NEW PUBLICATIONS.

WIDE LITERATURE OF THE REBELLION. A CATALOGUE OF BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS RELATING TO THE CIVIL WAR IN THE UNITED STATES AND CHIEF SUBJECTS GROWING OUT OF THAT EVENT, TOGETHER WITH WORKS ON AMERICAN SLAVERY AND ESCAPE FROM REVIEWS AND MAGAZINES ON THE SAME SUBJECTS. Compiled by JOHN RUSSELL BARTLETT, Sec. R. I. 477. Boston: Draper & Halliday. New-York: Mason & Bro.

Mr. Bartlett is well known as a voluminous author, and an untiring and intelligent biographer. In the Autumn of 1860, while the Rebellion was in embryo, he began the work of collecting the literary memorials and illustrations of the exciting events then transpiring. The collection immediately grew to large dimensions and a catalogue soon became indispensable, and ere long both collection and catalogue very far outran the anticipations with which they were commenced. The catalogue is undoubtedly the completest guide that can be had to the Literature of the Rebellion and of the subjects connected with it. It contains upward of 6,000 separate titles, several of which embrace a number of subordinate titles.

Such a catalogue is a highly suggestive volume. It is an index of what the world—both at home and abroad—has said in print about our civil war, its causes, its conduct and its consequences. It is very complete in that almost forgotten mass of publications which reflected public opinion at its forming periods, at the beginning of the Rebellion and at each of its most eventful crises. It abounds in pictorial illustrations both real and caricature, in official documents, National, State and Municipal, in Parliamentary papers—diplomatic dispatches and foreign discussions of the war in every shape, in titles relating to the whole subject of American Slavery, as the occasion of the strife, some of them dating from the very origin of the Government, in manifestoes of the Rebels both military and civil; the publications of President Lincoln and those relating to him, including upward of 300 eulogies and discourses occasioned by his death; memorials, petitions and publications both great and small, illustrating the anxieties of the people in different sections of the country, respecting local defenses, military roads, the levy of troops, the treatment and exchange of prisoners and the raising of supplies for the war, and documents relating to emancipation, the employment of negro troops and the whole status of the freedmen. The catalogue indeed will be found, we are persuaded, to be as complete in every particular as can be reasonably desired by students or collectors.

"WHILE PROF. BLOT is regaling audiences with his illustrations of cookery, and convincing American ladies that cookery is one of the fine arts and an accomplishment which they should be proud to understand and take pleasure in practicing, MRS. WARREN, an English woman of excellent sense, large observation and experience, tells, in a simple, straightforward style, 'HOW SHE MANAGED HER HOUSE ON A THOUSAND DOLLARS A YEAR.'

"She tells the whole story, giving minute details, excellent suggestions and valuable hints.

"She is awakening an interest in a subject whose importance cannot be overrated.

"Initiate our young women in the new almost 'lost art' of managing a house well upon a small income, and the number of marriages will be doubled in the next five years."—[Christian Inquirer.

AGENTS WANTED for HORACE GREELEY'S "AMERICAN CONFLICT."

Vol. I of this History has met with unparalleled success—130,000 having already been sold—and is emphatically indorsed by the press of all parties, by leading Generals of the army, by the President, members of the Cabinet, Senators and Representatives in Congress, State Governors, Literary men, and by thousands politically opposed to the author.

Vol. II (and last) will be published in August, and will more than sustain the high character of the first. In its preparation, the vast amount of time, labor, and pains-taking research, devoted to a careful sifting of the mass of crude surface material adopted by earlier writers without verification, and to the collection of important information hitherto inaccessible or overlooked—including much from the Rebel side—cannot fail, under the eminent qualifications of the author, to produce a record of surpassing excellence, which will supersede all other works on the subject. Summer Retreats.

A PLEASANT RETREAT—Affording at once the advantages of city and country life, can be found at No. 63 Columbia-st., Brooklyn Hights, N. Y. The rooms are first-class, pleasantly located, away from the dust and noise of the city, commanding a fine view of New-York harbor and metropolis. In connection with this establishment is the TURKISH BATH, the cleansing properties of which are unapproachable, and, at the same time, it is one of the greatest physical luxuries, nor is there any agent so powerful to renovate and restore the diseased or enfeebled system. Good board and immunity from cholera can be secured by a limited number desiring to avail themselves of the bath in connection with other hygienic agencies. CHAS. H. SHEPARD, M. D.

COUNTRY BOARD.—Three ROOMS are now vacant and others will be vacant next week, at a quiet place among the mountains. Price $8. L. F. DUDLEY, Cornwell, Conn. For particulars address Box No. 2,585 P. O.

EXTENSIVE AUCTION SALE OF GOVERNMENT TOBACCO. Several hundred hogsheads of fine Virginia Leaf. In compliance with instructions from H. A. Risley, esq., Supervising Special Agent, there will be sold, to the highest bidder, at Public Auction, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon of WEDNESDAY, the 5th day of September next, at WINSTON'S BUILDING, corner of Fourteenth and Cary-sts., in the city of RICHMOND, VIRGINIA, the following described

CAPTURED AND ABANDONED PROPERTY, VIZ.:
TWO HUNDRED (or more) HOGSHEADS LEAF TOBACCO;
FIVE HUNDRED BOXES MANUFACTURED TOBACCO.

The Leaf Tobacco has been gathered from the counties of Bedford, Roanoke, Franklin, Campbell, Henry, Patrick, Halifax, Prince Edward, Pittsylvania, Mecklenburg and Charlotte, comprising all the good tobacco lands in the State. Much of it is of the finest quality, suitable for "wrappers," and has been well cured and preserved. This sale presents opportunities to the manufacturer and dealer rarely offered. Should the demand warrant, some three or four hundred hogsheads more may be added to the sale, which will complete the disposition of Virginia Tobacco for Government account.

Samples of each kind will be ready for inspection at the salesroom, ten days preceding the day of sale.

TERMS: Cash, in Government Funds.

JOHN S. LOOMIS, Assistant Special Agent.
