MARKETS—CAREFULLY REPORTED FOR THE N. Y. TRIBUNE.
SATURDAY, Feb. 19, 1864.

COTTON—No sales of any consequence have transpired since our last report, and the market again closes heavy and lower; we quote nominally at 79@80c. for Middling.

COFFEE—There has been considerable inquiry for Rio, extending back for a day or two, but the particulars have been kept secret until to-day; we now hear of some 20,000 bags, here and to arrive, part resales, on private terms, the market closing at 1c. advance for the week, 35½c. being now demanded for prime lots. West India styles continue in demand, and are very firm; sales of 300 bags Jamaica at 33c., less 2½ ⅌ cent, and 1,000 bags St. Domingo, mostly, if not all, at 31@31½c. The lot of 2,000 bags Maracaibo, reported to us yesterday, we learn to-day was a fabrication.

CHEMICALS—The market is firm; sales of 50 tuns Soda Ash at 3¼c.; 10 tuns Sal Soda at ⅌2 90; 20 tuns Caustic Soda at 6½c.; 500 kegs Bi-Carb. Soda at 7½@7¾c., and 300 cks. Bleaching Powders, to arrive, at 6@7c.

COPPER—Refined Ingot is in moderate demand and the market is firmer for Baltimore, sales of 50,000 lb. of which were effected on the spot at 41½c., and 60,000 do. in Baltimore at 40c. cash; Lake is firm at 42½c. for Detroit, and 42c. for Portage.

GUNNY CLOTH is in moderate request and held firmly, generally at 15½@16½c. ⅌ lb. for standard goods; sales of 100 bales on private terms.

HOPS continue in fair request for consumption especially the better grades, and the market is firm; the export demand has subsided owing to the meager supply of choice descriptions offering and extreme prices asked; sales of 50 bales prime for export at 35c., and 250 do. for home use at 29@33c. for common to prime, chiefly at 27@33c. for good to prime. Medio goods are plenty and continue dull and heavy. Yearlings are scarce and firm at 19@20c.

HAY is in fair demand and the market is firm; sales of 350 bales at $1 20@$1 45 per 100 lb., the latter rate for choice quality.

LEAD—Pig is firm but the market is rather quiet; sales of 10 tuns soft Spanish and English at 11c. ⅌ lb. cash.

LIME remains neglected, but the market is steady at $1 25 for Common Lump, and $1 60 for Lump.

MOLASSES—A good fair business is still done in this market, which retains a healthy state, holders demanding and obtaining full previous rates. We note sales to-day of 40 hhds. new crop Cuba Muscovado at 48c.; 200 hhds. new crop Clayed do. at 34c.; 117 hhds. Barbadoes on private terms, and 400 bbls. NAVAL STORES are decidedly firmer as there are no Government sales in prospect immediately, but the demand is moderate at the improvement. We quote Spirits Turpentine at ⅌3 15@$3 25 ⅌ gallon; do. French at $2 90@$3; French Rosin at $3@$28; American Common at $20@31; No. 2 at $32@$34; No. 1 at $35@$40 ⅌ 280 lb., and Tar at $14@$16 for Domestic and Foreign.

OILS generally are very quiet, but the market is firm at full former rates.

PROVISIONS—The Pork market is less active, and prices both for parcels on the spot, and for future delivery are lower. We hear of about 2,000 bbls. new year old Mess for March, and 3,000 bbls. new Mess for May, both on private terms. The sales on the spot are 1,200 bbls. at $20 50 for Old Mess; $21 50@$21 62½ for Mess; $23 50 for New do.; $18 25@$18 50 for Old Prime; $19 50@$19 75 for New do.; $23 25@$23 50 for City Prime Mess; $21 25@$21 50 for Western do., and $21@$21 25 for New This Mess. Bacon is fairly active but prices favor the buyer; sales of 900 boxes Cumberland Cut at 11½@11¾c., the inside rate for a lot to arrive. Dressed Hogs are firm at 8½@10½c. for Western and 11@11½c. for City. Lard is steady; sales of 1,250 pkgs. at 13@13½c. for Old, and 13½@13¾c. for New, and 200 kegs at 16c., for March delivery. We hear of sales of 1,000 pkgs. at 14@14½c. The light receipts of Lard enable holders to obtain full prices notwithstanding the decline in gold and exchange (which by the way was only temporary). Butter and Cheese are less active, owing to the decline in exchange, but the supply is light and holders are indifferent sellers unless at full previous prices.

PETROLEUM continues to arrive sparingly, the receipts today being 1,426 bbls., the stock consequently is becoming much reduced and the market is quite firm, though the inquiry is limited, the sales to-day being only about 3,000 bbls. at 31c. ⅌ gal. for Crude; 42@43c. for good to prime Refined in bond; choice is scarce and held firmly at 49@50c., and do. free at 54@55c. as to quality.

American Rough Flax is inactive but firm at $3 35@$3 55 ⅌ bushel of 56 lb. Calcutta Linseed is quiet owing to the light stock offering and the high price now asked.

SALT—The market is quiet but decidedly firmer, especially for West India, which is now held in store at 32½@35c. for Turks Island; Liverpool Ground at $2 20; do. fine Marshall's at $3 25, and Ashton's at $3 50.

TALLOW is in less active demand, and the market closed heavy in sympathy with exchange and gold; sales of 60,000 lb. at 12¼@12½c. for Western, and 12½@12¾c. for city.

WHISKY opened firmer with a fair demand, which subsequently abated, and the market closed quiet; sales of 550 bbls., at 90c. for State and 91@92½c. for Western.

WOOL—The auction sale of Foreign and Domestic Wools which took place in Boston, on Wednesday last, was very numerously attended by manufacturers and dealers from New-York, Providence, Hartford and other cities and districts; there being some 400 persons in attendance, who helped themselves at a well set table freighted with eatables and unadulterated Coffee and Champagne in abundance, at the cost, no doubt, of the Wool owners. This was a tempting snare to draw out liberal bids, but a reference to the prices will enable our readers to judge that the bait did not take very well, and a portion of the wools were passed, notwithstanding the large attendance. The offering however, was by no means a desirable one, and we cannot class the Domestic or Foreign Wools beyond low and medium grades. This being the case then the goods sold brought, we think, every mill they were worth. But it is supposed that a portion of the Wools were protected, and this gave the sale a disreputable character, which dampened its spirit somewhat more or less throughout. Such proceedings, whether they take place in Boston or New-York, ought to be reprobated. Here at this sale we find a full house, the elite, and solid men of the trade. They surely wanted Wool at its value, but many of them, when they discover any underhand dealing, would rather retire, and go into the open market and pay more money for the same goods than countenance an odious system which is somewhat prevalent among our trade. If this was not the case at the Boston sale, why, then the owners wanted too much money for undesirable grades—otherwise, the attendance was sufficiently large to purchase every lot on the catalogue, and the bountiful board set by the owners had left an impression of liberality, no doubt, on the minds of the audience that should be reciprocated by high-spirited bids. But the true secret of the matter is, the late sales here and in Boston have been badly conducted; the offerings were undesirable, and some of the goods were bid upon by the owners. Hereafter, then, if auction sales are to be called, we trust such practices will be wholly discountenanced, for the good and honor of the trade. And now, enough said. We append the particulars of the sale as follows: Lot No. 1, consisting of only one bag California Wool, brought 26c.; it was, of course, low, coarse, burry Wool; lot No. 2, 3 bags do., brought 28c.; lot No. 3, 3 bags do., 21c.; lot No. 4, 6 do. do. This concluded the sale of Fleece Wool, and most of the company then separated, although there were 36 lots more (of gray and Zigay, white and gray Smyrna, unwashed gray pickback Wool, short like Shoddy, Cape, white, gray and black Zigay Wool) on the catalogue, which was of no great consequence, being mostly burry, greasy, heavy and dirty, and it said could have no bearing upon the market. And this ended this important sale, in the midst of manufacturing districts, when every spindle, shuttle, loom and mill in the land is running full blast. To buy wool in Boston now is quite different to purchasing it in Ohio, because it requires about 5c. ⅌ lb. to lay it down there from the West; and hence it is somewhat astonishing that so much Wool should have been passed when the house was crowded with buyers from all sections, who went there on no child's errand. It is true that a very large quantity of Wool was disposed of; but this is no good reason why every lot on the catalogue should not find a ready sale, as the attendance was numerous, and there is no use to deny the fact—the manufacturers want the Wool, as their stocks are now reduced. Since the above sale, our market has ruled comparatively quiet, although we notice some inquiry for very fine fleces adapted for fine Doeskins—wool worth from 80c. to 90c. ⅌ lb; but this is very scarce. Some purchases of this have recently been made in Philadelphia at the same price, or 57½c. here; this latter must either be very choice Saxony, or the wool is a high one. The Philadelphia market is always noted for having a very neat selection, and this lot at 90c. was a choice selection. In our own market there are some choice parcels at this price, and some very fine ones have changed hands, but the assortment is by no means attractive, as the supply is smaller than known before for many years. There is a large quantity of the clip still held in the interior by growers and speculators for higher rates, but this is not available so long as transportation by rail is so costly, and the result is that the manufacturers are supplying their wants with Canadian, Australian, Cape, and other fine Wools. Canadian sells quick, and is much sought for, for the manufacture of braidings and linings. Some considerable sales of this Wool have been effected at about 72c. Our interior readers are somewhat puzzled why they cannot obtain a there ready sale for their wool, and better prices; but had not our article already assumed too great a length we could point out the principal causes. A delegation of wool growers, as we stated yesterday, are now in Washington urging upon Congress an increased duty of 10c. ⅌ lb on fine Wool. What is the use to increase the duty on the raw material if we allow the manufactured articles to be imported at a price that will undersell our own productions? It is doubtful, then, if the sage counsels which prevailed in that Convention applied the knife sufficiently to the root of the evils which they complained of. Had they thought over the matter seriously they would discover that they had enemies to contend against worse than the canine tribe which they wanted to exterminate. But the sense of the Convention was reduced by deceptive declamation, and it only arrived at foolish results. Wooden producers, in the mean time, will find no difficulty in supplying their most urgent wants in this market so long as foreign Wools continue to arrive here in such large quantities, and to sell at prices lower than Exchange would warrant as compared with the current rates in the great markets abroad.
