THE COURTS.

SUPREME COURT—ONEIDA COUNTY.

Before Justice Bacon.—A Libel Suit against The Telegram—Salem Glenn arrested.—Paul Gerard agt. Douglas A. Levan, James Gordon Bennett, jr., Salem Glenn, and John Doe.—There was some notice, about a month ago, of a gentleman connected with diplomatic circles in Washington visiting a theater there with a lady in whose veins there was colored blood. From the general tone of the correspondence it appeared that the affair had created considerable excitement in Washington. The Telegram, in its correspondence, went somewhat beyond the telegraphic correspondence. In its letter dated October 24 it named the parties as Mons. Paul and Mlle. Belle, stating that the lady, though an octoroon, deserved the name, and was highly connected among people of her own color. It intimated that the young lady was not acknowledged by her connections, "whether it is because she is more frail than fair, or not," it then goes on to state that Paul is a member of a legation "latterly not famous for its virtue," and intimates that Paul visited her under cover of visiting his blanche cousin. A later letter, dated October 26, says: "I have discovered there were some errors; the Don Juanic young diplomat is a Frenchman, but not of the French Legation; his name is remarkably like that of one of the attaches of the French Legation. Mons. Paul —— is brother-in-law of one of the Ministers representing a leading court in Europe, it seems that the young diplomat has not been remarkable for good behavior. In Paris he rushed things in the fastest style, and to get him out of a disreputable intrigue in that city he was hurried off here for a reformation. Fancy a fast young Parisian sent to Washington to reform. Instead of doing better Paul got into worse scrapes, and finally wound up his career with the ridiculous escapade described in my former letter," &c., &c. Mr. Paul Gerard avows that he is the person described as Paul. He is the brother-in-law of Miguel Matins d'Autans, the Portuguese Minister; he was thought to be by many an attaché of a foreign legation, and was often mistaken for an attaché of the French Legation; he is a native of France and has lived in Paris; Maria Bareka Warmley, resident in Washington, partly of colored blood, a niece of a well-known restaurateur, &c., is his affianced bride, and that he has been accustomed to visit her in her parents' house and did accompany her to the theater; that the whole story was plainly intended to apply to him and Miss Warmley and intended to bring him and herself into ridicule and disgrace; that he did not lead a fast or immoral life in Paris, and was not hurried to Washington to get rid of a disgraceful intrigue; that he and Miss Warmley were not treated by any portion of the Washington audience, and that all insinuations against the lady, or against the morality of his relations with her, are false and untrue; he therefore brings suit for $50,000 against the proprietors of The Telegram, and against his unknown libeler, by the name of John Doe. Judge Bacon has granted an order of arrest against the defendants, and under it Mr. Glenn has been arrested, and has given bail. Henry Wehle, plaintiff's attorney.

The Grand Jury and the Gold Matters.—The Grand Jury have made a presentment in the gold-corner matters, and have requested that a portion of the testimony taken before them may be published. The District-Attorney will shortly furnish such portions as are proper for publication.

UNITED STATES COMMISSIONERS' OFFICE.

An Alleged Smuggler.—On complaint of Augustus E. Tate, Thompson Jefferson, the purser of the steamship Helvetia, was brought before Commissioner Shields, on Saturday, charged with having, at various times during 1869, and, particularly, on the 15th inst., smuggled into this port two diamond rings, one lace shawl, one watch, and various other articles. He gave bail for an examination.

Resisting a Deputy Marshal.—Douglas A. Park, a pilot in charge of the steamtug W. S. Earl, was arrested and brought before Commissioner Shields, on a charge of having prevented U. S. Deputy Marshal J. S. Smith from seizing and retaining possession of that vessel. Smith says that Park, on whom he served a motion against the vessel, swore at him and said he cared nothing for the papers, and, in disobedience of his (Smith's) orders, ran the vessel over to Jersey City. Park was let go on his own recognizance to appear for an examination on Wednesday.

Alleged Heavy Frauds by a Bankrupt.—Ramon S. Latorre, who has laid in Ludlow-st. Jail about two years, by virtue of an order of arrest issued in a civil suit in a State Court, was brought before Commissioner Betts on Saturday, charged with having, while insolvent and in contemplation of bankruptcy, surreptitiously disposed of about $100,000 worth of goods, for the purpose of defrauding his creditors. He was held in $20,000 bail for an examination.

The Custom-House Pay-Roll Fraud.—In the case of Frank Webb, who was charged before Commissioner Shields with complicity in the frauds relating to the Custom-House pay-rolls in Gen. Egan's district, the motion made to dismiss on the evidence for the Government has been denied, the defense has declined to put in any testimony, and Webb has been held to await the action of the Grand Jury.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.

The Test Lottery Case.—Assistant District-Attorney Jackson came into the U. S. Circuit Court, on Saturday, prepared to argue the motions raised in the case of Frederick Bauer, a lottery dealer, but the argument, by mutual consent, was adjourned to Wednesday next. This is a test case, involving the liability of policy-shop clerks to be prosecuted and punished for selling lottery and policy tickets in cases where no special tax has been paid, it being contended on their behalf that they cannot be legally considered as "concerned or engaged in the business of lottery dealing."

The Drawback Frauds.—The report that additional persons, including Samuel T. Blatchford, have been indicted by the Grand Jury of the U. S. Circuit Court, is either premature or false. The Grand Jury have not presented any indictments since the early part of the present session of the U. S. Circuit Court, nor will they until Wednesday next, when it is believed some twelve or fifteen will be presented. The fact that indictments against particular parties have been found by the Grand Jury does not become public property until the formal presentation of the indictments in Court is made, and the indictments have been filed with the Clerk of the Court, and not even then, if the persons indicted are still at large. The law prohibiting the publishing of the proceedings of the Grand Jury until they are properly communicated for that purpose by the authorized officials, is quite stringent in its provisions, and the members of the Grand Jury, and those having cognizance of their proceedings, seldom or never communicate the nature of these proceedings to outside persons. The reports that Mr. Samuel T. Blatchford was seen in Nassau-st. on Friday, and that he had been arrested, are, undoubtedly, untrue. It is certain that he was not arrested, and it is not believed that he would expose himself to arrest, even if he is in the city, by walking in a neighborhood where he is so well known.

SUPERIOR COURT—SPECIAL TERM.

Before Justice Jones.—James Ward by Guardian, &c., agt. Gratz Wall.—This case comes up on motion to open a judgment taken against the defendant for malpractice in the treatment of an injury to the arm of the plaintiff, a boy of some six years. His friends claim that the malfreatment of a slight injury to the boy's arm nearly lost him his life. They further say that the default suffered by the doctor arose from an effort on his part to settle with a third party who had no right to settle for the boy. The doctor strenuously denies the plaintiffs' allegations and insists on a trial. The Court granted the motion with $10 costs, the judgment to stand as security.

Letitia Jackson by Guardian agt. James Fisk, jr.—The plaintiff was ballet dancer at the Academy of Music in the opera of Lurline, and fell by some mischance through a door during a rehearsal injuring herself severely. She thereupon commenced suit against Mr. Fisk and the matter came up on an examination of Mr. Fisk before trial. It appears from this examination that Mr. Fisk was not interested in the Academy of Music, but had advanced money to Max Maretzek to aid him, for which Maretzek was to pay him a share of the profits, if any, otherwise merely the principal. It was also testified that Mr. Fisk while denying any liability, had offered to give the girl $150 on account of her misfortune. Mr. T. Bisgood for plaintiff, Mr. H. Morgan for defendant.

COMMON PLEAS—SPECIAL TERM.

Before Judge Brady.—Anna A. Jones agt. Caroline Diedrich and Levy Cohn.—This complaint sets out that the plaintiff and her husband, being hair-dressers in Rivington-st., employed Miss Diedrich as shop-girl and assistant; that she shortly after her employment commenced proceedings against plaintiff's husband for an indecent assault, and obtained an order for his arrest; that plaintiff, to keep her husband from going to prison, executed a chattel mortgage on her furniture after being assured by Mr. Cohen, the defendant's attorney, that this alone would protect him; that this was the only object in her for making the mortgage; that she has since been informed that the whole was a sham to intimidate her. The present suit is brought to restrain the sale of her furniture under a threatened foreclosure of the chattel mortgage, and the motion is for a preliminary injunction until the suit is tried. Judge Brady has granted the preliminary injunction.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—IN BANKRUPTCY.

Creditors' Claims Rejected.—Judge Blatchford has rendered a decision in the matter of Robert Lathrop and others, composing the firm of Lathrop, Cady & Burtis, bankrupts. In this case Augustus M. Morgan and George G. Clark, claiming to be creditors of the bankrupts for small amounts, petitioned to have the claims of Cyrus D. Prescott, which had been filed against the bankrupts to the amount of $68,000, disallowed. The Court, on examining the claims of all the three persons, has disallowed them all, as illegally made; and finding that those of Prescott were the claims which he had purchased from creditors of the bankrupts, at the instance of the latter, the matter has been sent to a referee to take testimony, and report what other claims filed by Prescott or others should be disallowed.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.

The Bliss Indictment.—In the matter of the motion to quash the indictment against John S. Bliss, for defrauding John S. Harvey, a discharged Union soldier, out of $100 extra bounty money, Judge Benedict has granted the motion, holding that the indictment is not sufficiently specific, as it does not state that Harvey was a volunteer in the United States Army, does not give the number of his regiment or company, nor state whether he was entitled to receive extra bounty money.

SURROGATE'S COURT—NEW-YORK COUNTY.

Wills were admitted to probate during the past week of William J. Peck, George Leggett, Hugh McAdams, Jane Underwood, Margaret Gale, Martin Andrews Thomas Cock, Martin Lalor, John Rea, Sarah T. Bierman.

CRIMINAL.

At the Tombs Police Court, yesterday, before Justice Hogan, was brought John Blendeau, who had assaulted Fanny Kirkpatrick in Mulberry-st., on Saturday night, and stabbed her in the breast, causing a severe wound. The accused, who is a French shoemaker, living in Mulberry-st., was committed to the Tombs to await a trial. The complainant was sent to the House of Detention.... Michael Sullivan was committed for having struck John Cowan of No. 8 Dover-st. on the head, with a cumbler, during a brawl in a Fourth Ward saloon on Saturday night.... On Friday night the liquor store of Edward Henry, No. 472 Pearl-st., was entered by cutting a panel out of the rear shutter, and forcing open the window. A quantity of small coins and currency, of the value of $6, were stolen. On Saturday evening George Clark, a boatman, was found in possession of a pocket-book which was stolen at the same time, and he was taken into custody and committed.... James Reynolds, in the employ of Messrs. Schuyler, Hartley & Graham, at No. 41 Broadway, on Saturday evening detected John McGuinness in the act of stealing two pistols, of the value of $24. The thief was committed.

REAL ESTATE.

NEW-YORK, Saturday, Nov. 20, 1869.

On Monday, Messrs. Johnson & Miller will sell on the premises, at Upper Rahway, a brewery, dwelling-house, and 100 lots. On Tuesday, Messrs. A. D. Mellick jr. & Bro. will sell, on the premises, at Westfield, N. J., the well-known Dudley Park property, consisting of 180 villa plots. Messrs. A. J. Bleecker, Son & Co. advertise to sell both improved and unimproved property, at the Exchange, on Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. William H. Raynor reports the sale of 10 lots on the south side of One-hundred-and-fourteenth-st., 75 feet from the Sixth-ave., and 114 feet from Avenue St. Nicholas, at $3,600 each. These lots, it is reported, were sold by some broker 60 days ago at $2,850, and last Winter at $2,300. The latest sale was for all cash, except that one lot was taken in payment at about a cash price. Also, of a lot on the north side of Seventy-sixth-st., between Madison and Fifth-aves., 25x102.2, for $12,800.

From The Edgefield (S. C.) Advertiser we learn that on Tuesday, the 9th instant, the sale of the landed estate of the late Dr. James F. Adams took place. The lands, amounting to 3,000 acres, lie in the immediate neighborhood of Antioch Church. They were divided into 12 tracts, and sold for an average of $7 92 per acre. The aggregate of the sale of these lands reached $29,060. This, with a sale of cotton since Dr. A's. death, amounting to some $15,000, and ample provision for his widow, sum up, for these days, says The Advertiser, a very large estate.

All who have real estate for sale or to let, and those desiring to purchase or rent such property will find it to their interest to advertise in THE TRIBUNE. Its aggregate circulation exceeds that of any other newspaper, and in addition to this advantage THE TRIBUNE will be found, not only in New-York and all its cities and villages, but in every State and Territory throughout the Union. The advertisement should be as brief as will allow of the advantages claimed, being made clear to the reader. We would especially dwell on the fact that the subscribers for the three editions of THE TRIBUNE, Daily, Semi Weekly, and Weekly, comprise individuals in every business profession; consequently advertisements in each are read by all classes. THE TRIBUNE devotes especial attention to reports of sales of real estate both in city and country, thus adding greatly to the value of its columns as an advertising medium. The charges for advertising are as follows: DAILY TRIBUNE, 25 cents per line for each insertion. WEEKLY TRIBUNE, 25 per line: SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE, 25 cents per line. About ten words of our wide columns average a line. Terms, cash in advance.
