AN ORDINANCE.

Relative to the Corporation Telegraphs in the City of New-York.

The Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of New-York, in Common Council convened, do ordain as follows:

The Mayor shall appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Board of Aldermen, a "Superintendent of Telegraphs," who shall be a scientific and practical telegraphist, whose duty it shall be to keep in working order and have charge of the various lines to the several belfry-towers, engine, hose and hook and ladder houses, together with the instruments and fixtures connected therewith, belonging to the Corporation of the City of New-York. He shall hold office for the term of three years from the date of his appointment and shall receive an annual salary of three thousand dollars, payable in equal monthly parts. For the purpose of working said telegraph, and keeping the same in repair and working order, the Superintendent is hereby authorized to appoint a Deputy Superintendent whose duties shall be to perform such work connected with said telegraphs, as may be assigned by the Superintendent; the said Superintendent to receive an annual salary of fifteen hundred dollars. The said Superintendent shall also appoint, subject to the approval of the Mayor, three telegraphic operators to hold offices during the term of the Superintendent and shall receive each an annual salary of fifteen hundred dollars, said Superintendent may employ such labor and furnish such materials as shall make payment therefore by drawing his requisition upon the Comptroller, upon proper vouchers accompanying the same, for all bills not exceeding the sum of fifty dollars in any one case and in all cases where the expense of the necessary repairs exceeds the sum of fifty dollars, then in the same manner, upon the joint requisition of said Superintendent and the Mayor for all sums not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars each, said requisition to be paid out of the appropriation for "Fire Telegraph;" said Superintendent is authorized to employ upon said telegraph the services of a "line man" at a compensation not exceeding three dollars per diem, and a "battery boy" at a compensation not exceeding one dollar and fifty cents per diem, payable monthly upon the requisition of said Superintendent by the Comptroller, out of the appropriation of "Fire Telegraph;" said employees to do and perform such services said Superintendent may direct; said Superintendent and his said employees shall at all times, while in the performance of their respective duties, wear a badge or office, by which they may be distinguished, such badge to be furnished by the Mayor, of such device as he shall think proper, and any person falsely personating said Superintendent, or other of said employees, or counterfeiting or using a false device of said badge of office, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by fine and imprisonment, not exceeding for each offense the sum of five hundred dollars, or the term of one year, by any Judge, Justice, or Court of Criminal Jurisdiction in the city of New-York.

The said Superintendent shall be responsible to the Mayor for the faithful discharge of the several duties pertaining to his office; and may be removed for malfeasance, inoapacity or neglect of duty by the Mayor, with the concurrence of the Board of Aldermen. For any false alarm of fire given upon, or other improper use made of the telegraphic instrument placed in any of the engine, hose or hook and ladder houses in the city of New-York, the company in whose house such false alarm may originate, or other improper use of said instruments may be made, shall be held strictly responsible therefor, and shall be subject to such penalties as the Commissioners of Fire Department of said city may in their discretion deem proper to inflict.

All ordinances or parts of ordinances or resolutions inconsistent with the foregoing provisions are hereby repealed.

This ordinance shall take effect immediately.

Which was laid over.
