Dry Goods.

CARPETS, FURNITURE, OILCLOTHS, &c., &c.—Great depreciation in the price of these goods. Decided bargains in Carpets particularly. Although the jobbers and importers have advanced their prices because of the recent rise in gold, I will continue to sell at the month, and as long as my present stock lasts, at prices even less than when gold was at 125. My motto is quick sales and small profits. On this low basis I back my trade, and I mean to carry it out to the best of my ability.
