TOLD BY CORRESPONDENTS

Mrs. Gus McMeekin, Miss Lois Chappell and little Miss Mary Chappell were visitors in Columbia last week.

Rev. J. H. Yarborough, of Chester, was here Monday to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. D. L. Glenn, Sr.

Mrs. W. B. Yarborough spent Tuesday in Columbia where she visited her daughter, Mary, who is a patient at the Columbia Hospital.

Miss Zulie Funderburk left last Friday for her home in Lancaster, where she will spend the holidays.

Cadet Douglass Chappell, of Clemson College, is at home for the holidays.

On account of the rapidity with which a mild form of "flu" was spreading in our midst, it was thought best to close the school last Thursday, not to open again until after the holidays.

Dr. J. E. Douglass, Sr., of Winnsboro, visited our community last week.

LONGTOWN

We are having winter weather earlier this season and it looks today as if we might have snow.

Our road from the Kershaw line to Ridgeway has been freshly mended over and I will have to say, that it is the Longtown portion, as the road has been piled up in the middle in lumps of grass, etc., and not leveled as it should have been, makes you uneasy to go astride of it with a car. The upper portion going into Ridgeway is being put in much better shape.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Stewart are expected home for the Christmas holidays.

Mr. Tom Mellichamp was a recent visitor to Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Smith, but has left for his winter home in Berkeley County.

Mr. D. F. Smith spent the week-end with his folks, he is working near Columbia.

Mrs. J. C. Pickett and her daughter, Isabell from Columbia motored up and spent the day with Mrs. B. F. Mayer.

Miss Gertrude Mayer who has been taking a business course in Palatka, Florida, is home with her parents, for the Christmas holidays.

Mr. W. K. Blake was in our midst last Sunday. We were glad to have him, as he made many friends among us last summer especially the children.

Mrs. B. F. Mayer left Monday to spend a few days in Ridgeway with relatives and attend the Boyd-Wilson wedding.

Mrs. T. H. Wilds expects to leave this week for a visit to RidgeSpring and Trenton, S. C.

WOODWARD

Mrs. Macie Brice had as guests last week the following brothers, Mr. Alex McAliley, of New York, Mr. Sam McAliley, of Abbeville, and Mr. Charlie McAliley, of Chester.

Mrs. J. F. Coleman returned last week from Montgomery Alabama, where she spent several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. George Coleman.

James Brice and William B. Patrick came home Sunday from Erskine College. Erskine has closed for the holidays on account of the "flu" epidemic in Due West.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brice, Miss Bessie Jones and Mr. Sam McLurkin went to Columbia last Tuesday night for "The Passing Show" at the Columbia Theater.

Mrs. A. W. Brice and Miss Eillen Wallace Brice spent the week-end of last week in Ridgeway with Mr. and Mrs. Angus Nicholson and accompanied Mrs. Nicholson to Columbia on Saturday.

Mrs. John Graham and daughter, Miss Rose Graham, of Sebring, Fla., are the guests for the holidays of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Nicholson.

Mrs. Mathew Patrick, of White Oak, made a splendid talk at our school house Wednesday a week ago on Education.

Mr. J. L. Brice attended the meeting of Superintendents of Education which was held in Columbia Tuesday a week ago.

Mrs. Matilda Brice, who has been with Mr. and Mrs. Mike Brice, of Chester, for quite a while, is now vis-iting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Nicholson.

Miss May Weir is visiting Mrs. Laurie Brice and Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Brice.

Miss Eva Nicholson, of Ridgeway, and Miss Lila Graham, who teaches at Limestone, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Nicholson.

Mr. John A. Stewart, of Chester, was here yesterday.

Mrs. J. C. Stewart was hostess to the Catherine Ladd Chapter U. D. C. at the December meeting on the second Friday. Mrs. Stewart, the recently elected president, presided, and the following program was carried out:

Roll Call answered with the names of South Carolina Orators.

Lee at Lexington, Mrs. A. W. Brice. Lee's part in John Brown's Raid, Mrs. Laurie Brice.

Poem—Mrs. Will Reid.
U. D. C. news items—Mrs. T. W. Brice.

During the social hour, Mrs. Stewart assisted by Mrs. A. W. Brice and Mrs. Macie Brice, served angel food cake, cream and coffee.

A PLEA FOR A NEEDY COLORED DEMOCRAT.

Editor of The News and Herald:

At this time when the needy ones should be remembered, I beg to call to the attention of the men in Fairfield who helped to redeem the State in 1876, the case of Sam Davis, a negro who rode with us in that campaign and who made speeches in my hearing. He worked at one time for General Bratton and also for Mr. Ed. P. Mobley. Later he worked in the Greenbrier section. He made a speech at White Oak on one occasion when Tom Mackey was present as one of the speakers. Mackey had seen the "handwriting on the wall" and had "turned over."

The late Ed P. Mobley had organized a ball team at White Oak and they were playing in hearing of the stand from which old Sam was speaking. He paused a moment, and in tones of condemnation exclaimed: "Now look yonder! Here we is trying to save the State for Hampton and the county gwine to hell playing base ball." It is needless to say Sam's speech caused those around him to laugh heartily.

Mr. Editor, old Sam lives near me, is utterly unable to earn anything. He should be remembered. It took a brave negro to ride in the Democratic ranks in those days. If there are those who are disposed to contribute ever so little, just let them hand their gifts to the several banks in Winnsboro; and if the sum is mailed to me I will see that he gets it, for he has become a partner in that firm which Burns describes:

"Age and want,
The ill-matched pair."
Wishing everybody in Fairfield, both white and black, a Merry Christmas,

W. J. Elliott,
304 Palmetto Bank,
Columbia, S. C.

CLERK'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

By virtue of a Decretal order to me directed by his Honor, J. E. Peurifoy, Presiding Judge of the Sixth Circuit, I will sell at public outcry before the Court House at Winnsboro, South Carolina, on Monday, January 1, 1923, between the legal hours of Sale, the following described real estate, to-wit:

1. All that plantation or tract of land, known as the J. E. Stevenson tract, containing one hundred twenty-six (126) acres, more or less, and being the identical tract of land conveyed by J. E. Stevenson unto J. D. Taylor and his wife, Alice Elmina Taylor, in equal shares; that said J. D. Taylor, therefore, owned and undivided one-half interest in said J. E. S' venson tract of one hundred twenty-six (126) acres, more or less, in Fairfield County, while said Alice Taylor, the plaintiff, herein, owns the other undivided one-half interest therein.

2. All that tract of land, in Fairfield County, South Carolina, known as the Coleman, Tract, containing two hundred fifteen (215) acres, more or less, bounded by the Stevenson tract and the Price Tract of J. D. Taylor, by lands of Mrs. Hughey A. Stevenson, by lands of Mrs. Rufus Lumpkin, and others.

3. All that tract of land in Fairfield County, South Carolina, containing one hundred twenty six (126) acres, more or less, bounded by the Public Road leading from Cool Branch to Beaver Creek, opposite which are the Henry Traylor and the Coleman Tract of J. D. Taylor, deceased, and bounded by lands of others.

4. All that tract of land known as the Stephen Crosby Tract, containing three hundred thirty four (334) acres, more or less, lying principally in Fairfield County (though a small part thereof may be in Chester County), South Carolina, bounded by lands of J. D. Boulware, C. G. Boulware, W. T. Boulware, lands now or formerly of O. M. Wishert, and others.

5. All that tract or plantation of land, in Fairfield County, South Carolina, known as the Traylor Place, containing one hundred fifty five (155) acres, more or less, bounded by J. D. Taylor's Price Place and his Stevenson Place, and also by lands of Miss Nannie Kellar, lands of M. C. Stone, lands of Clarence Boulware, and others.

6. All that plantation of land, in Fairfield County, South Carolina, containing three hundred (300) acres, more or less, bounded by estate lands of Hughey A. Stevenson, W. L. Dickerson, Raymond Feaster, et al.

7. That tract or plantation of land, known as the Shurley or Creek Place, containing one hundred thirty seven and one-half (137 1-2) acres, more or less, bounded by estate lands of H. A. Stevenson, lands of Raymond Feaster, the old Wolling Place, et al.

Said lands are to be sold in separate tracts, as herein above described.

Terms of Sale

One-third of the purchase price to be paid in cash and the balance in two equal annual installments at one and two years from date of sale with interest on said deferred installments at the rate of seven per cent per annum until paid in full. The deferred installments shall be secured by the bond or bonds of the purchaser, or purchasers, and a mortgage of the purchased property. Said mortgage shall be executed to the Clerk of Court by the purchaser, or purchasers, and purchaser, or purchasers, shall pay for all papers, including deeds, mortgages, bonds, revenue stamps and recording fees. Any party to the action under which said bonds are ordered to be sold shall have the right to be a purchaser, or purchasers, at said sale. In the event that any purchaser, or purchasers, shall fail to comply with his or their bid within one week from date of sale, I will re-advertise and re-sell the property, the purchase terms of which having not been complied with, on Sales Day in February 1923, after due and legal advertisement, and in the event that the purchase price at said second sale shall fall short of the purchase price at the first sale, then the proper parties shall have the right to recover said deficiency from the defaulting purchaser, or purchasers, by any legal method as they may be advised.

The mortgages to the Clerk of Court shall provide for reasonable attorneys fees for foreclosure thereof, if necessary.

Any purchaser shall have the right to pay all of the purchase price in cash; or shall have the right to pay more than one-third of the purchase price in cash, and in the second instance, the unpaid portion of said purchase price shall be secured by the bond or bonds and by the mortgage or mortgages of the purchaser or purchasers at said sale. Upon the compliance by the purchaser, or purchasers, of said real estate, he or they shall be let into possession of the property so purchased by the Sheriff of the County of Fairfield, if necessary.

The lands above described are sold at the suit of Alice Elmina Taylor, individually and as Executrix of the last will and testament of J. D. Taylor, deceased, against Elizabeth Taylor Turner, Fannie V. Taylor, Minnie Lowry Taylor, et al.
