that medium cattle brought a little more money. Butchers were unwilling to go above 16½c. for choice fat cattle, save in one or two rare instances when 17c. was paid for the first pick. Nor could bulls or thin Texans be advanced. They were sold all the way from $17 for year-lings up to $50 for full-grown cattle. A drove of Jersey meadow-fed Illinois cattle, big enough, but poorer than they were large, sold on Friday at $30 per head for further feeding. Texans continued to pour in, the record showing 1,631 for the week.

VEAL CALVES—These are doing still better, some of the fat Jersey and near-by State milk calves selling at 12c. There is an increase on the numbers offered this day week, and a number of cars are likely to go over until to-morrow. SWINE—The 13,619 for the week show continued light arrivals, and there is no prospect of an increase. There were 4,931 head for yesterday and to-day—21 cars at Communipaw, 19 at Weehawken, and 2½ at Fortieth-st. They are still quoted at 12@12½c. net, with an occasional small lot of very light at 12½c. Hogs are generally running too heavy to suit the present trade. Sales of Communipaw dressed, during the week, 2,199 by S. W. Allerton & Co., 174 lb., at 12@12½c.; 875 by M. H. Gillett, 163 lb., hence better suited to the trade, at $12 26 per cwt.

PRESIDENT'S OFFICE, OIL CREEK AND ALLEGHANY RIVER RAILWAY COMPANY, Warren and Franklin, Farmers and Oil Creek Railroads, Consolidated. 230 Walnut-st., Philadelphia, May 17, 1870.

SIR: I have just perused the report of Franklin Wight, esq., who (at my suggestion) has made an examination of your road from Dunkirk to Warren, and from my long acquaintance with him as well as my personal familiarity with a portion of the country traversed by your road, its interests connections, &c., I feel free to say that you may have perfect confidence in his statement. That your road when completed will command a business fully equal to your anticipations, I do not for a moment permit myself to doubt. As our road will be intimately connected with yours we shall look forward to its completion with deep interest; as we shall doubtless be among your best customers in the trade furnished from or over our road. Very respectfully, EDWIN F. GAY, President.

O. C. and A. Railroad.

Grading is nearly completed, a large portion of the ties are on the road, rolling stock all purchased, iron is now being shipped, and the road expected to be complete during the year.

We have made examinations, and have had thorough reports made to us, and have no hesitation in recommending the bonds as a perfectly safe investment.
