REMARKS.—Receipts of cattle over the Northern roads about 900, or something over 100 more than last week. There were some good oxen, but the general quality of the stock about the same as last week's, and we can see but little difference in prices as compared with last week. Most of the drovers had more or less sheep as well as cattle; and this week the sheep occupied a large share of the attention of drovers. This, with the delay of the Vermont Central trains over the Fitchburg, made the trade appear dragging and later than usual, but we think prices about the same as last week.

The sheep market, however, is quite different in most repects. The receipts at Medford and Cambridge, according to our count, amount to the enormous sum of 16,000. With some 600 from Albany and 900 from Maine, our sum total for the week approximates 18,000—a number unparalleled during the period of our acquaintance with the market. The bulk of the stock is fair to poor. The best lots find much more ready sale, and at comparatively better prices than the commonest quality. The Vermont Central trains over the Fitchburg very largely freighted with sheep, did not reach the market until nearly 11 o'clock, nor until most of the butchers had bought largely. In consequence of this delay we had little time for the trade at Brighton. Early in the morning the drovers held up the market pretty well, but later in the day they were obliged to lower prices, until they found themselves pretty much at the mercy of the drovers. Lots were sold very unevenly, but we think the market will average full 50c. per head lower than last week, and very many lots $1. Good sheep, 85 to over 90 ℔, were sold for 5c., and some cells as low as $1 per head. $1 25, $1 50, $2, $2 50, &c. One or two lots of extra good, coarse wool lambs brought 6½c. in the forenoon. We heard one of the butchers say, after the Vermont Central arrived, that he might then pick up 2,000 to market on commission. Drovers were glad to listen to any proposal by which they should be rid of their flocks.

PHILADELPHIA CATTLE MARKET—Dec. 11.

There was a good supply of beef cattle this week, and the demand was quite brisk, but prices remain about the same; 2,350 head were disposed of at from $12 to $14 for fair to good cattle, and from $15 25 to $16 per 100 ℔ for prime and extra.

SHEEP—There was but little change in this market. The offerings amounted to 6,500 head, and sales were made at from 4½@5½c. per ℔ gross, as to quality and condition.

HOGS—The market for logs continues dull. Over 4,000 head were sold at from $8 to $9 25 per 100 ℔ net. This is a falling off in price, compared with last week.

COWS—The sale of cows amounted to 225 head, at prices ranging from $40 to $60 for Springers, and from $65 to $85 for cow and calf.
