OUR STATE MILITIA.

MOVEMENTS IN THE REGIMENTS—MILITARY EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

THE 7TH REGIMENT IN THE REBELLION.—Some time since it was proposed to publish the official papers and incidents of the services of the 7th Regiment during the Rebellion, but Col. Lefferts deemed it ill-timed for certain reasons, and so the matter rested. The work is now in preparation by Mr. Wm. Swinton. Accompanying the history will be a biographical sketch of the members of the 7th who served in the Regular and Volunteer army and navy.

THE SEVENTH REGIMENT AND THE PARIS EXPOSITION.—It will be seen by the following letter of Col. Clark that this matter has been definitely settled, the regiment having voted to decline the invitation of the American residents in Paris to visit that city during the great Exposition.

HEADQUARTERS SEVENTH REGIMENT N. G. S. N. Y., NEW-YORK, Nov. 26, 1866.

The Rev. A. R. Burlingame and others, American resident in Paris:

GENTLEMEN: Your very kind and flattering invitation to this regiment to visit Paris during the great Exposition in 1867 having been carefully considered by its officers and members, I am directed as their official representative to respectfully decline the same. Although fully appreciating your favor and partiality in desiring that this regiment should represent the citizen soldiery of the Great Republic on that occasion, and although recognizing the fact to which you allude, that such a visit would probably revive old associations and cement the friendship which has existed without interruption between the two nations since the war of American Independence, still, business pursuits, domestic ties, and the large expenditure of time and money necessarily involved, compel the officers and members of the regiment to forego the pleasure of a trip to Paris in 1867. Hoping and believing that the genius of America will be truly represented at the great Exposition, and that you, Americans resident in Paris, will have additional reasons to be proud of your country and your countrymen, I am, gentlemen, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

EMMONS CLARK.

Colonel commanding Seventh Regiment N. G. S. N. Y.

Since forwarding the above letter, Col. Clarke has received a letter from one of the New-York State Commissioners to the Paris Exposition, in which he says "that the French Government have been advised of the matter, and that the most cordial expressions of welcome have been assured. Gen. Melinet, Commandant of the National Guards at Paris, has been authorized to proffer the Ecole Militaire as quarters for the regiment while in Paris; and that the moment an official letter, stating your acceptance of the invitation, is received, an official letter from the Gardes des Paris will be at once forwarded to you, with a distinct invitation to accept their hospitality.

Privately, every exertion is being made for the comfort of the regiment while in Paris. I am already advised of dinners, balls, &c., positively to take place, and only write for your decided reply. Gen. Duryea, Cols. Catlin and Vermilyea, and all the Americans here, are favorably impressed with the prospective results of your visit, not only to the members of the regiment, but to the country in general."

The letter from which the above extract is taken was received by Col. Clark yesterday.

CLAIMS FOR BOUNTY.—By the official report of Gen. Charles M. Darling, transmitted Dec. 1 to his Excellency R. E. Fenton, Governor of New-York, it appears that upward of 8,000 New-York soldiers and their heirs have, since August 15, 1866, communicated with his office, either personally or by letter, on business relating to the additional bounty, under act of Congress approved July 28, 1866.

ELECTIONS.—Capt. John O'Shaughnessy of the 2d Regiment to be Major vice De Courcey, promoted. At an election for Major of the 3d Regiment, N. G., held on Wednesday evening last, 28th inst., the following vote was cast: Capt. Samuel M. Cox, 10; Lieut. Hamilton, 12; Capt. Dietsch, 4; Lieut. Carroll, 1. Three votes for Capt. Cox were rejected by direction of Col. Bendix. The presiding officer having, as it is alleged, opened one vote and looked at it, previous to declaring the vote, and there having been some informality in the election, a protest has been entered against the same.

Adjutant Unbekant of the 11th Regiment to be Major vice Krenkel resigned.

Brigadier-Gen. Aspinwall, commanding the First Division, has issued the following order: "In conformity with Special Orders No. 365, Adjutant-General's Office, an election to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of Brigadier-Gen. BROOKLYN NEWS.

THE WHISKY FRAUDS.—The case of the United States agt. Messrs. Angus, Boehme, Rowe and Schwabius was resumed before Commissioner Newton at the United States Court rooms, Montague-st., Brooklyn, on Saturday last; but little evidence of any further importance was elicited.

Mr. R. A. McDonald was recalled and cross-examined at some length by District-Attorney Tracy without developing any new facts save that he knew Mr. Smith previously referred to; saw him when he came from Philadelphia, and had talked with him as to the process of manufacturing "burning fluid;" he had also seen and conversed with others on the same subject; had frequently visited the distilleries, but had nothing to do with the disposal of their products; had attended the trial throughout, and had been at Mr. Tracy's office to induce him to withdraw the suit as a friendly act, had been an Internal Revenue officer, but ceased to be such in April last.

On a re-direct examination by Mr. Dittenhoefer, the witness stated that he went with Capt. Erhardt and Mr. Smith and saw some samples of burning fluid from barrels in custody of Collector Egan. Four bottles were filled and sealed, and they were still sealed when brought into Court. He also saw the Captain and Mr. Smith go to fill the lamps which were presented before the Commissioner.

Mr. G. P. Glasse was recalled, and testified that his salary from July 23, 1863, to July 1, 1864, was $10,500.

The next witness called for the defense was Mr. S. Jerney, jr., who said that he had analyzed the article in question, and considered it "burning fluid."

Deputy-Collector F. W. Tappan testified that Mr. Glasse had sent him a bottle of the fluid from the Franklin-ave. distillery by Mr. Tilton.

Capt. Erhardt identified the samples of fluid shown in Court as the same taken from the barrels. The barrels were shaken some when the samples were drawn.

The defense here rested their case, and the final arguments will be heard this morning at 9½ o'clock.

THE GREENE-AVE. RAILROAD.—Another application for an injunction to prevent the City Railroad Company from laying a track in Greene-ave., Brooklyn, was brought up in the United States Circuit Court, before Judge Benedict, on Saturday. The applicant, Mr. L. Van Bokelen of Maryland, holds a title to the land which extends to the middle of the street, thus undermining the ground on which the Judge's former decision was based. The case was adjourned until Saturday, the 15th inst., to give the counsel for defense time to prepare papers, &c.

FELL OVERBOARD.—A seaman, name unknown, belonging to the ship Colorado, now lying at the foot of Amity-st., Brooklyn, fell overboard at a late hour on Saturday night, and narrowly escaped drowning. He was finally rescued by a private watchman, named John Dunn, who endangered his own life to save another.

A NEW TEMPERANCE SOCIETY.—A new Temperance organization, to be known as the Father Mathew T. A. B. Society No. 7, was formed in the school-room of St. Patrick's Church, Kent-ave., Brooklyn, yesterday. The Father Mathew Societies of the Eastern and Western Districts turned out en masse, and marched through the principal streets with music, banners, etc., attracting considerable attention.

YOUTHFUL DEPRAVITY.—Three boys, named J. McHenry, aged 16; Michael Conroy, aged 18, and J. McKenna, aged 16, were found in Schenck-st., Brooklyn, yesterday, in a state of beastly intoxication. They were taken to the Station-House and locked up to await trial for their youthful indiscretions.

GRAND LARCENY.—John Phillips, a seaman by occupation, was arrested in Brooklyn Saturday evening for having stolen some time in November a watch and chain, also a coat and hat, valued in all at $40, from Mr. Geo. H. Preston. The coat and hat and a pawn-ticket for the watch were found in possession of the prisoner at the time of his arrest. He was held for examination.

ACCIDENT.—On Saturday afternoon a woman named Cummings, residing in Raymond, near Tillary-st., Brooklyn, was run over by Dr. J. L. Farley's carriage in Myrtle-ave., at the corner of Hudson, and had her arm broken, beside sustaining other injuries. She was conveyed to the City Hospital for treatment.

INSANITY.—An insane man named Henry B. Roan, who was wandering about the streets of Brooklyn, was yesterday morning taken up by the police, and after a thorough medical examination sent to the Asylum at Flatbush, L. I.

QUEENS COUNTY INTELLIGENCE.

QUEENS COUNTY TAXES.—The Board of Supervisors of this County have just completed their labors for the year, and the books have been turned over to the collectors of the different towns, who in a few days will be ready to receive taxes. The following figures will show the amount to be collected in Queens County:

	Valuation.	Rate per cent.
Flushing	$80,558 40	$1 60
Oyster Bay	42,828 38	1 09
North Hempstead	30,986 66	1 22
Hempstead	38,225 60	1 26
Newtown	77,676 26	1 42
Jamaica	39,616 44	1 24

APPOINTMENT OF ASSESSOR.—The President has appointed E. O. Perin of Jamaica, Assessor for the 1st Congressional District, in place of H. W. Eastman, removed.

FIREMEN'S ELECTION.—The annual election for officers of the Flushing Fire Department will take place on the evening of the 11th of December. John H. Wilson and Charles Hance are the candidates for Chief-Engineer.

CATTLE STEALING.—The farmers of this County have suffered so much of late from having their cattle stolen that they have organized a mounted police, who, as soon as information of a theft is lodged at their headquarters, use every exertion to head off the thieves, and in several cases have been successful in recovering the stolen property. On Friday night the farms of Jessie Howlett and Townsend Carman, at South Oyster Bay, were visited by cattle thieves, and a yoke of fat cattle stolen from each of them.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—The County Court and Court of Sessions have convicted the following persons, who have been sentenced as noted: Henry J. Marvin, burglary; two years and nine months in State Prison. George Smith, grand larceny; same sentence. David Fish, grand larceny; two years in State Prison. John Prescott, larceny; State Prison three years. James Flannery, larceny; State Prison two years and eight months. Hans Nelson, robbery; State Prison three years and four months. Claude Frederick, seduction; County Jail nine months. Silas Townsend, grand larceny; State Prison one year and ten months. Frederick Fodder, burglary; State Prison three years and four months. Michael Beck, grand larceny; State Prison four years. Benjamin Steele, burglary; State Prison five years. William Rogers, stealing a horse, County Jail one year. The Court adjourned on Wednesday, the 5th, for the term.

CIVIL COURTS.

UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE—DEC. 8.—Before Commissioner OSBORNE.

ALLEGED MUTINY AT SEA.

United States agt. Thomas McCarthy.

The defendant was charged with mutiny in the harbor of Pernambuco, Brazil. The following is the testimony:

Wm. D. Barry—Am master of the United States and Brazilian mail steamer Guiding Star; defendant was a seaman on my ship; he was on her during her last voyage, leaving New-York September 22, and returning to this port on the 30th of November; had difficulty with defendant off Pernambuco; we were anchored in the outer roads; it was on the 5th of November; I came on board from Pernambuco; the defendant was one of the boat's crew who brought me on board; he was intoxicated; I ordered the ship under way as soon as I got on board, and told McCarthy to go on the upper deck; he became abusive and refused to remain there, and I ordered him in irons; he refused to submit to the mate's doing this, and when I went to assist the mate he seized me by the throat and attempted to draw his knife, when the mate seized it; he was then put in irons and shackled to a stanchion, forward of the pilot-house; we then got under way; in the afternoon he kept up his abusive language, threatening my life and the mate's also; about 7 o'clock in the evening he commenced kicking and biting at the mate when he would pass; in order to stop that I lashed a capstan bar to his feet and legs; to stop his abusive language he was gagged with a small belaying pin; I confined him in fine weather on deck, and in bad weather in the room directly under the pilot-house; he continued in confinement until the 15th of December, when he said he was sorry, and I released him, but told him I did not withdraw the charge against him; the gag was kept in his mouth until 11 o'clock in the evening of the day it was placed there.

Cross-examined—Had been at my agent's, in Pernambuco; the boat was lying alongside of the wharf; when I got on board the steamer I ordered the defendant on the upper deck and to remain there; he said, with an oath, that he would not; then called the mate and put him in irons; that was his first offense; that was about 11½ or 12 o'clock; when in the boat he rowed it after a fashion; there were three or four other men in the boat; he was noisy on the boat and I told him to stop, but he would not; didn't see him drink; hadn't drank anything myself.

Geo. G. Fletcher—Am first-mate of the Guiding Star. This witness's testimony varied a little from that of the captain in relation to the drawing of the knife; this witness testified that defendant half drew the knife, when witness dared him to draw it, and he desisted; but that he subsequently took the knife out of his sheath and put it in the waistband of his pants in front, and then witness took it from him. After some additional testimony, which elicited no additional facts, the further examination was adjourned to Wednesday next. Assistant U. S. District-Attorney Joseph Bell for the Government; J. G. White for defendant.

ALLEGED FRAUDULENT DRAWING OF A PENSION.

United States agt. Johanna Fitzgerald, alias Connelly.

The defendant was charged with drawing a pension as the window of a soldier named Fitzgerald, who was killed at the battle of Fair Oaks, after her subsequent marriage to a man named Connelly. The following testimony explains the case:

Christopher Fitzgerald—Know defendant; reside at No. 9½ Laurens-st.; know Edward Fitzgerald, my brother, who was once the husband of defendant; he was killed in the battle of Fair Oaks; he was killed on the 31st of May, 1862; defendant has resided in this city except four months, when she lived out of the city as a servant; know Hugh Connelly; the defendant told me that she was married to Hugh Connelly, and they were at my house for a week in June last; she introduced Connelly to me as her husband; she lived with him as his wife and occupied the same room and bed while stopping at my house.

Cross-examined—They resided at No. 58 Prince-st. for three months; visited them while there; she has five children by her husband, Fitzgerald; the last time I saw Connelly was about four weeks ago at No. 58 Prince-st.; the defendant lived at No. 195 Mulberry-st.; heard her say on one occasion that she was married to Connelly in Jersey, and on another occasion that she had married him in Elizabeth-st.; have seen Connelly and defendant together a hundred times, and have known them to introduce each other as man and wife; have no knowledge who married them or who were witnesses.

John Fitzgerald—Am nephew of last witness; have seen defendant and Connelly together at my uncle's house, and they were represented to me as man and wife.

Margaret Nolan Fitzgerald testified that defendant and Connelly represented themselves as man and wife.

The defendant then was permitted to make a statement. She said that she was not married to Connelly, but lived with him as his wife, mainly for the reason that he supported her and her children; and that she had represented that they were married, on account of being ashamed to acknowledge her real position.

There being no positive proof of the marriage of defendant, she was discharged, the Commissioner giving it as his opinion that the case should be brought to the notice of the U. S. Pension agent, in order that if possible, defendant's children should have the benefit of the pension.

Assistant U. S. District-Attorney Joseph Bell for the Government; the defendant was not represented by counsel.

ALLEGED EMBEZZLEMENT BY A POST-OFFICE CLERK.

United States agt. Benj. B. Miller.

The defendant was formerly a major in the United States army, and is tall, fine-looking, and very gentlemanly in appearance. He has been employed in the New-York Post-Office about three months as a night clerk. Mr. Gaylor, special agent of the Post Office Department, had his attention drawn to the fact that letters inclosing valuable checks had not reached their destinations. His suspicions were excited against the defendant, and he had him arrested at 10 o'clock on Saturday morning. On being charged with the crime of embezzling the missing letters and appropriating the checks, he told contradictory stories, but finally acknowledged that he had stolen one check from a letter, but in relation to another check he said he had paid $80 for it. It seems that his manner of operating was to falsely indorse the various checks, and then obtain money on them from his friends. The fraud was discovered when some of the checks were offered on deposit, and they were eventually traced to the defendant.

The Commissioner informed the defendant that, on conviction, the penalty for the crime he was alleged to have committed was not more than 20 nor less than 10 years' imprisonment, and he should require bail to the amount of $5,000 for his appearance for examination. The defendant not being able to give that amount of bail, was committed. The examination will take place next Wednesday. This is one of several cases of embezzlement that have recently taken place in the Post-Office Department, and it is stated by those who ought to know, that it is owing to the careless manner in which the numerous new appointees have been selected.
