CONSECRATION OF A SYNAGOGUE.—The Broadway Synagogue of the congregation Shaaray Tefila, [the Gates of Prayer], occupying a portion of the new building at the junction of Broadway and Sixth-av., was consecrated yesterday afternoon in accordance with the ritual service of the Jewish Church. All the singing and other exercises were in Hebrew, with the exception of the discourse delivered by the minister, the Rev. S. M. Isaacs. The opening chorus was sung by a choir of young men conducted by Edward Woolf. After some preliminary ceremony, the "bearers of the scrolls of the Law" entered the door, when the procession moved slowly towards the Ark, while the choir sang a part of the 118th Psalm. Then followed a chorus, and as the bearers of the scrolls approached the Ark, the Cohen lighted the "perpetual lamp," the Ark was then opened, and again the minister and choir chaunted a chorus. The scrolls were borne seven times around the Synagogue, and a Psalm chaunted at each circuit. The bearing of the scrolls is considered a great privilege and honor, and at the conclusion of each Psalm, the scrolls were transferred to nine other members of the Society, led each time by a different minister—seven in all—and representing that number of congregations, the scrolls were then deposited in the Ark, after which, the Rev. S. M. Isaacs ascended the pulpit and delivered a discourse from the text in the twentieth chapter of Exodus, where it is enjoined that "gods of silver and gods of gold shall not be made unto the Most High, but an altar of earth shall be made unto Him, and wherever He records His name, He will come with His blessing." The reverend gentleman said that in 25 years, they had outlived three sanctuaries—one in Elm-street, one in Franklin-street, and one in Wooster-street—and now they occupied the fourth. They required no sanctuaries for God, but for themselves. The text said "An altar of earth shalt thou make unto Me." humility was all that was needed. The purposes of the synagogue and the duties of the Israelites in the synagogue, were then expounded. Hymns by the choir, and a prayer for the Government, concluded the exercises, after which subscriptions were taken, to the amount of about $3,000. The interior of the synagogue, is thus described in The Jewish Messenger:

"The front of the gallery is handsomely paneled and grained in imitation of oak. The supporting pillars are of light oak. The oak is of exceeding beauty in design and finish. Corinthian columns and antæ support a richly carved entablature, surmounting which are the 'tables of stone' representing the Ten Commandments. The words, 'Know before Whom thou standest' (in Hebrew) appear in letters of gold upon the base of the entablature. The ark is ascended by four steps, and the platform will be handsomely carpeted, uniform with the Almemor. The synagogue is well lighted from windows on the street and avenue. In the evening light will be furnished from handsome brackets, with globes, arranged along the paneled front of the gallery, and also on the side walls of the building."

THE BOOK TRADE SALE.—Yesterday, Friday, was the eighth and last day of the Book Trade Sale, and was occupied with the invoices of Messrs. Follet, Foster & Co., New-York; J. Bishop, Schermerhorn, Bancroft & Co., Andrus, McChain & Co., E. Steiger, H. H. Henderson, Philadelphia; Jas. Redpath, Boston; E. Darrow & Brother, Rochester; Chappell Aunde & Co., New-York Agricultural Company, J. Bradburn, New-York; L. Prang & Co., Boston; H. P. Beers, New-York; John A. Busford & Sons, Boston; Wm. Overman. A number of invoices of photographic albums and general stationery and a number of stereotypes of various standard works, and about forty steel plates for engaving, by James B. Smith, of Philadelphia. The whole sale has been a most successful one, and the biddings have ranged higher than usual, although the the quantities bought have not been large, owing to the great uncertainty in prices. The whole number of works disposed of during the sale will probably reach 250,000, an unusually large proportion of which have been very costly publications, indeed the high priced works have taken a decided lead during the whole period of the sale. The auctioneers have been Mr. W. R. Leavitt, J. R. Pratt and H. C. Foster.

TALL FEEDING.—In the City Controller's report appears the charge for the dinners of eight men employed to count the votes at the last Charter election. They met for ten days, and the bill for their dinners comes to $1,300, or $162 50 per man, or $16 21 for each single dinner for each man. Which is rather "steep."

TRACK EXTENSION.—The East-Broadway Railroad will probably run their cars to the Fulton-ferry next week. A single track is now completed from the ferry to the corner of Ann and William streets. The route is down Ann to William, through William to Fulton, and down Fulton to the ferry.

BANNER-RAISING.—The Produce Dealers will raise a Lincoln and Johnson Banner, at 3 o'clock, this afternoon, at the corner of Reade and Washington streets, when ex-Governor Noble, of Wisconsin, and other eminent speakers, will be present.

RAILROAD ACCIDENTS.—Owing to a collision at Tomsdale Bridge, twelve miles from Philadelphia, between the Midnight train from this city and Adams & Co's Express, the morning Washington mail train did not arrive here till 3 p. m. yesterday. The Express was waiting on the side track, but the watchmen neglected to replace the switch. The engineer escaped unhurt, but the fireman was injured to the extent of a broken ankle and severe scalding. There is no double track at the point where the accident occurred. The 8 a. m. train from here was detained three hours three miles below New-Brunswick by the breaking of the axle of the baggage car.

FINE PEARS.—We have seen a remarkably fine basket of 'Duchesse' pears of the largest size, grown by F. L. Du Bois, Flushing-avenue, near Broadway, Brooklyn. They show what has been, therefore may be, done in fruit-growing in this latitude. We presume they will be on exhibition at the Institute Fair.

ANNIVERSARY OF THE FULTON-ST. PRAYER-MEETING.—The seventh anniversary of the Fulton-st. daily prayer-meeting was held yesterday at noon, in the Old Dutch Church, which was well filled by an audience largely composed of business men. The clergy of nearly all denominations was represented on the occasion, among whom we observed the Rev. Dr. Vermilye, Rev. Drs. DeWitt Chambers, Rev. Mr. Duryea, Rev. Dr. Scudder, missionary from India; Rev. Dr. Crosby, Rev. Dr. Krebs, Rev. Dr. Canfield, of Newark; Rev. Mr. Blair, Rev. Dr. Van Cleef, of Jersey City; Rev. Dr. Forsyth, Rev. Dr. Marsh, Rev. Mr. Foltz, Rev. Mr. Newell, of Cooperstown; Rev. Dr. Blair, Geo. H. Stewart, of Philadelphia; W. E. Dodge, of this city; A. D. Hope, &c. &c.

The Rev. Dr. Buddington presided, and after an appropriate prayer, and the singing of a hymn by the congregation, read a selection of Scripture, and after a few remarks suitable to the occasion, called on the various speakers who were to address the meeting. The Rev. Drs. Krebs and Howard Crosby, of the Presbyterian Church, spoke of the power of prayer, and the testimony afforded to it by their experience in that prayer-meeting, and the Rev. Mr. Ridgway, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, on the subject of Christian unity. Another hymn was here sung, after which the Rev. Dr. Scudder, a returned missionary from Ceylon, made a brief address on the subject of "prayer for the country," the patriotic fervor of which provoked an outburst of applause that caused a certain reverend gentleman, who made the prayer at the Copperhead meeting in Union square Saturday last, to take his hat and leave on the double quick. Prayer was then offered up by the Rev. Dr. Duryea, for the nation and the armies, and the Revs. Weston and Blair, and Messrs. George H. Stewart and Wm. C. Dodge having delivered short addresses, the meeting dispersed after singing the Doxology.

FRENCH FRUITS.—A fine collection of apples and pears, from the celebrated nurseryman Mr. André Leroy of Angers, France, is on its way to this city, and expected to arrive in season for the Horticultural Exhibition of the American Institute opening, at their rooms in the Cooper Institute, on Tuesday evening, September 27. Mr. Leroy has the most extensive nurseries in France, if not in the world, and his former contributions to this country have been highly creditable. The fruit to arrive will lend an additional attraction to the Horticultural Exhibition, which previously promised to be very successful. Home-growers will have a good opportunity to compare their own with these foreign sorts.

CHARGED WITH FORGERY.—Detective Niven, of the Second Precinct, yesterday arrested George W. Mann, a stationer residing in Brooklyn, on a charge of having forged the name of his father, George C. Mann, doing business at No. 141 Fulton-street, to a check on the Hanover Bank, for $250. This check was by the accused presented to Mr. Josiah S. Colgate, No. 116 South-street, who cashed it, on his assurance that it was genuine. Subsequently, learning the true character of the check, he caused his arrest. Justice Hogan held he accused to bail in the sum of $1,000.

THE ZACHARIE SHOOTING CASE.—Dr Isaachar Zacharie who was on Thursday shot in the face by Dr. S. M. Barnett, in the office of the former, 760 Broadway, was yesterday declared out of danger by Police Surgeon Waterman. The ball lodged to the upper jaw, and has not yet been extracted. Dr. Barnet was released by Justice Shandley on giving bail in the sum of $1,500. Mr. Jacob L. Back, of No. 107 West 13th-street became his surety for that amount.

TWENTIETH WARD GERMAN REPUBLICAN CLUB.—This body met on Thursday evening at their headquarters, No. 687 Eighth-avenue, for the purpose of ratifying the Union National and State nominations. Eloquent and interesting speeches were made by Mr. Herman Raster, of The Abend Zeitung, Dr. Kessman, Mr. Ignatius Koch, and Prof. Lange.

SUICIDE OF AN INSANE MAN.—A man named Charles Oswald, residing at No. 111 Eldridge-st., committed suicide last evening by throwing himself from the third story window. He died almost immediately from the injuries received. Deceased had been insane for some time past. The Coroner was notified and will hold an inquest this morning.

DR. TALBOT'S CONCENTRATED MEDICAL

is a PREVENTIVE OF SICKNESS.—The experience that Dr. Talbot has had for the last Twenty-five years, convinces him that it is time the public had an article offered that will prevent sickness. The article offered is Dr. Talbot's Medicated Pineapple Cider, designed for all classes, old and young. It is not new to the Doctor, but is entirely new to the public. One quart bottle will last a well person one year. This is rather a new mode of doctoring, nevertheless it will save millions from being sick. Is it not better to pay two dollars a year to keep from being sick than to pay ten or twenty dollars in doctors' bills, and as much more for the loss of time and the inconvenience of being sick? To prevent sickness, use as follows: Add one teaspoonful of Medicated Pineapple Cider to a tumbler of cold water, and drink the first thing after you rise in the morning, and the same before you retire at night. It will increase the strength, and give vigor and action to the system. A celebrated New York merchant, who has made a thorough trial of the Pineapple Cider, assures Dr. Talbot that he gained ten pounds of flesh in one month, at the first trial. He continues its use, as above directed, and finds it very beneficial; says it has proved an entire preventive to sickness in his case. Alas, another well-known gentleman in New-York has used the Medicated Cider constantly for ten years, and has not been sick one day during that time.

Price $2 per bottle, (full quart.) For sale everywhere.

Twentieth Ward Union Ratification Meeting.

The 20th Ward Union Association, of which Mr. A. V. Gridley is President, held the first of their weekly campaign meetings, on Thursday evening. Every seat and all the standing space in their rooms, at the corner of 8th-av. and 53d-st., was filled. Mr. G. Van Cott presided. At the opening of the meeting the following resolutions were offered by Mr. Cornelius A. Runkle, and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we the members of the Union Association of the 20th Ward, hereby indorse the nomination of Abraham Lincoln for President, and Andrew Johnson for Vice President of the United States, and will give them our consent and united support.

Resolved, That we cordially approve of the principles and sentiments expressed in the Baltimore Platform, and firmly believe that a faithful adherence to those principles, will carry the nation safely through the hour of its severest trial, and will bring the war in which we are engaged to a speedy, honorable, and successful termination.

Resolved, That the Democratic party, by its demands at its recent National Convention for "an immediate cessation of hostilities," and by its putting in nomination for Vice President a notorious and open sympathizer with treason, and by its intentional failure to put on record in its resolutions, or otherwise, a single word by way of censure, reproof, or rebuke of Rebels in arms, shows itself deeply allied in spirit and in sentiment with the traitors now in rebellion against their Government, and evinces a willingness to surrender that Government into the hands of those who are now waging war for its destruction.

Resolved, That the Democrats, by omitting to express in the resolutions passed at their Convention their sentiments in reference to the so-called "Monroe doctrine," a time honored principle of all true Americans, have shown themselves false to their often expressed declarations, and admit that they are willing to see a monarchy successfully established on the ruins of a neighboring and friendly American Republic.

Resolved, That the only hope of success of the Democratic party in the present campaign is the failure of our armies in the field and that the success of the Rebellion depends on the triumph of the Democratic party; showing clearly that the Democrats of the North and the traitors of the South have common sympathy, and that the country cannot rely on that party for support but its only safety lies in the complete triumph and success of the Union party.

Resolved, That our sincere thanks are due to these eloquent campaign orators, Grant, Sherman, Sheridan, and Farragut and their thousands of faithful followers, who are so nobly advancing the cause of the Union and we assure them that a grateful country will ever remember their eminent services, and will reserve for them its highest honors.

Resolved, That we will give our earnest support to Reuben E. Fenton for Governor, Thomas G. Alvord for Lieutenant Governor, Franklin A. Alberger for Canal Commissioner, and David P. Forrest for State Prison Inspector, and that we recognize in them faithful and honest representatives of our party and principles.

Resolved, That as Horatio Seymour has expressed an earnest desire to retire to private life, and as we believe it to be for the best interests of the State that this desire should be gratified, therefore, we consider it to be the duty, as it will be the pleasure of all good citizens—to aid in the consummation of this cherished wish; and we pledge ourselves to secure to him the position of a private citizen, where he will have the most ample opportunity to attend to his "NEGLECTED PERSONAL AFFAIRS," and where he can enjoy free social intercourse with his "dear friends," in whose welfare he takes such a deep and affectionate interest.

After the resolutions had been read, the Hon. Trueman Warner, of Arkansas, the first speaker, was introduced. He opened his remarks by alluding to the affinity of the traitors of the present time with the times of the Revolution. No peace, he said, would be accepted from the Rebels with any conditions attached. Mr. Warner then referred to the large majority of Union people who were in the Confederate ranks. More than nine-tenths of the conscripts in the Rebel army were opposed to the war against the Union; and it was a well-known fact to the Rebel leaders. They are continually deserting the black standard of treason. I know the feelings of the majority of the people of the South are in favor of the Union and the Constitution as it is. What Christian wound be in favor of letting traitors rule after they have heard of the barbarities and cruelties which they have practised upon the loyal men of the South? Men who had always voted the Democratic ticket, but who were opposed to secession, when they were found by the bloodhounds were made to suffer all manner of torture, and any one whose sympathies were with the Rebels after hearing of these tales of horror, would rob you of Free Speech, murder you and then confiscate your property if you stood up against these miserable traitors. After all these things, then, to have it said that Democrats of the North favored treason—it was a base and infamous lie. Ask any of the followers of Andrew Jackson how they regard this war, and they will answer you in the immortal words of their chieftain: "The Union, it must and shall be preserved." When the State of Arkansas was invited to join the Confederacy, a Convention was called at Little Rock to pass a secession act. In that body there were a few Union men, but only one of them dared stand out openly and avow his sentiments. It was Governor Murphy who stood up in defense of his country and his government. When the name of that noble and heroic patriot was called to vote for the heinous act, he rendered a loud and emphatic No! There the vote stood alone on the records against the whole Convention. Any other man of his sentiments showing the least timidity at such a time would have been hung.

During the interval following the conclusion of Mr. Warner's speech, Mr. McDougall sang a few spirited verses.

Mr. DANIEL EMERICK, of Missouri, was then introduced. He said he had always voted the Democratic ticket, as he thought, for the last thirty-one years, but last fall he split it—it was half Union and half Rebel. They call me a Black Republican and an Abolitionist now; but, thank God, they haven't called me a Nigger Democrat, and I hope they won't. Buchanan was one of that stripe, and I have heretofore thought he was the meanest man on earth; but I have found a meaner one in Horatio Seymour. He is one of the meanest of mean mortals and not fit company for brutes. The remarks of Mr. Emerick were brought to a close by an earnest wish that Abraham Lincoln, at his next inauguration, would be ruler of the whole United States.

Further speeches were made by Ex-Governor Noble, of Wisconsin, Mr. A. J. Dittenhofer and Mr. Isaac J. Oliver. The meeting adjourned in a cheerful and happy mood.

LAW INTELLIGENCE.

SUPREME COURT—CHAMBERS—Sept. 23.—Before Judge LEMOIN.

THE CASE OF THE NEW NATION—INJUNCTION DISSOLVED.

Samuel P. Dinsmore agt. Gustave P. Cluseret.

The injunction in this case was dissolved this morning, on the ground that the title of plaintiff to The New Nation newspaper being denied by defendant, it should be settled by a jury; that if the injunction were allowed to stand until trial before a jury, irreparable injury might be done to the defendant, and that the injury to be sustained by the plaintiff, by reason of the defendant publishing another newspaper with the same name, would be comparatively slight. The Judge declined to consider the merits of the case. For the plaintiff, Charles E. Miller; for the defendant, ex-Judge Emott, Messrs. Gilbert and Van Cott.

Before Justice SUTHERLAND.

DECISIONS.

Henrietta M. Christensen agt. Harris L. Christensen.—Report confirmed and judgment of divorce granted to plaintiff.

The Marble and Stone Carving Co. agt. Horace V. Sigler.—Motion denied, without costs and without prejudice, to the right of defendant to show the facts stated in the affidavit on the supplementary examination.

Before Justice LEONARD.

DECISION IN THE CASE OF THE "BLOOM OF YOUTH."

James Laird agt. G. W. Laird.—This was the motion, already published, to dissolve the injunction restraining defendant from selling a cosmetic known as "Laird's Bloom of Youth and Lily of Pearl." The defendant alleged that his father had transferred all his right to the trade mark in 1861, and that he, the plaintiff, had never used it since.

The plaintiff claimed that he never abandoned his trade-mark, but only used his son's name in order to protect his property. The Judge held that the son had a perfect right to sell, the father having so informed the public that he, the defendant, was the proprietor. The injunction obtained by the plaintiff was dissolved, with $10 costs.

L. R. Marsh for plaintiff; Edwin James for defendant.

MARINE COURT—TRIAL TERM—Sept. 23.—Before Judge ALKER.

SUIT FOR REMOVING A TOMBSTONE.

Ullman agt. The Congregation Shaai Israel.

This was an action for damages for the removal by the defendants of the tombstone over the grave of the plaintiff's father. The plaintiff contended that the defendants maliciously desecrated the grave by the removal of the monument. The defendants claimed that they were justified in the removal of the stone for the reason that the same bore an unsuitable inscription, in violation of their by-laws, which provided that before a tombstone could be erected permission must first be obtained from the Trustees, who have the right of supervision over all inscriptions and burials, and that the plaintiff had not received their permission, and in addition had caused to be inscribed on the stone, "Anno Domini" in lieu of "Anno Mundi." The case was tried a short time since, and the jury disagreed. In the present case the defendant's counsel produced the by-law in question, and claimed a non-suit, which was granted.

S. Hirsch for plaintiff; H. Morrison for defendant.

LIABILITY OF COMMON CARRIERS.

Barnett L. Solomon agt. N. Y. and Philadelphia Steamboat Express Co.

It appeared in this case that on the 22d of March, last, Messrs. Howell Bros. at Philadelphia, consigned a valuable package to plaintiff per Propeller Bristol. The vessel arrived from Philadelphia March 24th, and as alleged defendants notified plaintiff of the fact; the letter alleged, however, he did not receive the notice till the 26th inst., and that by reason of such omission the merchandise was injured. The defendants claimed that they are not liable, having discharged their duty when they put their goods on the wharf and notified the plaintiff. Plaintiff's counsel insisted on the merit of the cause, that by reason of the late notice, the defendants were liable and that upon the law it was their duty to protect perishable goods till delivery. Decision reserved.

H. Morrison, for plaintiff; R. Andrews, for defendant.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS—SPECIAL TERM—Sept. 23—Before Judge DALY.

DECISIONS.

A. G. P. Dodge et al. agt. Charles W. Houghton et al.—Discontinued without costs by consent.

Mathew Byrnes agt. Warren H. Deane.—Discontinued.

Rudolph Meyer agt. Dorris Meyer.—Reference ordered.

The Manhattan Fire Insurance Co. agt. Catharine Burke.—Two cases.—Judgment: Foreclosure and sale.

Albert Heard agt. Eighth Avenue R. R. Co.—Order that judgment be marked discharged of Record.

David McMullen agt. Solomon Meis et al.—Order denying motion to discharge from arrest, $10 costs.

Before Judge CARDOZA.

Nathaniel H. Burrill agt. John W. Worth.—Case and amendments settled.

SURROGATE'S COURT—Sept. 23.—Before Surrogate TUCKER.

WILLS PROVED.

During the past week the Wills of the following named persons have been admitted to probate, viz: Sophie Oppenheimer, John H. Talman, William Adolph Mathews, George Thompson, Mangle M. Quackenboss, Sarah Elizabeth Lenox, William K. Cornwell, James Crestnay, Daniel A. Richter, James T. Barry, Ann Tape Brown. There are no provisions of public importance in any of these wills.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS—Sept. 23.—Before City Judge RUSSEL.

Charles Johnson, attempt at grand larceny. Remanded.

Elizabeth Degroot, grand larceny. Sentence suspended.

Nellie Black, attempt at grand larceny. Penitentiary one year.

Garrett McPalitin, grand larceny. Sentence suspended.

Ira Ayres, grand larceny. Sentence suspended.
