GERMAN MASS MEETING AT COOPER INSTITUTE —GREAT UNION DEMONSTRATION.

The mass meeting at Cooper Institute last evening, under the auspices of the Campaign Committee of the German Republican Central Committee of New-York, was a demonstration markedly successful as a Union movement. The hall was perfectly thronged; every seat was occupied and the aisles were absolutely impassable. It needed but a view of the enthusiastic and compact audience of German voters to refute the frequent assertions of Democratic newspapers that the Republican cause is on the wane among our foreign citizens. The proceedings were conducted entirely in the German language.

Gov. MORTON had been expected to address the meeting but was detained by another engagement at Newark.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. PHILIP FRANKENHEIMER, who proposed Dr. CHARLES KRIESMAN for chairman. Mr. KRIESMAN was unanimously elected and immediately opened the proceedings with a vigorous speech, of which the following is a translation: After making some appropriate remarks in acknowledgment of the honor conferred upon him, the chairman pointed out the fact that the entire Liberal Press of Germany and the masses of the people were thoroughly in sympathy with the Lincoln Government of the United States, while the reactionary papers and the aristocracy sided with the Rebellion and the slave-holders' oligarchy. This ought to be sufficient to guide the action of the German citizens of this country, and no greater slander was ever uttered than the assertion by the New-York Express and State's Zeitung that the Germans had gone over to the Democratic party. The Germans knew better; they knew that by fanning the Slaveholders' Rebellion they were only continuing that strife against aristocratic privileges, in which they had conducted in the old country. [Cheers.] They knew that the aristocrats of the South aimed at nothing less than the abolition of the general suffrage, and at the enslaving of the working populace; and they knew that the Democratic Party of the North aided and abetted the Rebels in carrying out their notorious purpose, no matter how many Democrats were ignorant of its real bearings. The programme of the Democratic party, if sanctioned by the people and carried into effect, would not result in nothing but the eternal dismemberment of the Union, and the overthrow of true democratic institutions. Until a convention should be possible (if ever such Convention could be got together at all), the legal Government would have no authority over Rebellious States, and the Confederacy would remain an established Government in the interim. The resolutions of such a Convention would have no binding effect unless ratified by the rebellious Government, and who was weak enough to believe that they ever would be ratified at all, after the Confederacy had secured the object of Secession—an independent government. The peace policy of the Democrats would never reconstruct the Union, nor could the feigned war-policy of MCCLELLAN. Besides this, the people have no reason, from all his antecedents, to believe in his ability to carry out a war successfully. He cannot, if he would, cut loose from his party and their Peace Platform. Well might VALLANDIGHAM and FERNANDO WOOD say that MCCLELLAN'S letter was of no importance whatever. Conservatives, supporting the Democratic policy, should not forget that a great body of the Democrats—particularly in the Western States—were bound by a solemn oath to acknowledge the right of secession, the dissolution of the Union, and the sanctity of the commands of their leader, VALLANDIGHAM, even if his commands were in violation of the existing State and Federal laws. Conservatives should remember that the Democrats have threatened to plunge the North into a civil war, making the streets of our city flow with blood, in case Lincoln is reelected. Those were the same threats uttered by them when the first draft was approaching, and New-York knows, at her cost, that those threats were no idle ones. The Sin of November would prove that the Germans, whose fatherland sends forth treasures, in men and money, to the support of this holy war, were firm on the right side of the question. After paying a glowing tribute to the candidates of the State and County Union tickets, and predicting the triumph of the Union cause, Dr. KRIESMAN concluded his forcible remarks, having been frequently and vociferously applauded.

A long list of names of Vice-Presidents and Secretaries was read by Mr. M. C. HAMMERSTEIN, and, on his motion, accepted; and the following resolutions were offered and read by GUSTAVUS LEVY, esq., and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we are indefeasibly attached to the Union of the United States, under all circumstances and conditions, and that we recognize in the election of ABRAHAM LINCOLN and ANDREW JOHNSON, and the principles on which they stand, more Platform, the only means of preserving the Union.

Resolved, That our most fervent and heartfelt thanks are due to, and are tendered to, our noble soldiers and sailors for their glorious and heroic achievements in the field and on the sea.

Resolved, That our most profound gratitude is also due to the Union men of Maine, Vermont, Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania, who, by their sleepless vigilance and untiring energy, gained the victories, and whose example will be a lesson light to all who sustain the Union cause.

Resolved, That in the glorious results of the recent election we recognize the fixed and unalterable determination of the American People to elect, on the 8th of November ABRAHAM LINCOLN and ANDREW JOHNSON, the representatives of Union and Liberty.

Resolved, That the German Union men of the State of New-York will follow the bright and glorious example set by their friends in the said States, and will labor with nothing less than zeal and energy to overthrow and overwhelm with a disastrous defeat the Northern friends of the Rebellion.

Resolved, That it is the first and highest duty of the people of the several States to encourage and sustain the Government in all its efforts and measures to preserve the Union and overthrow the Rebellion.

Resolved, That, therefore, the German Unionists of New-York will use all honorable means to elect the Union Electors, E. FENTON and THOMAS G. ALVORD, and the other candidates on the Union State ticket, and thereby retire from public office and relieve from the burden of government those officers and their friends who, in July, 1863, conspired, if they did not instigate, murder and arson in the streets of New-York.

Resolved, That we cordially and cheerfully indorse and ratify the nominations on the County ticket; that we will, with all our power and all our influence, labor for its entire and complete success; that it is of the utmost importance and absolutely necessary that the large German population be represented in the City and County Government; and we hereby deliberately declare that the interest of Germans could not be estimated to abler and more honest men than ANDREAS WILLMARK and LOUIS NAUMAN.

Resolved, That we confidently trust that the victory which we will gain on the 8th of November will mark a new era in the history of the Republic, and that on that day will forever be destroyed the hopes of the Rebels both South and North, who conspirated and labored, not only for the overthrow of the sovereignty of the people, but for the perpetuation of Slavery and the enslavement of the working men.

These resolutions were enthusiastically adopted, and the most telling orations were then delivered by Governor EDWARD SALOMAN of Wisconsin, Hon. FRITZ HASSAURECK of Cincinnati, U. S. Minister to Ecuador, and Mr. R. WELS of New-York. During Governor SALOMAN'S speech some McCLELLAN men in one corner of the hall undertook to create a disturbance by cheering for McCLELLAN, but the summary manner in which they were hustled into the street evidently taught them a lesson to be remembered. There was no fine band in attendance. The meeting did not break up until a late hour.

YOUNG MEN'S REPUBLICAN UNION.

This organization met last evening at their headquarters, Gibson Building, corner of Broadway and Thirteenth-st., the Vice-President, DEXTER A. HAWKINS, esq., in the chair. Mr. HAWKINS in opening the meeting, regretted that, owing to a misunderstanding, a large number of people had attended the Cooper Institute, where the meeting was to have been originally held. After a few words of criticism upon McCLELLAN, he introduced JOSEPH HOXIE, esq., as the first speaker.

Mr. HOXIE commenced his speech by saying that this period of our country's history was the most [illegible] one that ever has or ever will fall upon us. We [illegible] called upon to decide whether we shall have a [illegible] or not; and we are to decide by voting either for [illegible] nominees or those presented from Chicago. [illegible] saying a most glorying tribute to the characters [illegible] ABRAHAM LINCOLN and ANDREW JOHNSON, Mr. [illegible] went on to say: Let us look at the Chicago [illegible] candidates. Very few of its supporters are [illegible] Union and an honorable peace. They are [illegible] and not for peace. All the crowned heads are [illegible] McCLELLAN. They look upon his election as the [illegible] of this glorious Union. There is no use of [illegible] of Little MAC's fidelity to the Union. Whenever [illegible] the word, it is to say, "the Union as it [illegible] it the Union could never be as it was, with [illegible] and all its attendant horrors. Our Copperhead [illegible] also say that the "Constitution as it is." We [illegible] with them there, after having altered and [illegible] it so as to expunge Slavery, which has brought [illegible] Rebellion and which is ruinous to the [illegible] If there is another set of fellows out of the [illegible] to compare with the Chicago peace men, [illegible] the devil when he gathers them home. Now you [illegible] I my friends have a solemn duty to perform. If we [illegible] McCLELLAN, the Union is virtually dissolved. We are making our own history, to be read by our children with pleasure or pride, or with sorrow and humiliation. [illegible] regret our inability to give the rest of Mr. HOXIE'S [illegible] owing to the crowded state of our columns.

Maj.-Gen. LYSANDER CUTTER was the next speaker presented. He said he regretted to disagree with the gentlemen preceding him as to there being two parties at the North. There is a party in Disunion and Secession. But the patriots who support the Government are of no party, they are the American people. When Mr. LINCOLN was elected he was inaugurated President of these United States, and I hope for once he will live to be President of all of these United States. Gen. CUTTER closed his remarks by exhorting the people if they wanted success to work diligently and faithfully.

After a few words from Dr. J. E. SNODGRASS upon the everlasting benefit to Maryland, from having adopted the new Constitution. The meeting adjourned to next Monday evening.

FLAG RAISING AT WESTFIELD, S. I.

A meeting was held on Saturday evening, Oct. 22, at G. A. COLES'S, Annadale, for the purpose of raising a Union flag, and to start a Union Club. Much enthusiasm was manifested, and over 100 signatures were obtained, many of which were formerly old leaders of the Democratic Party. It was resolved that they meet every Saturday until election.

Gen. B. F. BRUCE will address the citizens of Brooklyn tonight, at the headquarters of the Central Union Club, at 8 o'clock.

WARD NOMINATIONS.

The Union men of the 5th Ward have nominated Mr. HERMAN GOLDEN for Supervisor. The same party have nominated J. W. FLESS in the 9th Ward. The Democrats of the 13th Ward have nominated JOSEPH ANDERSON, and of the 17th Ward, Mr. CORNELIUS SMITH.

ASSEMBLY NOMINATIONS IN HUDSON CO., N. J.

The following Union nominations have been made in Hudson County: First District, JOHN OWEN ROWEN; Second District, ABRAM S. JACKSON; Third District, FRANCIS C. BLISS.

The Democrats of the Sixth Assembly District have nominated GARRET D. VAN RIPER for Assembly.

BROOKLYN ITEMS.

THE MYSTERIOUS MURDER.—MISTAKEN IDENTITY.—A young woman residing in New-York called upon Coroner Norris yesterday, and desired to see the head and clothing of the man whose disevered remains have recently been picked up in the Bay and East River. She recognized his features as those of her husband, and on examining the pieces of clothing identified every fragment, even to the rents in the stockings and undershirt, which she averred that she had mended. She stated that he had been a soldier—that they were married on his return from the army. The following morning after the ceremony, he changed his clothing and went to get some money due him. That was the last she saw or heard of him.

After examining all the fragments thoroughly, and satisfying herself that it was her husband, her feelings gave way and she fainted. The Coroner, desiring to be thoroughly satisfied as to the identity, subsequently asked her for the marriage certificate, which she presented and which showed that she was married by the Rev. Mr. PEASE, of the Five Points Mission on the seventh of October. The trunk of the deceased having been found on the third of October, it was at once apparent that the woman was laboring under a decided mistake.

Two well-known physicians of this city examined the head of deceased yesterday, with the view of ascertaining the nature of the wounds in the temple and under the right eye, and expressed it as their opinion that the punctures were not caused by a pistol ball, but with some pointed instrument. Opposed to this theory is the apparent presence of powder around the wound under the eye. A dissection of the head, when the features become so changed by decay as to render it advisable, will definitely settle this question.

DR. W. H. GREGG—Dear Sir: I have been suffering for a long time with what physicians call Disease of the PROSTATE GLAND and RETENTION OF URINE, and was unable to obtain any relief until I used CONSTITUTION WATER, which began to produce its curative effect after taking one or two doses, and no man can be more grateful than I at the results, having suffered all that a man could suffer, and live; and rather than be deprived of the medicine, I would be willing to pay FIFTY DOLLARS a bottle for it.

It has not only cured me, but several other officers in my district have been cured by it, and I would recommend everybody suffering from any disease of the kidneys to use Constitution Water.
