KINGS.

The Board of Supervisors was again in session yesterday, and canvassed the returns to and including the IId District of the Seventh Ward of Brooklyn. The Board sits but about two hours daily, and, at the present rate of progress, it will be nearly or quite a week before any definite results are arrived at. The Board meets again to-day at 1½ o'clock. The vote on some of the candidates is exceedingly close. Mr. Smith, Union candidate for Coroner, and Messrs. Kirby and Montgomery (Union) for Superintendents of the Poor, are pretty certainly elected. One other Superintendent is in doubt. With these exceptions the Democratic County Ticket is elected.

NINTH WARD HECKER ASSOCIATION.—Pursuant to a call, a large number of citizens of the Ninth Ward, irrespective of party, met at No. 11 Sixth-ave. The meeting was organized by electing Mr. Brownson President and Mr. Revel Secretary. After some introductory remarks by the President and Messrs. Eler and Bentel, the following resolutions were unanimously passed:

Whereas, The City of New-York has of late years been sadly misgoverned, its best interests neglected, and influence acquired from the fact that the highest official positions in the city are perverted to selfish aims; and whereas, a reform is greatly needed.

Resolved, That we club together for the purpose of electing none but honest, efficient men to office.

Resolved, That from our knowledge of Mr. John Hecker's honesty and energy as a business man, and from our certainty of his attachment to the welfare of the city, we have determined upon thus associating ourselves together for the purpose of using all legitimate means to secure his election to the position of Mayor of the City of New-York.

Resolved, That we openly avow our purpose, and candidly invite the cooperation of all who desire to secure the services of one well qualified to administer the affairs of the city in such a manner as will subserve the best interests of the people.

The meeting adjourned to meet on Tuesday next.

FROM ARKANSAS.

Treatment of the Negroes by the Indians.

Correspondence of The N. Y. Tribune.

FORT SMITH, Ark., Oct. 24, 1865.

The Rebel Choctaw and Chickasaw Indians are waging a terrible persecution against the colored people since the Council held at this place. It seems these Indians are incensed because they must submit to their emancipation by the Government, and are determined to vent their malice on the Blacks, who have been their slaves. They abuse them in every way they can—beating some to death and shooting others. The negroes are coming to this post for protection, and to get help to remove their families.

At the beginning of the war many of the negroes left their families in these nations and came to the Union lines—joined our army and fought the Rebels—some enlisted in the loyal Indian regiments, and some joined the Kansas colored. Since they are mustered out of service, they and their families are shot down like dogs by these wretches, and cannot tread on Choctaw soil only at the peril of their lives. These Indians are aware that their ownership of negroes ceases, which fires their hatred against them.

The military authorities here say they have no orders in the premises. So the negroes must wait till an order is issued in their favor.

The colored people have Gen. Howard of the Freedmens' Bureau, who will doubtless work for them.

COL. GEORGE WARD NICHOLS, author of "The Story of the Great March," recently published by the Harpers, is lecturing in the Western cities on "The Romance of the War." He has accepted invitations to deliver this lecture before literary societies in the State. His services on Gen. Sherman's Staff, in Georgia and the Carolinas, gave him abundant opportunities of observing Southern life and manners, and his fund of war stories, spiced by shrewd and witty comments, makes his lecture a pleasant one.
