hurry, low prices only can be realized. We repeat there is no inducement to send fresh cows here at present, for good ones have to be sold at about $80 each, and it is only when a fancy customer can be found that a very extra cow will bring $100. More are sold at less than $60, the calf thrown in.

VEAL CALVES—At this, the general coming-in time of cows, the calves are coming in to this city at an almost unprecedented rate. Not that the receipts of live are so very heavy, but it is the dressed veals per boats and railroads, and farmers wagons, which tell. More than twice as many hog dressed calves come down the North River on barges as are received at all the markets alive. Prices are constantly working down, pretty good live calves selling at 9@10c., and only a very few of the pick bringing 12c. More are sold at 8c. and 9c. than any other price, while not a few are weighed off at 7c. Dressed are worth 10@11c., with a few of the first choice at 15c.

THE SHEEP MARKET.

Receipts this week, 10,897.

QUOTATIONS.—The following reports of sales of sheep and lambs, by several of the sheep-brokers, who sell on commission, will give the average of prices per head this week. They are quoted per pound, live weight, for sheep, 8@9½c.

Receipts are much lighter this week, but we cannot report any improvement in prices. Though most of the sales are between 8@9½c., we must not leave out the very mean lots sent off now while the fleeces hide their meanness, the owners very well knowing that it would be useless to offer them without this covering. Some of the stock is so poor that, when dressed, the Health Commissioners seize the carcasses as unhealthy meat. Such have to be sold at 6@7c. Then again there are a few very fine sheep coming to market which bring extreme prices —one lot of very extra medium wool State sheep, of 143 ℔, selling at 11c. There were six cars on sale in Sixth-st. this morning, most of which brought 8@9½c., being pretty even, so 80 and 85 ℔ sheep. Good fat 90 ℔ sheep will bring 9@9½c. Trade may be set down as pretty good, with nothing to speak of left over.

THE SWINE MARKET.

Receipts by Railroads, to wit: Hudson River Railroad, 4,953; Erie Railroad, 3,937; New-Jersey Central Railroad, 7,268. Total—16,158.

With larger receipts and warm weather the hog market is depressed, and prices are fully ½c. lower than this day week. There were five cars on sale at Fortieth-st. this morning, most of which brought 8c., but poor lots have been selling as low as 6@6½c. The market may be quoted at 7½@8c. Most of the present arrivals are hogs which should be fed three months longer, when they would make good pork and some lard. Now slaughterers say those coming forward yield less than three pounds of lard per hog, and instead of the shrinkage being 18@20 per cent, as formerly, it is now 23 and 26 per cent. The Hog Slaughters' Association no longer exists, but in their place the following firms are operating exclusively at the Communipaw Abattoir, viz.: Charles White & Co., Bartlett & Struble, Lippincott & Martin, Sprigg & Haynes, and S. W. Alberton & Co. These names are a sufficient guarantee that shippers will receive full rates for their stock.

Accounts from the West put the total packing of the season at 2,425,254 hogs, against 1,705,955 last year. The average weight was 229 ℔, or about 1 ℔ heavier than the previous season, while the 292 ℔ of leaf lard is about 1½ ℔ per hog less than the year before.
