REMARKS ABOUT BEEF CATTLE.

The total number this week, 6,630 head, compares with 6,789 head last week, and with 5,235 head, average per week last year, and with 6,623 for the corresponding week one year ago.

The number sold to-day at the One-hundred-and-th market, 2,723 head, compares with 3,100 head last week and with 3,650 head, the average per week last year, and with 4,574 head at market one year ago.

THE MARKET AT HUDSON CITY.

HUDSON CITY, Nov. 2.—Receipts at these yards since last reports amount to 3,468, which is a larger number than usual, and nearly all have been sold. Trade was very slow Wednesday, and prices fell off fully ½c. from last week, but there is a slight improvement since, the value of to-day being just about like those of this day week. One thing is very marked, and that is the poor quality of the stock. There is scarcely a right good drove in market, though several will rank fair, and a few a little above. Nothing is bringing over 10c., and very few reach this figure, butchers insisting upon getting fair to good cattle at 14@15c., while much of the thin stock sells at 12@13c. The weather is decidedly favorable for trade cool, but a large supply of mutton, pork and poultry is here being clear and the cattle trade.

THE MARKET AT ONE HUNDREDTH-ST.

This has been a magnificent day for business in the New-York Cattle Market, being clear, dry and cool, which is equal to half a cent a pound in favor of drovers, and the average quality is considerably better than last week, yet we cannot make the average price a quarter of a cent higher. The very best cattle, and they are really excellent, are not quoted over 17c. ⅌ lb., and but few at that. The best drove of Illinois stock in market, owned by A. M. Allerton, from his farm near Joliet, Ill., sold at only 15½@16½c. ⅌ lb. This makes them $20 a head cheaper to the butcher than such cattle were five weeks ago. The range of good fair droves of Illinois stock is 13@15c., and this class is abundant and hard to sell at owners' estimates of weight. No one acknowledges any profit, and some drovers declare that they are losing freight. There are a good many State stock in market this week, and some of them come enough to sell at 8@13c. The rush down the Harlem road this week is heavy, and owners have not realized their expectations, which were for an advance. Some of them say instead, that there is a decline. Perhaps it is so, but not owing to the number here to-day, which is only 2,725, yet the supply of the week, at all the market places, foots up 5,630, which is a full supply, even for this time of year. The average for more than two months past has been still higher. Owners of stock in this State appear to be crowding it forward, on account of the high prices of hay and grain. The surplus of poor cattle will affect prices of the medium and best, and keep them down; some prices of the medium still lower than now. The markets, shrewd parties think, will be overstocked with cattle, and sold at 12@13c.

H. Eisner sold 62 Illinois steers, 6 cwt., common, at 13½c., and 111 from same State, 6½ cwt., at 14½c., both droves on his own account.

J. Well had 72 Ohio steers, 6½ cwt., medium flesh, selling at 14@15c.

Eastman & Bro. for J. Montgomery, 129 Illinois steers, 7 cwt., at 14@16c.; and for Bedford & Kennedy, 60 Kentucky cattle, 8½ cwt., at 15@16c.; they had a very fine top.

W. Thompson sold 47 Illinois steers for R. C. Coon, 7 cwt., fair, at 15@16c.

H. Westheimer for I. Hammill, 50 Ohio steers, very good, bought in Albany at about 16c., selling here at 15@16c. on 7¼ cwt.

S. R. Richardson for Cravens & Doss, 76 Kentucky steers, 8 cwt., fat, grade Durhams, at 15@16c. They cost 7½c. in Kentucky and weighed 1,550 lb, and, of course, they look heavy, in common with all Western droves.

Mead & Teed, for J. Moss, 38 Ohio steers, 7¼ cwt., at 13@16c., and 29 up-country cattle, cows, steers and oxen, at 12@16c.

P. McCaffrey bought 47 Ohio steers at the yards, 7¼ cwt., selling at 15@16c. They were a fine bunch.

J. C. Hoag sold 60 up-country cattle, steers, for farmers, 6@7¼ cwt., at 14@16½c.

A. M. Allerton had 87 Illinois steers, grazed on his own farm in Cook Co. They were a prime lot drove, strong 6 cwt., and retailed at 15½@16½c., sold by Murray & Glover, and averaged about 1125 each.

M. Dalton sold 38 Illinois steers on his own account, 6 cwt., at 14c.

T. J. Goff was selling 79 Ohio steers for W. Johnson, 7¼ cwt., a fair to good drove, running short at 14@15c.

Healy & Co. had 60 Illinois steers, 6½ cwt., selling at 13@14c.

E. Loughman sold 65 good Ohio steers at 15@16½c. on 7¼ cwt.

D. Reynolds sold 53 Ohio steers, 7½ cwt., at 16c.

J. A. Merritt, for Blackstock & Co., 51 Ohio steers, coarse, not fat, but big, 7½ cwt., sold at 15@16c.

C. S. Green sold 21 mixed State cattle, bulls, steers
