Returned.

Ship Wizard King, Woodworth, hence for San Francisco March 22, dispatched by Wm. T Coleman & Co., returned yesterday. Capt. W. reports: Left New-York March 22; same night, about 100 miles S. S. E. from the Highlands, experienced a tremendous gale, accompanied with terrific snow and hail squalls, with severe cold, most of the men getting badly frost-bitten; blew away all the sails from the masts, carried away spars, &c.; a fearful sea arose, the ship labored heavy, and made more water than usual; shipped large quantities of water, filling the decks and houses, staving bulwarks and houses, and breaking adrift everything about the decks; was forced to throw some of the deck cargo overboard; then, one man, that was badly frozen, died; has had a continuation of N. E. and N. gales; has been three times within thirty miles of the Highlands, and has been driven as far S. as 35 20; experienced a strong W. current. April 2, off the Woodlands, with strong gale from the E., wore ship to the S. E. and took pilot from boat No. 10; the gale suddenly increasing and blowing on shore, was forced to carry a press of sale to keep off the land; blew away sails and shipped great quantities of water. The pilot, Mr. James R. Murphy, reports: April 2, at 7 a. m., went on board the ship Wizard King, off the False Woodlands, the wind blowing strong from E.; wore ship in ten fathoms of water, and the gale increasing was forced to carry sail to keep the ship off the beach; in doing so, lost and split sails; 15th, at 8 a. m., was taken in tow by steamtug Blanche Page, and towed to the city.

Launched.

Correspondence of The N. Y. Tribune.

TUCKERTON, N. J., April 12, 1864.

There was launched at this place on Wednesday a fine schooner, 105 feet keel and about 300 tons carpenter measurement. She is called the Wm. M. Wilson, and will be sailed by Capt. Hezekiah Brown, jr., long and favorably known as a successful and experienced coastwise captain.

Disasters, &c.

The schr. Damon reports: April 12, lat. 39 43, lon. 73 39, saw a ship with loss of fore, main and mizzen topmasts, standing N. Same time, picked up the house of a vessel, painted blue on top and white sides.

The brig Estafana reports: April 13, off Barnegat, parted co. with ship Wizard King, from New-York for San Francisco, returning to New-York.

Spoken.

Military Notices.

SPECIAL NOTICE to WOUNDED SOLDIERS.—The Bounty of $100 due to Soldiers discharged for wounds received in battle will be paid by presenting the Discharge at the U. S. Navy Agency, No. 64 Bleecker-st., opposite Pay Department. The editorial statement in The New-York Sun, under date of 14th and 15th inst., also, the advertisement of the so-called Protective War Claim Association, No. 35 Chambers-st., that these Bounties are not being collected and paid as advertised, is false, and either shows their ignorance of their business, or a willingness to impute to others that which they would seem to be most guilty of themselves, viz: attempting to impose upon the poor wounded soldier. All such claims on file in that office should be at once withdrawn and presented to this office. U. S. ARMY AGENCY,
No. 64 Bleecker-st., opposite Pay Department.

PRIZE MONEY.—The crew of the DE SOTO can obtain at once their share of Prize Money for the JAMES BATTLE and ALICE VIVIAN, by applying to
