommended as a romance by so many, we have no objection to its book. We believe that while it charms, it will also instruct in vital truth."—[Christian Advocate and Journal.

"Absolutely the most interesting Novel of the day, only it is not a Novel."—[Boston Post.
MR. PARTON'S NEW WORK,
GENERAL BUTLER AT NEW-ORLEANS,
excites the enthusiasm of loyal men and the wrath of Copperheads. The BOSTON POST, a Democratic journal of the old school, says of it: "All American readers know the ability of Parton with a subject like this. Burr, Jackson, Butler—these are the jewels in its crown, and there is some justice in them also. It is sharp and pungent in style; the stories illustrating the life of the boy, the lawyer, the man, are well selected and better told. Mr. Parton's book is absolutely the most interesting novel of the day, only it is not a novel, it is the truth. It is fresh with the stirring incidents that have engrossed the attention of the nation so far in the war; it is a history of many points of our national struggle; it is a gallery of intellectual models, every their organs who know the facts, and are full of speculations as to causes and effects; it is a most racy, spicy and readable book."
THE NEW-YORK DAILY NEWS, a Democratic journal of the new school, on the contrary is very angry and bitter, styling Mr. Parton a "literary toady," declaring that "the man who would publish such a man (as Butler) would publish a forger." Also, that "Butler is a renegade, a parasite, a money-grubbing speculator, an insulter of women," &c. The conclusion of the whole matter with The News, with reference to this book, is that "as a literary and political curiosity it is therefore worth reading, on the principle which would render valuable a life of the Devil."
TRUTH is that without any such design, this book is one of the most powerful, perhaps the most powerful, of all the Anti-Slavery books yet published. Price $2.

The "2d Quality" are superior to any Pens made by him previous to the year 1860.
The "3d Quality" he intends shall equal in respect to Durability, Elasticity and Good Writing Qualities (the only true considerations) any Gold Pens made elsewhere.
In regard to the Cheap Gold Pens, he begs leave to say that previous to operating his New and Patented Machines, he could not have made as Good Writing and Durable Pens, for the price, had the Gold been furnished gratuitously.
Parties ordering must in all instances specify the "Name" or the "Number" and "Quality" of the Pens wanted, and be particular to describe the kind they prefer—whether stiff or limber, coarse or fine.
All remittances sent by mail in registered letters are at my risk; and to all who send twenty cents (stamps for registering) in addition to the price of goods ordered, I will guaranty their safe delivery.
Parties sending Gold or Silver will be allowed the full premium on the day received.
TO CLUBS—A discount of 10 per cent will be allowed on sums of $10, of 15 per cent on $20, and of 20 per cent on $50, if sent to one address at one time.
