FROM HAVANA.

Revolution in Matamoras—Later from San Domingo—Hayti—Arrival of Admiral Lessoffsky—A Grand State Ball.

From Our Special Correspondent.

HAVANA, Jan. 26, 1864.

We have received the not very astounding news from Matamoras of a revolution which took place there on the 1st inst. The Juarists, having succeeded in getting possession of the place, met and resolved upon various articles of political improvement. Even the heads of the Tamaulipas faction, who really belong to neither of the principal parties of Mexico, signed this document, the majority of the articles of which refer to a march upon Tampico. Positions and duties in this attack were assigned to the different forces in and about Matamoras, and all seemed going on well. Gen. Manuel Ruiz remained Governor of the State, and the City of Matamoras was delivered over to him by Serna, according to the articles of this agreement. Ruiz has always been a very strong partisan of Juarez, and a great defender of his Government.

The Tampico expedition was not carried out, as Col. Cortinas (the prime mover of the revolutions of November, and it was he who shot Cobos) refused to fulfil one of the articles of this famous agreement by which he was to march upon Tampico with the troops under his command; he is said to have alleged as a reason the inclemency of the weather, the cold, &c. Instead of leading towards Tampico the troops confided to him by Ruiz, Cortinas besieged Matamoras with them, and succeeded in taking the place; having thus reconquered it he reestablished the government of Serno, who is said to be neither in favor of the French Intervention, nor yet of Juarez—a sort of (Tamaulipas) States rights man. Gen. Ruiz succeeded in escaping, though it is not stated in what direction. All was quiet at Matamoras up to last accounts, but another outbreak was momentarily expected, as also an attack from the Juarist troops in the neighborhood who had not as yet either disbanded or joined Cortinas.

From St. Domingo, strange to say, we have no reports of Spanish victories, though there have been several arrivals hence. The steamer Bazan arrived at Santiago de Cuba on the 19th, bringing "several" sick and wounded, among them a Brigadier, who is to come to this city. The steamer Europa, of which I wrote you in my last, which left here with 700 soldiers, was obliged to put into Matanzas on account of stress of weather. The steamer La Cubana, which left this port on the 6th with troops, returned to Santiago de Cuba on the 22d; she brought 300 sick and wounded, among them four officers. She left the same day for Nuevitas, where she was to take on board mules, &c., and carry them to "the theater of the war." On the 21st, the Santa Lucia left for Port-au-Prince (!) and St. Domingo. The merchant steamer Maria has been chartered to carry soldiers (no number given), corn, rice, bread, arms, &c., to St. Domingo City, and is to leave to-day. The steamer-of-war Velasco is loading for the same destination, and beside a like cargo, will take mules. Something of importance is expected, and considerable excitement prevails in military circles, but I cannot make out what it is. Some seem to hope, I think, that something in favor of the Spanish arms is on the tapis. Others believe the report circulated, though I believe without any official foundation, that the island is to be abandoned, and the ungrateful Dominicans to be left to their fate. Having refused the good offices of Spain, they are to be abandoned to all the horrors of Republican independence, and to all the evils of a Government of their own selection and adoption. Poor "Rebels!"

I have been very much amused at an article published in the Diario de la Marina of this city referring to Hayti. It has always been very bitter against the people of Geffrard, but now its complaints are loud—Hayti has aided the rebels—Hayti has winked at the violation of their blockade—Hayti has harbored fugitives, &c., &c., ad infinitum, and it invokes international law to authorize the castigation of hated Hayti. It does not take into consideration that Spain, through Cuba, has given aid to her utmost to the Confederate Rebels of the United States, that she has not only winked but furnished every facility to the violation of our blockade—that Havana has from time immemorial been a haven for fugitives from the United States, and that it is to City filled with Secessionists who have sought and obtained refuge here, and the Diario forgets that it has furnished a strong argument for the castigation of Spain through Cuba. It argues that because one of the Rebels, Gen. Fiorentino, murdered some Spaniards and stole some Spanish property, he is not to be considered a political fugitive, but a criminal, and that if he has fled to Hayti (although it does not say positively that he has) he should be delivered up to Spain that outraged humanity, etc., may be avenged.

The Russian Admiral Lessoffsky arrived on the 24th, in his flagship Alexandra Newsky. Fortunately the Russian Consul arrived from Europe, per English steamer, on the 22d. The usual grand salutes have been fired and returned, and all is quiet again in regard to what a Secessionist the other day called the "Yankee Russians," save a sort of smothered report that a grand ball is to be given them by their consul, the Count of Fernandina having placed his exquisite palace at his disposal. If this comes off it will be a grand affair, and I will duly send you a description. This leads me to the State ball given at the palace on the night of the 23d, in honor of the anniversary of the birthday of the heir apparent to the Spanish throne. It was gorgeous in the extreme. The whole court-yard was turned, as if by magic, into a delightful garden, where blooming shrubs and flowers greeted the eye as one entered. In the center the fine statue of Columbus was inclosed in a tent of gaslight formed of tubes, and furnished a most brilliant effect, the grand staircase carpeted in scarlet, as were all the salons used, the temporary balustrade of blue and gold, the immense mirrors, with their broad, gilded frames, the huge bouquets of flowers, lightened by a thousand gaslights, was in itself an object of admiration. Everything was arranged with such order and precision, and got up in such exquisite taste as to render this ball one of the finest which has ever been given. Fine dressing rooms were prepared, where servants in livery attended to every possible want, received cloaks, hats, &c., giving checks for them. The guests were received in the first salon by Gen. Dulce and his amiable sister-in-law, the aid-de-camps taking charge of the ladies and seating them. In the court-yard, on a platform behind the statue, was stationed beside the orchestra a military band, which between the dances discoursed delicious selections from the operas of Lucia, Rigoletto, &c. The ball was opened with the usual formal quadrille: The Captain-General and the Countess de O'Reilly having as vis a vis the Admiral of the Station and the Countess de San Fernando and the sides were formed by Gen. ——— and Mrs. Allsana, and Count O'Reilly with the wife of the Regent of our Supreme Court. It would be useless to attempt to enumerate the beautiful young ladies there. I saw with pleasure many fair countrywomen and many other foreigners. The refreshments and finally the supper were worthy components of the whole, everything of the best and in profusion.

The Habana has just come in though we have not as yet received her mail. The rains seem to have stopped for the present, and the weather is pleasant.

The British men-of-war Petrel and Buzzard are in port; the latter from New-Orleans. Salutes have been fired most of the day.

JOHN BROWN'S BROTHER.—Frederick Brown, the young brother of the soldier and martyr, whose heroism has become historic, has been recommended by leading Anti-Slavery Representatives in Congress for the position of Superintendent of the Government Colony of Freedmen at Arlington Hights, and he will probably receive the appointment.

He is a man of excellent character, a true friend of freedom, and has always entertained the sentiments for which his brother gave up his life.

Shortly, a Freedmen's bureau will be organized in one of the Departments, under which Superintendents of the Freedmen in the several States will be appointed, and there is good reason to suppose that Mr. Brown will be appointed to the Superintendency of Virginia. In that event a striking act of poetic justice will be acknowledged. Less than five years ago, John Brown, whose "soul is marching on," suffered a felon's doom, at the hands of men who are now recognized as outlaws and felons wherever a love of liberty and justice are cherished.

John Brown struck a blow for Freedom, and its echo was heard throughout the civilized world. He was hanged, but the scaffold from which his soul went marching on raised him to the dignity and honor of a martyr. He died an Abolitionist, at a time when that name was odious. He was buried in the woods where the "birds sing his requiem, and the wild flowers are his epitaph." What a change in public opinion since his death. Poetry, history and art volunteer to honor his deeds, and transmit his name to future ages. His brother (who has every qualification for the post) promises to be placed in a responsible position in the proud State of Virginia as one of its rulers.

"The right with the right,
And with truth shall be,
And come what there may,
To stand in the way,
That day we all may see."

A COSTLY PEW.—One of the most eligibly situated pews in the broad aisle of the "Stone Chapel," Boston (Unitarian Church), was lately sold to close the estate of its deceased owner, at auction, for $5,100! This church is one of the wealthiest and oldest in New-England. It was the first Episcopal, and some years later became the first Unitarian, church in Boston; then, under the rectorship of the Rev. Mr. Freeman, The Rev. Mr. Foote is the present pastor of this flourishing church, and it has lately received a magnificent present of elaborately designed windows, made in Europe, at the expense of John A. Lowell, esq., one of the "solid men" of Boston.

LAW INTELLIGENCE.

CORRECTION.—In the Divorce case of Catharine L. agt. James M. Nixon referred to in Saturday's TRIBUNE, the result was not exactly stated. The Referee's report shows that judgment was given in favor of the plaintiff (Mrs. Nixon) in consequence of infidelity by the defendant in 1859 with some woman unknown. The name of Isabel Cubas, the well known Spanish dancerne, was used in the complaint, but she did not arrive in this country until three years after the act upon which the Nixon divorce is granted, and there is nothing in the Referee's report which in any way applies to her, the case being confined, in express terms, to the point above cited.

THE COURTS FOR FEBRUARY.

The February term of the courts promises to be an important one. The Supreme Court, General Term, will be in session. Its calendar contains several hundred cases, some of them of a very interesting character. There will be no Special Term of the Supreme Court in February, but two Circuits will be held, the second part commencing on Monday, the 8th. The Superior Court will hold a General, two Special and two Trial Terms.

In the Federal Courts, jury, admiralty, and prize causes are plenty, and there are several interesting cases under the Internal Revenue law to be tried.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS—SPECIAL TERM—JAN. 29.
Before Judge CARDOZO.
THE EXPRESS NEWSPAPER CASE.
Clarke agt. Brooks.

Mr. Cram resumed his argument this morning. He contended that the affidavits of the defendants were unfair, and did not show the facts of the case, especially in regard to the profits of the paper; therefore the affidavits were not entitled to credit. The indebtedness and assets could not be ascertained until a sale had been had. Not a word had been said that the present time was an unfit time for the sale of the paper. He congratulated the counsel (John McKeon) upon his approval of the paper as a loyal paper. He (Mr. Cram) would rather turn his property than use it to disseminate such principles as this paper.

Mr. McKeon said the object of the counsel was to assail the plaintiffs, and he had made use of this motion. Attempts had been made to break the concern down upon statements which had nothing to do with the present motion. The counsel had omitted all reference to the circulation of The Morning Express. The doctrine of partnership was clear that a partner could not use his time or devote his attention to interests beside those of his partners. Here was a man reporting for a paper, and using his Wall street knowledge for his own private interests. The plaintiff stood self-condemned, for during the long period the plaintiff was partner the paper advocated the same opinions as now, and he made no complaint, and it was not until he found out unknown purchasers for it.

The Judge reserved his decision.

FALL OF A BUILDING IN BRIDGE STREET—LOSS OF LIFE.—On Saturday evening, about sundown, the side and rear walls of the six-story warehouse, Nos. 3 and 5 Bridge street, occupied by Messrs Mullaney & Newton, fell in with a terrific crash, burying a man named Michael Quinlan beneath the ruins. His lifeless remains were extricated from the mass of rubbish about 8 o'clock the same evening. Coroner Wildey on Sunday held an inquest on the body at the First Precinct Station-House. Mr. George Newton, residing at No. 80 State street, Brooklyn, testified as follows:

"I am bookkeeper for Messrs. Mullaney & Newton; was in the office on the south-west corner of the building at about 5 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, when I heard the men who were in the front of the building, taking in bacon, hallooing; I rushed out of the door, and saw the center of the floor falling in; the floors gave way first, before the walls; I rushed out of the store; all of the rear and most of sidewall fell as soon as I got outside; the front wall merely bulged; the store was pretty full, but not so full as it had been, and was quite evenly stored; I have no idea what caused the fall; I am not aware that there was any evidence of weakness discovered before the fall; the warning came with the fall; I do not know the age of the store; I have heard that it was 20 or 30 years; a part of the front wall was repaired last Winter; Mr. De Witt, a lawyer, owns the building; there were six porters present, all on the first floor; no one was injured in the store; I do not think anything below the street gave way; there were two coopers at work in the cellar at the time; all the porters and coopers escaped from the building the moment the alarm was given; in a few moments more all of them would have been buried beneath the ruins."

The jury returned a verdict that "John Quinlan came to his death by injuries received by the falling of the westerly sidewall of store Nos. 3 and 5 Bridge street, the cause of the falling of said wall being to us unkown." Deceased was a native of Ireland, 34 years of age, and resided at No. 76 Greenwich street. He leaves a family.

ARMY RELIEF BAZAAR BUILDINGS,
ACADEMY PARK, ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 18, 1864.

THE PRESIDENT of the UNITED STATES, through the Secretary of State, having generously donated to this Bazaar (which is to be held at Albany in the month of February, A. D. 1864, in aid of the Sanitary Commission for the benefit of our Sick and Wounded Soldiers) the original draft of his FIRST EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION, dated September 22, A. D. 1862, the undersigned, a Special Committee appointed for that purpose, hereby give public notice that the said Proclamation will be sold by issuing a series of Tickets, duly numbered from one to five thousand, at ONE DOLLAR for EACH TICKET. The number of tickets issued not to exceed FIVE THOUSAND, but the issue may be limited to any less number in the discretion of the Committee. The drawing to be made by putting the various numbers or names of the purchasers of tickets sold in the same wheel used by the Provost-Marshal of the XIVth Congressional District of the State of New-York in making the draft of soldiers for said District. The holder of the first ticket drawn will be entitled to the Proclamation.

The Proclamation is in the proper handwriting of ABRAHAM LINCOLN, President of the United States of America, excepting two interlineations in pencil, made by WILLIAM H. SEWARD, Secretary of State, and the formal heading and ending of the document, which are in the handwriting of the Chief Clerk in the office of the Secretary of State. It is written on one side of four half sheets of foolscap paper, and can be seen and examined either in the Bazaar Buildings, or in the office of the Superintendent of the Insurance Department, in the State Hall, Albany.

This Proclamation is, in the opinion of the Committee, an autographic and historic treasure of more interest and importance, even, than the Proclamation of January 1, 1863, which was only the necessary sequence of the September Proclamation.

Tickets can be obtained immediately by inclosing ONE DOLLAR for each ticket, with name and residence, to WM. BARNES, Chairman of the Committee, Albany, N. Y. If any of our friends in Great Britain wish to compete for this valuable document, a contribution of FOUR SHILLINGS STERLING will give one chance for it; and all sums realized for exchange over $1 per ticket, will, if desired, be given in shares to the British Museum. Mr. T. H. BARKER, No. 41 John Dillon street, Manchester, is solicited to act for Great Britain.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 15, 1863.

TO the GROWERS and MANUFACTURERS OF FLAX AND HEMP.

The Commissioners appointed by this Department, consisting of the Hon. J. K. Morehead of Pennsylvania, William M. Bailey of Rhode Island, and John A. Warder of Ohio, to consider the following appropriation made by the last Congress, viz:

"For investigations to test the practicability of cultivating and preparing flax and hemp as a substitute for cotton, twenty thousand dollars,"

Having met, and after several days' investigation, believing that a further and fuller notice of their investigations might produce valuable results, adjourned to meet again on WEDNESDAY, the 24th day of February next, at 12 o'clock m.

They request all interested in the distribution of this appropriation, or anxious to develop the subject for the public good, to send to this Department, on or before that day, samples of the hemp and flax in the different stages of preparation; of the fibres and fabrics prepared by them, accompanied by statements of the various processes used, and the cost of production in each case; also, descriptions of the kinds and cost of machinery used, where made, &c., together with any and all information that may be useful to the Commission.

This information is necessary before an intelligent distribution of the appropriation can be made.

ISAAC NEWTON, Commissioner.

The contractor shall be liable for all the Chucks, Shins, and Tongues coming from all the Government Beef Cattle slaughtered, unless it can be made satisfactorily to appear to the Subsistence Department that all due exertion, diligence, and care were made to obtain the said articles.

Payment will be required every ten days, in Government funds.

The bids will state the amount, per animal, for the articles referred to, and be accompanied by the following guaranty, certificate, affidavits of each guarantor, and oath of allegiance. Blank forms can be obtained by application to the undersigned.

PROPOSALS.

I, ———, of the State of ———, County of ———, offer, per head, for all Chucks, Shins and Tongues of all Government Beef Cattle killed within the ancient limits of the District of Columbia, ——— dollars and ——— cents (the amount to be in words and figures), subject to all the conditions of the advertisement herewith appended.

GUARANTY.

We, the undersigned, residents of ———, in the County of ——— and State of ———, hereby, jointly and severally, covenant with the United States, and guarantee in case the foregoing bid of ——— shall be accepted, that he will, within five days after the acceptance of said bid, sign a contract for the prompt and faithful execution of the same, and that we will become his surety on a bond, in the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars, for the performance of his contract in conformity with the terms of his proposal, and that, in case the said ——— shall fail to enter into a contract, under the terms of the advertisement, dated Jan. 26, 1864, we guarantee to make good the difference between the offer made by the said ——— in the foregoing proposal, and the next lowest responsible formal bidder, or the person to whom the contract may be awarded.

Witness: Given under our hands and seals this ——— day of ———, 186 . [Seal.] [Seal.]

The responsibility of the guarantors must be shown by the official certificate of a United States District Attorney or United States Judge. The certificate must be in the following form:

I hereby certify that from evidence entirely satisfactory to me, the above named guarantors are good and sufficient as sureties for double the amount for which they offer to be security.

To which each guarantor must make and append the following

OATH:

State of ———, County of ———, before me, ———, a ——— in and for the County and State aforesaid, personally appeared ———, one of the sureties on the guaranty of ———, who, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is worth over and above all just debts and liabilities, the sum of ten thousand dollars.

"Subscribed and sworn before me, this ——— day of ———, 186—, at ———."

No bids will be considered unless made out in conformity with the above form, and are accompanied by the foregoing guaranty, certificate and affidavits.

All bidders must forward with their proposals an oath of allegiance, unless one may be on file with the officer who shall open the bids, and no proposals not fully complying with the foregoing requirements, as well in fact as in form, will be considered or regarded as a proposal within the meaning of this advertisement.

The contractor will be held accountable for the chucks, &c., one week after the signing of the contract.

Bidders must be present at the opening of the bids to respond to their names, and all bids must be indorsed "Proposals for purchasing chucks, shins, and tongues," and be directed to the undersigned. S. C. GREENE, Captain and C. S.
