ladies, with their cavaliers, came down to the spacious dining-room, which, for the occasion, was converted into a ball-room. The music was furnished by the 23d Regiment band. The committee, Messrs. John C. Giles, John Parker, John L. Boggs, John A. Barton, Henry Spear, Fred. Schmidt, J. Wood, jr., G. D. Bayaud, and John T. Baker, gave proofs of admirable tact in management. A fine supper awaited the hungry dancers, and was much enjoyed. On Saturday morning a steamer took the guests to the Fishing Banks for a day of piscatorial amusement. A bal masque is proposed to close the entertainment for this year, to be given in about two weeks.

A SWINDLING "COMMISSION MERCHANT."

On the 2d inst., Henry C. Marston of the Metropolitan Hotel appeared before Justice Dodge, presented a letter of introduction from the Hon. Gunning S Bedford, and made affidavit that about the middle of May Messrs. Berthold & Thompson, wholesale liquor-dealers of St. Louis, Mo., received a note signed Mott Bedell, purporting to be a commission merchant at No. 39 South-st., asking for a sample of their whisky, of which, after testing, their correspondent ordered 25 barrels. It was duly shipped to him, and he was to pay $1,214 55, in two sight drafts, one of $600 and the other of $614 55, drawn by Berthold & Williams on the receiver of the goods. On June 17, when the first draft was presented, payment was refused by the person in charge of the office of the said Bedell, and the draft protested. On search being made for Bedell, at his alleged place of business, it was discovered that, to use the words of the complainant, "he was a perfect fraud," and that the "forwarding and commission business" spoken of in his bombastic notes existed in his imagination alone. The officers were put upon his track, armed with warrants for his arrest, and yesterday Sergeant McDermott of the Jefferson Market Police Court squad secured the swindler, and he was taken before Justice Ledwith. He answered to the name of Mott Bedell, though it is doubtful if that is his real name. He was committed for examination.

FROM NEW-YORK TO NEWBURGH DIRECT—OPENING OF THE NEW RAILROAD.

Trains commenced running yesterday upon the new branch of the Erie Railroad which is to make so much shorter the route from New-York to Newburgh. Newburgh is directly north of New-York, but formerly the Erie Road diverged at Turner's Station and ran in a north-westerly direction to Greycourt, and thence north-east again to Newburgh. The new branch runs almost directly north from Turner's to New-Windsor, just south of Newburgh, forming the base of a triangle of which the old line makes the two sides, and shortening the distance from this city to Newburgh nearly 11 miles, making it 63 miles instead of 74. The branch is 17¾ miles in length, and has been about a year in building. The cost has been $500,000. Two special trains a day—one at 8¼ a. m., and the other at 4¼ p. m., now run over the line, making but a single stop upon the way—at Paterson; and two trains a day will still run upon the old line, connecting with the train from Warwick. A grand celebration is to be had to-morrow at Newburgh over the opening of the branch, consisting of a grand dinner, &c., and a ride over the road.

The first passenger-train passed over the new railroad yesterday morning amid the firing of cannon, waving of flags, and the cheers of the inhabitants along the route.

FALL OF A SCAFFOLD—SEVEN MEN INJURED.

While some workmen were engaged yesterday morning in building a gas tank at the gas works, at Avenue A and Twenty-first-st., the scaffold on which they were standing suddenly gave way, and all were precipitated to the ground. The following were very seriously injured: Thomas Grogan, age 49, residing at No. 308 Avenue A; Patrick McCaffrey, age 36, No. 514 East Fourteenth-st.; Lawrence McGraw, 20, No. 111 Columbia-st.; John Harvey, 36, No. 314 East Twenty-fourth-st.; James Barrett, 40, No. 324 East Fifteenth-st.; Christopher Penfrow, 45, No. 152 Eleventh-st., and James McGlum, 18, Fifteenth-st. and Avenue A. They were all taken to Bellevue Hospital.

NO YELLOW FEVER IN THE CITY.

The report that James McIneer died at No. 113 Canal-st. of yellow fever is not warranted by the facts. Dr. Harris, Sanitary Superintendent, was early apprised of the case, and visited theman, and certifies that the disease of which he died was concerned intermittent fever, and not yellow fever. McIneer was a sailor on board the Henry Johnson from Aspinwall. Dr. Harris asserts that there has been no case of yellow fever in the city this season; therefore there is no ground for public alarm on account of this dreaded distemper. All that has been anywhere in the vicinity has been rigidly confined to Qurantine.

OUT AMONG THE TENEMENT-HOUSES.

The work of inspecting the tenement-houses and reporting on their condition is being vigorously prosecuted by the officers of the Board of Health, under the direction of the Board. The inspectors have been out on their tour now for a considerable period, but when it is considered that there are some 20,000 tenement-houses in the city, it will be understood that to get through them all efficiently, is a work of some time. President Lincoln says that the official report will be out on the 1st of January next. The inspectors are bringing in their reports daily, and the mass of documents to be digested and arranged will be voluminous. The report will be a very ample statement of everything connected with tenement-houses.

DEATH FROM CRUEL TREATMENT.

Mrs. Eliza Aipe died in the Newark Alms-House early yesterday, from the effects, it is supposed, of her husband's cruel treatment. She had, it appeared, led a miserable life with him, having been often cruelly beaten. About five weeks ago he beat her with more than usual atrocity at their house in Rankin-st., and she was subsequently removed to the Alms-House in a helpless condition. Aipe was arrested, but was after a short period discharged, and has now disappeared. Mrs. Aipe, it is stated by the physicians, died of paralysis, but it was also asserted that her condition was the result of her husband's cruelty, and the attention of the County Physician was therefore called. An inquest will be held, when the circumstances will doubtless be more fully explained.

THE EXCISE DEPARTMENT.

The Excise fees for the last month have averaged over $1,000 a day, and the greenbacks still pour in. There is no cessation, no intermission in the work of the department. Whatever other office closes doors at times, this never does. In a space of three years only two business days can be remembered on which no money was received. The busiest months of the year are May and June, and the receipts for these months would make the poorest man rich forever in this life.

EFFECT OF THE HEATED TERM ON THE DEATH RATE.

The weekly mortality record for the week ending Saturday, 21st inst., shows an increase of three in the number of deaths over the preceding week. There has been no increase in the deaths from diarrheal diseases while there has been a decrease in those from cholera infantum. The three additional cases are owing to the direct effect of the late fierce heat on the nervous system.

THE HUMBOLDT CENTENNIAL.

It is desired by the Executive Committee having in charge the arrangements for the Humboldt celebration, that the American and foreign corporations, institutes, societies, &c. in this city and vicinity, wishing to take part in the procession, and other festivities attending it, should communicate with the Secretary, Albert Klamroth, No. 64 St. Mark's-pl.

THE COURTS.

ALLEGED CRUEL TREATMENT AT SEA.

Capt. Sterling, of the American bark Nancy F. Bell, was arrested by Deputy Marshal Greig, on complaint of Arthur Colburn, the steward of the bark, and brought before Commissioner Shields, to answer a charge of having, without any just cause, while on the high seas, on the passage from Montevideo to this port, on the 15th ultimo, cruelly beaten, maltreated, and abused the steward. The captain gave bail for an examination.

ARREST AND DISCHARGE OF CIGAR DEALERS.

Alfred Weiss of No. 84 Avenue C, Sigismund Goldschmidt of No. 95 Avenue C, and G. Zimmerman of No. 150 Avenue C were arrested and brought before Commissioner Betts on the charge of selling cigars otherwise than out of the original boxes. They all admitted their guilt, but pleaded ignorance of the law, and were discharged on payment of costs.

DECISIONS.

SUPERIOR COURT—SPECIAL TERM.—By Judge Chambers.—H. B. Claflin et al. agt. Nelson W. Clark et al.—Motion granted without costs. McDonald agt. Waller—Motion denied with $10 costs; stay of proceedings vacated, with leave to renew of payment of said costs. Townsend agt. Goodyear, jr.—Extra allowance of $25 granted.

CIVIL.

In the Surrogate's Court, before the Hon. Gideon J. Tucker, Surrogate, last week, letters of administration were granted on estates of Herman W. Erenthal, Mary Shemer, Diederich Rohlfs, Anna Blech, Henry T. Capen, Jane E. Cobb, Hugh McAdam, Luke Mullen, Harriet Reed, John C. Bailey, Ann Murphy, John Kotta, Michael Galler, Edward Fields, John Shea, John Aiken, Rosalie Nickel, John Bosman, and Rosalie Werthsimer.

CRIMINAL.

At Jefferson Market Police Court, yesterday, before Justice Ledwith, Thomas L. Dennison, an hostler, was charged by William A. Wheeler of No. 37 West Twenty-ninth-st., with having stolen a double set of harness, a suit of livery, &c., of the value of $125. The complainant left the articles in the prisoner's care, at the Eagle Club Stable, Thirtieth-st. and Sixth-ave., and when he returned the property was missing. The accused was held in default of $1,000 bail.... Thomas Clark, a Philadelphian, was charged by Frederick Benson with having feloniously assaulted her yesterday morning. He stabbed her in the face, slitting her nose, for all of which he was committed to answer.... Michael Buckley, a cabinet-maker, was held to answer for having stolen a case of wine and some bronze ornaments of the value of $100, from James W. Hickey of Nos. 40 and 42 East Eighteenth-st., the prisoner's employer, with whom the articles were left on storage.... William Thompson, for an indecent assault upon Susan Degrusley, a child 7 years old, was committed, failing to procure $1,500 bail.

At the Tombs Police Court, yesterday, before Justice Hogan, was brought James S. Buckingham, keeper of a small restaurant between Piers Nos. 3 and 4 East River, for having stabbed John Roche in the arm with a carving-knife. Roche had, in a spirit of malicious mischief, upset a soup-kettle in the restaurant, which so enraged Buckingham that he committed the assault. He admitted his guilt, and was committed.... On July 25 Howard E. Smith of No. 202 Bridge-st., Brooklyn, left his truck and horses, valued at $500, standing on the street for a short time, and when he returned all had disappeared. The team was subsequently found in the possession of Pierre Lapense, who had purchased it from one Frederick Peters. Yesterday Peters was taken into custody by Officer Anderson of the Fourth Precinct. The accused, who lives at No. 173 Broome-st., and is a laborer, was committed.... Henry Bissing of No. 69 Ludlow-st. yesterday caused the arrest of Charles Lewis, a German waiter, by Officer Phelps of the Broadway Squad, for having, several days ago, stolen from him, while at a hotel at Sharon Springs, a silver watch, some clothing, and $16, amounting altogether to $80. The accused admitted his guilt, and was committed for trial.
