THE COURTS.

COURT NOTICE.

Nathaniel Jarvis, jr., Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas, announces that in consequence of the illness of Judges Daly and Barrett the June term is adjourned for the term. The short cause calendar will be called by Judge Brady on Friday, the 25th inst.

A SEALED VERDICT.

Bouton agt. Elmer and others.—Superior Court—Trial Term.—Fithian, Justice.—In this case, previously reported in THE TRIBUNE, in which the Court directed a verdict for the defendant Elmer, but left the case as to the other two to the jury, the jury has decided in favor of both the defendants.

RELEASE OF THE QUAKER CITY.

The appraisers of the value of the Quaker City, (otherwise the Columbia), having made their report, Judge Blatchford, thereupon issued an order for her release, and in obedience to this order, the Deputy Marshals having her in charge relinquished possession, leaving the vessel at liberty to proceed to sea, wherever those controlling her may desire.

THE CONNECTICUT BANKRUPTCY FRAUD CASE.

In the case before Commissioner Betts in which Michael Leavitt and Moses Philips, of Hartford, Conn., were charged with defrauding their creditors out of $40,000 worth of property, in anticipation of bankruptcy, Judge Blatchford has issued his warrant for the removal of the accused to be tried in Connecticut.

ATTORNEY'S IN THE COURT OF SESSIONS.

In re., James D. McClellan.—Supreme Court—Chambers.—Ingraham, J.—This is the case of the lawyer whom Judge Dowling excluded from practicing before him at the Court of Special Sessions. He applied to Mr. Justice Ingraham for a writ of mandamus to compel Justice Dowling to allow complainant to practice before him. Judge Ingraham refuses the motion on the ground that such an order is unnecessary, as both lawyer and layman have the right to practice in that Court.

THE BISHOP DIVORCE CASE.

Bishop agt. Bishop.—Superior Court, Chambers—McCunn, J.—Some time ago an order was entered by Mrs. Bishop against her husband to show cause why he should not be committed for contempt, for failing to pay the alimony granted to her for some fifteen months, pay the alimony granted to her for some fifteen months, pay the alimony granted to her for some fifteen months, pay the alimony granted to her for some fifteen months, with a proper counsel fee. Judge McCunn decided that he must pay the alimony and a counsel fee fixed at $250; and in default sent Mr. Bishop to Ludlow-st. jail. Yesterday the case came up on alleged inaccuracies in the order. The counsel for the plaintiff was willing to admit that there had been a mistake of $50, and was willing to reduce his own allowance to $100. A modification of the order was therefore made in accordance with this admission, but meanwhile the defendant remains in jail. S. J. Glassy for plaintiff, M. Dyott for defendant.

THE APPLETON CASE AGAIN.

Warner agt. Appleton.—Supreme Court, General Term, Clerke, P. J., Cardozo and Barnard, J. J. It may be remembered that this suit has been pending for some time in the name of Samuel F. Appleton to set aside his marriage with the defendant, on the ground that her former husband, the plaintiff in this case, was still alive. That case, with varying success, has been going through the courts for some years. This suit has been commenced by the first husband to set aside the second marriage. The defendant demurred for various alleged defects in the complaint, the chief being that there was no allegation of residence of the parties. The Court below gave judgment for the plaintiff on the demurrer, with leave to the defendant to answer. From this decision the defendant appealed, and the appeal was agreed to. The Court reserved its decision.

AN ACCIDENT AND ITS CAUSE.

James Cosgrove agt. Isaac C. Ogden and others.—Supreme Court, Circuit. Mullin, J.—This was a suit by a boy, through his guardian, for damages for a wood-pile in Thirteenth-st. falling on him. The lumber had been piled up on the street by the agent of defendants, but, as they claimed, without any authority from them. It was claimed that this excused them, and it was claimed further that the pile was well put up, and that the accident was really caused by the boy's playing over it and pulling out some pieces to make see-saws, &c., and that the plaintiff was one of the boys. The Court left the question of negligence with the jury on both sides, charging, as usual, that the plaintiff must be free from negligence to recover, and although a child was held to the same care as an adult, but holding that the defendants were responsible for their agent's acts. The jury found for plaintiff a verdict of $450. O. S. Stewart for plaintiff; Luther R. Marsh for defendants.

ALLEGED FORGERY OF A BOUNTY CHECK.

John E. Mead was brought before Commissioner Osborn, on complaint of one William Watts, who made an affidavit to the effect that he (Watts) had been a member of the 1st New-York Volunteer Engineers during the late war; that on the 22d of October, 1866, he had given to one Reuben Vose a power of attorney to collect for him the additional bounty due to him from the United States; that, as he is informed and believes, a check was duly issued by the Treasury Department, numbered 15,836, on the 19th of November, 1868, and sent by mail to Mr. Vose on that day; that, as he is informed and believes, the check was stolen while on its way to Vose in some manner unknown to deponent; that the check went into the possession of Mead, who, as deponent is informed and believes, forged deponent's name to it, and procured payment of it from the Assistant Treasurer of the United States in this city. Mead was held for an examination to take place to-day.

THE COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS—"JOHNNY THE GREEK."

In the Court of General Sessions yesterday, before Recorder Hackett, John Roach (whose "fighting" name is "Johnny the Greek") was brought up for trial, in company with James McConnell, another villain of the same class, on a charge of larceny from the person. This case has been called for trial at least a dozen times, but on each occasion an important witness has been missing, or something else has occurred to delay the trial. It was confidently hoped yesterday that the Court would at last be enabled to dispose of the case, but at the very start it was announced that Mr. McCready, one of the most important witnesses for the people, was not in attendance. After some argument, the case was adjourned, and the men remanded to the Tombs.

The other trials and convictions at this Court were: Joseph Brown, burglary, two offenses, five years in the State Prison; Chas. W. Locw, burglary, 3 years 6 months in State Prison; Catherine Gardner, larceny, six months in the Penitentiary; John Grady, grand larceny, acquitted.

DISAGREEMENT AMONG LAWYERS.

In re Ham.—Supreme Court—General Term Clerke, P. J., and Cardozo, and Barnard, J. J.—Messrs. Dawson and Ham were recently partners in business, but have recently quarreled, and Mr. Dawson now asks that his former partner be debarred practice in the Court. It would appear from the affidavit of Mr. Dawson that their firm was employed to collect a debt of $2,000, Mr. Ham having assured the client that the evidence was ample and the debtors solvent; that subsequently Mr. Ham compromised the claim for $211 35, not only without the partner's consent, but against his express wish, and then put the money in his own pocket; that he had been since applied to for the money by the client, and had said he was unable to pay, but would at some future time. Mr. Ham's counsel said the animus of the proceeding was evident, but a suit had been commenced for this money against both the partners, which was perhaps a cause for that feeling on Mr. Dawson's part. Till that was decided this proceeding was premature, and the Court was bound to dismiss it. Mr. Justice Clerke said the two proceedings were entirely independent. Counsel for Mr. Ham said they had so fully relied on this point that they had prepared no affidavits. If the Court decided against them they should claim the right to submit their papers. Mr. Dawson said the reason why Mr. Ham had no affidavits was that he could not deny the facts. The Court took the papers and reserved its decision.

FRIDAY, June 11—P. M.

Gold opened at 139½, sold at 138⅞@139½, closing at 139¼@139½. The clearings at the Gold Exchange Bank were $74,251,000, and the balances $3,006,888.

Government bonds were firm, with a good demand for all classes. Coupon 6s sold at 117½, 65s 118¾, New 65s 119¼, 67s 119½, 10-40s 108½@108¾. At the last call prices were from ⅛@⅜ per cent lower, and there was some pressure to sell in consequence of the sudden advance in gold to 139½, and of sterling exchange to 109½ for 60-day bills, and 110¼ for sight. This advance was made upon a report of political troubles in France, and had the tendency to check operations in bonds.

State bonds were dull and lower on Tennessee 6 per cents, the Old bonds selling at 65, and the New at 62. Missouri 6 per cents were active, advancing to 92½. North Carolina 6 per cents sold at 56½. Railroad bonds were strong; Rock Island 7 per cents sold at 99; Fort Wayne 1sts, 104; Lake Shore Dividend bonds, 92½; Mariposa Trustee Certificates were in good demand at 45, at which price there were large bids, as these certificates represent the whole of the Mariposa estate, and have to be paid before the property reverts to the stockholders; they are considered cheap at present prices. Pacific Mail continued strong and active, selling at 84¼@85, closing at 84⅞@85. Express shares were higher; Adams sold at 59; Wells-Fargo, 30½; American, 40; Merchants' Union, 14½; United States, 67½.

Railway shares opened firm, and were steady at quotations. The panicky feeling of the past two days ceased, and the transactions were without excitement. At the first call New-York Central sold at 186¾@186⅞; Hudson, 157½; Harlem, 144; Reading, 97½; Lake Shore and Michigan Southern, 105⅞@105¾; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 96⅞@95½; North-West Common, 88½@88⅞; North-West Preferred, 99½; Rock Island, 119½@119¾; St. Paul Common, 73½; St. Paul Preferred, 86@85½; Fort Wayne, 156½; Chicago and Alton, 155; New-Jersey Central, 114@113½; Morris and Essex, 89, ex-dividend; Hannibal and St. Joseph Common, 120@117½. The market was strong and active after the Board, and at the second call prices were all higher. New-York Central sold at 188½; Hudson, 157½; Harlem, 144½; Reading, 98½; Michigan Southern, 105⅞; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 96½; North-Western Common, 89; North-Western Preferred, 100; Rock Island, 120½; St. Paul, 73½; St. Paul Preferred, 86½; Fort Wayne, 157. After the call, upon a reported easier tone of the money market, the market advanced from ½ to 1 per cent upon the active shares. New-York Central sold at 189½; Hudson River, 158; Rock Island, 120½; Michigan Southern, 106½. The market continued buoyant and excited up to the close of business. The short interest is very large, and stocks were in active borrowing demand. New-York Central sold at 190½; Harlem, 148; North-Western Common, 89½; North-Western Preferred, 101; Rock Island, 121½.

Money continued stringent at rates ranging from 7 per cent in currency to ½ per cent commission; large loans were made at coin interest. The market continued without change until near the close of bank hours, when there was a free offering of funds at currency interest. The stringency of the past three days has been due in a great measure to artificial causes, and as yet it is impossible to state whether the bears have accomplished their ends, or whether they will renew the squeeze next week, after the weekly bank statement is published.

The transactions at the office of the Assistant Treasurer were: Receipts for Customs, $350,000; for Gold Notes, $100,000; total Receipts, $2,291,859 29; total Payments, $1,584,725 15; Balance, $21,880,656 64.

The Central Pacific Railway Company have received their last subsidy from the Government in the 6 per cent bonds, 30 years to run, of the United States. These bonds are now, relatively, the very cheapest of the public funds of the United States, rating, at present, at 107 per cent and interest. It is true that the interest is paid at present in greenbacks in place of gold, but when greenbacks shall be made equal to gold, as they must be in the course of a few years, these bonds will have nearly 20 years longer to run, interest qualification, at the highest rate of interest paid by our Government, than any other 6 per cent stock. Another consideration is, that these subsidies are now all closed up, the total to all the Pacific Roads being $60,000,000, of which more than 90 per cent have been permanently placed. Indeed, we believe that not over $3,000,000 bonds are now in first hands, of which the Central Company has just received about $1,500,000.

THE MARKETS.

[Carefully reported for THE TRIBUNE.]

FRIDAY, June 11, 1869.

ASHES—The market is firm and moderately active; sales of 10 bbls. at $7 75@$8 for Pots, and $9 25@$10 for Pearls.

BUILDING MATERIALS—We have no new feature to note in articles coming under this heading since our last review, only in Laths; these are a little firmer. Trade generally is dull, and there don't seem to be any disposition to operate either on the part of the buyer or seller.

BEESWAX—There has been a moderate trade in Yellow Western and Southern since our last, but in prices we learn of no essential change; sales of 1,500 ℔ at 40@43c.

BRISTLES are in moderate demand and steady at from 40c.@$2 50 for American Gray and White.

BROOM CORN.—A fair business may be noted in this article; prices being steady at 16@24c. for Red and Green.

BONES—We note further sales of 5 tuns of Rio Grande Skin at $38 37½.

COTTON—Favorable foreign news, a brisk demand, and small supply, still enable sellers to retain the advantage, and at a further advance on the high grades, the market closes very strong; sales of 2,529 bales (135 last evening and 392 to arrive), of which 1,367 were to spinners, 629 to speculators, and 113 to exporters—107 of the latter in transit. Sales also of 156 bales Low Middlings, for June, at 30½c.; 200 do. do., at 24½@25c., and 50 do. do., December, at 24c. We quote as follows:

	Uplands, &c.	Mobile.	New-Orleans.	Texas.
Ordinary	26½	26½	26½	27
Good Ordinary	28½	28½	29	29½
Low Middling	30½	30½	31	31½
Middling	31½	31½	32	32½

COFFEE—Rio is in fair demand from trade and steady, but the market would scarcely bear pressure; we note invoices at 13½@13½c., gold. West India styles are dull, yet in good demand and firmer; sales of 5,000 mats, ex New-Orleans and Borneo, at 24½@25c., gold.

CANDLES are devoid of life, the trade only buying to supply urgent wants; prices are nominal at about 21@22c. for Adamantine; 40c. for Sperm, and 50c. for Patent.

FLOUR AND MEAL—Receipts 13,106 bbls.; the market for Western and State Flour is still somewhat irregular; the business of the day has been only to a moderate extent, and confined chiefly to shippers, especially freshground Flours; these are better, and close firm; we notice some inquiry in them for this and next month's delivery; Medium and Family grades are lower and difficult of sale; the sales are 7,100 bbls. at $4 75@$5 15 for Superfine State; $5 10@$5 25 for Extra do.; $5 30@$5 60 for Fancy do.; $5 70@$6 10 for the low grades of Western Extra; $5 75@$6 25 for Family Extra; $6 30@$7 50 for Western; $6 70@$7 50 for Minnesota and Iowa Extras; $6 65@$8 40 for Shipping Ohio; $6 45@$6 65 for Trade brands, and Family do. at $6 65@$7 40; $6 45@$7 25 for Amber Winter Wheat Extra Indiana and Michigan; $6 50@$7 40 for White Wheat do. do.; $7 60@$8 25 for Family do., and $6 75@$12 for St. Louis Extra and Double Extra. Rye Flour is heavy and unsalable; sales of 150 sacks at $4 50@$5 for Horn, and $3@$3 10 for Isthmus. Southern Flour is very quiet, and most grades can be had on easier terms; sales of 270 bbls. at $6 10@$6 70 for ordinary to good Extra Baltimore and Country; $6 10@$6 90 for Extra Georgia and Virginia; $7@$8 90 for Family do., and $6 10@$12 for Extra and Family Maryland and Delaware. Rye Flour is plenty; the low and medium grades are easier; sales of 340 bbls. at $4@$6 50. Corn Meal is lower, and is freely offered; sales of 300 bbls. at $3@$4 10 for Western, and $4 for Jersey.

FEATHERS—There is but little doing at the moment, prices being much the same: Prime Western, 90@90c., and do. Tennessee, 80@85c.

FISH—Fresh Salmon are coming in demand, sales of 500 boxes Canton at $20@$25. Extra—40 packs.

FLAX.—The demand is fair, the supply small, and prices firm. Sales of ordinary to choice at 14c. to 2½c., the latter rate for the North River. Green Tow is selling at 7½@3½c.; Shipping 5@7½c. cash.

FUR.—The demand for Dry Cod is limited, and holders generally are firm; sales of 2,000 cells, Market-fours to small supply; prices show no change; sales 500 bbls. Herring are dull, and prices are unchanged.
