Ammonds, Gen. M. S. Littlefield, A. T. Davidson, Joe. Keener, the Hon. A. H. Jones.

BANKING AND FINANCIAL.

The business of the Central Pacific Railroad compares with that of the Illinois Central Railroad as follows:

	Miles in oper'n.	Locomotives.	Pass'r cars.	Earnings—May 1 to Oct. 1.	Ratio of exp.	Lands unsold.
Ill. Cen.	708	170	96	$3,753,130 (cur'y)	64	536,000
Cen. Pacific	690	172	101	2,812,705 (gold) / 3,656,816 (cur'y)	55	7,200,000

Thus, it will be seen the results of the Central Pacific, actually during the first year of its operation, are equally gratifying with those of the Illinois Central Railroad, after 12 years. Their respective obligations are quoted to-day:

ILLINOIS CENTRAL 7 per cent currency Construction Bonds...119

CENTRAL PACIFIC 6 per cent, gold, 1st Mortgage..... 93½

The two causes, which, in great part, have given the high standing to the securities of the Illinois Central Co., on both sides of the Atlantic (large surplus earnings, with the proceeds of land sales, which together have been invested in their own bonds), are the same which must hereafter give great prominence to those of the Central Pacific. The honorable and judicious management of the Central Pacific Co., together with the great value of their property, entitle their Securities to the fullest confidence.

We are prepared to buy and sell the Securities of the Central Pacific Railroad Company at the current market rates.
