Tronble on the Plains.

The following is an extract from a letter received on Sunday in St. Louis by J. C. Irwin, Government freighter, dated Council Grove, July 24:

"Letters were received here to-day from Crenshaw, Wheeler, and others, on Cow Creek, saying they had their trains corralled, and had been besieged for five days. Their stock was killed whenever let out to graze, or for water, or run off. One train at another place had lost nearly all theirs. Some ten or twelve men are also reported to have been killed. The mail stock has been taken as far in as Cottonwood."

The Santa Fe trains above referred to as having been captured, are supposed to be those of Geo. Bryan, Ambrosio, Armijo, Jesus M. Luna, Vincente Otero and Laurence Jaramille. All except the first named left here on the 1st of July. They loaded at Fort Leavenworth.

FOLT LARNED REPORTED CAPTURED—TRAIN CAPTURED FIFTY MILES WEST OF COUNCIL GROVE.

From The Leavenworth Times, July 27.

Passengers by the coach last night, from Topeka, bring the startling intelligence of the capture of Fort Larned by a band of Plain Indians, numbering some three or four thousand warriors, composed of Comanches, Kiowas, Cheyennes, Arapahoes and Sioux. These red devils have been gathering along the Arkansas, between Forts Lyon and Larned, during the Summer, in the vicinity of the Buffalo Range, as is their custom, and having procured meat enough for their Winter supply, may have taken into their heads to attack Fort Larned, get all the supplies of ammunition, provisions and blankets necessary to their Winter's comfort, rob all the trains in the vicinity, and retreat rapidly to the various Winter quarters of the different tribes.

It is reported the capture occurred on Friday, but this must be taken for what it is worth, nothing of a definite nature having been received warranting the assumption. It is asserted positively, however, that the Indians captured and robbed a couple of trains about fifty miles west of Council Grove on Saturday.

JUNCTION CITY, July 23, 1864.

The Indians have taken all the Government stock from the fort, and all of the settler's stock except two horses. I have not heard that they have taken any stage stock.

Reports are various up to last night. Nothing definite is known more than that the Indians (Kiowas) and made a second raid on Fort Larned. Satanta, the Kiowa chief, shot the guard on duty. They had run off all the stock that was out, including about 60 head of mules and horses belonging to Crane and Wheelbarkamn. They had cleared the Santa Fe road down to Lost Springs, which is only about 30 or 40 miles south-west of this place, and had captured 300 or 400 mules from Santa Fe trains.

Our regiment of militia and the one ordered from Ogden and Manhattan vicinity, are ordered out. Gen. Curtis is at Fort Riley.

U. S. COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE—Aug. 3.
Before Commissioner Wilke.

A BOY CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT.

Frank Whipple, an errand boy employed by Harper & Brothers, was arrested on a charge of embezzling letters containing drafts belonging to H. B. Claflin & Co. It appears that the letters were in Harper & Brothers' box by mistake, and the firm directed the boy to return them to the Post-Office; but it is charged that he opened them and appropriated the contents. One of the letters contained a draft for $400 on the Bank of Stamford, Conn. Whipple wrote to the bank, indorsing the draft, which he indorsed, and requesting them to return him a check on some New York bank indorsed to H. Claflin. The President of the bank of Stamford suspected fraud, and submitted the matter to Special Agent Gepler, who filled in a check, sent it addressed H. Claflin, to Boston, where he placed an officer to arrest the party calling for it. Whipple was soon after applied for the letter, and was then taken in custody.

SUPREME COURT—CHAMBERS—Aug. 3.—Before Justice Barnard.

SALOMON KOHNSTAMM'S ESTATE.

Salomon Kohnstamm agt. Charles W. Foster et al.

This was a motion to revive a suit brought by the plaintiff in 1863 for the recovery of $9,061 79. It will be remembered that in May last Kohnstamm was convicted and sentenced to the State Prison for defrauding the United States Government. In June last, Joseph Stuart and Edgar S. Van Winkle were appointed trustees of Kohnstamm's estate by Recorder Hoffman, and they moved to revive the suit. The motion was granted.

MARINE COURT—TRIAL TERM—Aug. 3.—Before Judge McCarthy.

ASSAULT UPON A SERVANT.

Jane Tate agt. Elisha M. Cosesborough.

The plaintiff, a colored woman, sued to recover damages for an assault upon her by the defendant, her employer. It appeared that she desired to leave his employment, to which he made no objection, but requested her to go up stairs, where he struck her a violent blow with an oyster knife, inflicting a deep wound between her eyes; she then succeeded in escaping from the house. Independent denied the whole story. The Judge gave judgment for the plaintiff for $250. Hayes and Kane for plaintiff; F. Byrne for defendant.

A London morning paper announces, in a leading article, that a steamer and four frigates were soon to leave Mobile for the Pacific.

Slavery.

Written impromptu, by an aged and reverend patriot (late of Brooklyn), on hearing some very authentic declamation in favor of THE RIGHTS OF SLAVERY.

Are you sure, Sirs, your oppressions,
Cruelties in slaving men,
Are not, in the eternal Sessions,
Registered as foul transgressions—
Impiously wicked, then?

None can injure reptile statures,
Brutal quadrupeds and worms,
As you may immortal creatures;
Almost angel in their natures;
Cast, like you, in human forms.

Brothers of the species languish,
Bought and sold by you and yours;
Bosoms tortured in mute anguish;
How they suffer, stagger, and wish
Others know what each endures.

*Made of one blood all the nations; Marked ONE SPECIES are they all;
Trivial such denominations,
Size, complexion, variations,
As to tribes and climates fall.

God beholds in righteous anger
Many a direar, atrocious act!
Must He brook the mischief longer,
As the victim of the stronger
Groans with all abuse, in fact!

Crimes like yours are wrong in nature;
Specious, false, your total plan;
Vary their form, name, style, grade, stature;
Outrage still to fellow creature—
Sin against both God and man!

Fictions, too, all your excuses,
Lies against eternal law;
Conscience all of them refuses—
Cruelties and vile abuses,
As God's Heavens ever saw!

Try it by the sense of Scripture—
All things ever do to others,
As in equity's calm picture,
Not fanaticism's rapture,
You would take, from friends and brothers.

Send your children to the shambles,
Or an incident rendue;
Auctioneer them, whipt with brambles,
As each madly screams and scrambles—
At the highest bidder's view!

Not, we mean, your own mulattoes—
But of wives in wedlock born:
Each your offspring fairer, that owes
More to birth—than rubbish; what grows,
Lives and dies, as slave forlorn.

Let some robber own and sell them,
Parents part from children young;
And with despot whip compel them—
Then, for comfort, haste and tell them,
"Here is nothing false or wrong!

"Slavery's a noble custom,
"For society a boon—"
Would you only worse disgust them?
Or, they, facile, hear and trust them?
Acquiescing kind and soon?

Out with logic hypocritic,
The universe in conscious scorn!
Jew, or sage, or judge ascetic,
Ethnic, Christian, or Levitic;
Who of them can—you suborn?

For white men and for colored, too,
Is God's free mercy given;
When died the Savior, did he view
Only the white-souls, just and true,
Reclaimed to truth and Heaven?

Yes! JESUS CHRIST FOR NEGROES DIED—
This ever wakes suggestion,
How some their faces then would hide!
How there the test they can abide!
When HE—shall put the question!

Let wisdom speak before it dies—
God is not of your party:
Your cause He cannot patronize;
What can the earth—against the skies?
HE, FOR THE RIGHT, is hearty!

Shall Slavery FOREVER live?
Increase and spread its ravages
Thro' all the continent, and give
The law to cit and fugitive,
Till—ALL OF US ARE SAVAGES?

Fanatic you! it may not be—
And now's the time to cure it:
'Tis late and bad enough to see
Our nation bleed—FOR SLAVERY;
Wisdom cannot endure it!

Again—the ages all unborn,
Our vast posterity!
Their bodies feel this poisoned thorn!
Slaves and slaveholders, all forlorn;
Thrice cursed with Slavery!

What! ever this curse propagate,
To blast posterity!
Bequeath it both to Church and State,
And shed its blessings, early, late,
Till none are safe or free?

Forbid it, Heaven! and common sense—
Die here, both cause and consequence;
Whate'er say the SHORT-SIGHTED!
Best policy to do what's right,
Of sloth and selfishness in spite:
Too soon, things can't be righted.

False policy would in the pot
Cover the mischief, safe or not,
For afterward explosion;
Meanwhile our peace would all be false;
All hypocrites, or something else,
Addicted to corrosion.

Thy kingdom come, you have to say;
And is that Slavery?
Or would your madness dare to pray—
"Make all men slaves, in this our day,
And crush all liberty?"

Your impious reasoning—curse blight—
Rock is Jehovah's hostile plan!
No liar against truth and right
Can ever prosper in his sight:
His mercy saves and values—MAN!

Soon God's MILLENNIUM will come,
His word and throne proclaim it near:
Let not his people then be dumb;
Not Pharaoh—or his party, some
Or many such, may Christians fear!

Think, speak, act, pray—that Slavery
May curse our noble Land no more!
Against all judge and knavery,
Inspire all hearts with bravery;
O God! free us—from shore to shore!

Thy people all united then,
No other DOMINION here we ask;
The nation free; all Christians—MEN!
All owning God's omniscient ken;
DOING THY WILL, our glorious task!

Thy MODEL NATION we shall be;
All free indeed, made by THE SON;
E PLURIBUS WITH UNUM—see,
Thy glory! all made such by THEE—
Antipathies forever gone!

Correct all furor of the mind,
And be our Father, wise and strong;
Enlightened Christians, so combined,
All love "OUR COUNTRY;" as all find
THY WAY, its glory to pr
