IOWA.

DESMOINES, Iowa, Oct. 17.—Seventy-three counties give a Republican majority of 34,779. The remaining counties will increase it about 3,000.

MARYLAND.

In view of the coming election for members of Congress in Maryland, the following tables, showing the vote polled by both parties in each Congressional District in 1868, to which is added the registration of 1870, will be found of interest to the readers of THE TRIBUNE:

TAMPERING WITH THE REGISTRY LISTS.

From all sections of the State, says The Baltimore American, there is complaint that the Registers are tampering with the lists of voters, and striking names therefrom without the least shadow of right or authority to do so. The voters thus disfranchised are nearly all colored men. In eight of the ten districts of Prince George's County 270 names have been stricken from the lists. The Annapolis Gazette complains that 21 names have been treated in the same manner by the Register at Annapolis. The Hon. James A. Gary, who has a residence in Howard County, and pays $2,000 taxes there, has had his name stricken from the list of voters, because during the winter months his family live in Baltimore. The Freeman's Journal of Chestertown states that the names of over 200 colored men have been dropped from the Kent County lists. The Journal says:

We were long ago satisfied that the Democracy of Kent County had bonded themselves together with the intention of perpetrating the most villainous frauds upon the Republicans at the next election. They know that unless they prevent the colored men from being registered that the Democracy will be badly beaten. They also know that to be rather here in Kent County this Fall will be the death blow to bogus aristocracy. Hence they have determined to make a last desperate effort to retain their supremacy. The Registers have been acted on by committees and the pressure of the whole party has been applied to force them to commit these frauds. We believe some of the Registrars would have acted fairly if they had been left to themselves, but have succumbed to the influence brought to bear upon them. On the days of registration they dropped from their lists a number of voters who are beyond question entitled to be registered. If an applicant was born out of the State, no matter if his appearance indicated that he was 30 years of age, and although he might swear to the fact, yet the Register demanded a record of his age or proof from some one who knew his age. Of course this evidence could not always be obtained, and the applicant was turned down. But still the Democrats found that there were more than enough Republican votes left to defeat them. Then the Registers were taken in tow by the Democratic committees and the books were again overhauled, and a large number of names dropped from the lists. This altered and mutilated list was then given to The Kent News to publish as the list of qualified voters. In the meantime the Registers, at night, quietly and secretly added to the list every boy that the Democracy could find willing to vote for them. They sent all the way to St. Louis for one voter. A young man who was accidentally born in Kent County, but who had left it to make his home in Missouri, was sent for and registered in the night. In their anxiety to serve their party the Registers have committed such glaring frauds that there will be no difficulty in convicting them for violating the election laws of Congress.

The Republicans of Maryland are holding large and enthusiastic meetings throughout the State, and hope to give a good account of themselves in November next, in spite of the frauds perpetrated by the Democracy upon the elective franchise.

The Richmond, Va., Conservative Executive Committee has issued an address calling upon all voters to engage in and abide by the election ordered for the 8th of November. The present incumbents will appeal to the Supreme Court to prohibit the election.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Young Mr. John Quincy Adams thus facetiously accepts the Democratic nomination for Governor of Massachusetts:

QUINCY, Oct. 13, 1870.

Hon. JAMES M. KEITH, President of the Convention:

DEAR SIR: Presuming that my declared desire to withdraw from the candidacy would have insured the dismissal of my name from the minds of the Convention at Fitchburg, the nomination announced by you in your favor of this date, which I have the honor to acknowledge, was some-what anticipated by me.

Differing in that respect from my eloquent competitor, I have for three years past wished to be Governor of Massachusetts very much, but having failed to discover the reciprocity of sentiment among a majority of my fellow-citizens, which is so desirable in such cases, I thought it would be wise for the Democracy to select a more attractive candidate.

But the Convention having apparently detected a value in my services which had escaped my observation, it would be arrogating an absurd importance to my individual preferences to persist in an obstinate and ungracious refusal of so small a sacrifice, to a body of citizens from whom I have accepted such flattering favors.

I therefore cordially undertake the duty imposed. The only real claim of the Republican party of late, to public confidence, is by a parade of trophies, without head or system, or principles; it is held together only by the bond of victory—corruption. Its system of taxation is the most burdensome and the least democratic in the world; its currency is the robbery of the poor, while its vaunted reduction of the debt has only been accomplished by a cruel taxation, which doubles the burden by taking $2 from the people for each dollar paid to the public creditor.

The scheme of impost is deliberately and craftily organized in the interests of associated capital alone, and is as certainly, if not as palpably, a violation of the principle of equal democratic government as was the despotic policy of the same party by which 200,000,000 acres of the people's homestead lands have been given away to railroad corporations.

This cunningly devised scheme will take $300,000,000 or $400,000,000 from the people and pay it over to the capitalists who own your mines and mills and furnaces and salt works, to alleviate their unprofitable labors, no certainty as if the tax was openly levied and the bounty avowedly paid. Under the same system our cotton producers of the South, our sugar planters and raisers of rice, and the farming land of New-England no longer fetches the cost of the buildings upon it. And that its conspicuous merit in affording protection to the American workman from the pauper labor of Europe may be apparent to the meanest capacity, almost the only article which it admits duty free is an unlimited supply of cheap Chinese, imported in one to suit capitalists.

The Democracy, on the contrary, accepting the past and frankly recurring to the principles of Jefferson, hold out the hand to all who long for reform and press forward to redeem the future. To that end they call on all men who wish for a moderate and equal tariff, conceived in no interest less universal than that of the whole people—on all who know that a depreciated currency is a curse to every one, but after partition to the poor, and on those men who see how corruption is sapping the foundations of the Government, to maintain by their votes the true Democratic measures of Low Money, a Revenue Tariff, and a radical reduction and reform in the Civil Service.

In State affairs the success of the Democracy would mean the absolute cessation or grants of public funds or credit to local or partial ends. The words begotten who infest the State House would no longer doubt whether the Treasurer can be screwed up to furnish their plans of plunder. Democratic economy will not mean a crowded lobby and a swelling debt.

Special legislation shall no longer drag out the sessions of your Legislature in Midsummer, and the Democracy dare trust the people to pay their food and drink unassisted by an odious and expensive corps of informers.

Above all, Sir, the Democracy intend to try for a new Union, under what a Radical Senator of the United States has called that "decayed and worm-eaten bequest of the bitters of the Revolution, the Constitution of the United States." And in this the Democratic party, at least, will not utterly forget that a government, no matter what title it may assume, is truly democratic only in as far as the guiding will of most provides the free developments of each in every attribute of independent manhood.

Very truly, your obedient servant, JOHN Q. ADAMS.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Senator Conkling made an elaborate address on political affairs to a great meeting of Republicans in Saratoga last evening.

The colored voters of Trenton, N. J., have resolved to "vote the Republican ticket for Congress and local offices, straight, without scratching."

The Hon. T. A. Alberger and James E. Thompson have been nominated by the Republicans of Erie County for Assembly from the IInd and IIId Districts.

It has been officially announced that Ulysses Mercur, Republican, has been reelected to Congress from the XIIIth District of Pennsylvania by 113 majority over Charles B. Brockway, Dem.

An error crept into THE TRIBUNE yesterday, in the article headed "Registration." The Act of April 28, 1870, "respecting Elections," &c., repeals all laws requiring registration as a condition precedent to voting throughout the State, with the exception of the City and County of New-York.

The first Congressional Republican Convention at Jamaica, Long Island, nominated Mr. C. C. Norvell of New-Brighton, well known as the financial editor of The Times, for Congress by acclamation. Mr. Norvell has accepted the nomination, and, although the district has been counted against us, not without reason, is thought to be able to carry it.

A dispatch from Williamsport, Pa., states that Henry Sherwood, Dem., is elected to Congress in the XVIIIth District (Center, Clinton, Lycoming, Potter, and Tioga Counties) by 21 majority. A dispatch from Danville to The Philadelphia Inquirer concerning the XIIIth Congressional District says: "Our election is very close, and we are in a great deal of doubt as to the result. The majority, as now figured, is only 15 for Mercur, Rep. The official return may change it. Brockway's friends claim the victory." A Harrisburg dispatch to The Philadelphia Press states that the reflection of John Cessna, Rep., to Congress, from the XVIth District, is regarded as reliable, but adds that the majority is close, and that there will probably be a case of contested election there. Myers, Dem., claims the election by 15 majority.

LOCAL POLITICS.

APPOINTMENT OF ELECTION INSPECTORS.

All day yesterday the new United States Commissioner, Mr. John I. Davenport, was busily engaged swearing in persons to act as Inspectors of Elections in November next. During the morning the Commissioner disposed of business in his own room, but adjourned in the afternoon to the Circuit Court, which was speedily crowded with applicants for appointment. The halls and lobbies of the Federal building were densely crowded all day, and locomotion through the passages of the building was extremely difficult. The law provides that two Inspectors shall be appointed to each district, thus requiring 774 in the 387 districts in the city. The Commissioner, early in the evening, had to enlist the assistance of Commissioners Shields, Willis, and Stillwell, and the last applicant was not sent away until a late hour last night.

After the Inspectors had been sworn and received their certificates of appointment, they were ordered to report to Marshal Sharpe, who supplied them with a memorandum-book containing instructions in their duties. The Democratic Inspectors were sworn in last night.

FOURTH CONGRESS DISTRICT—DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

The only Congress District for which the Tammany slate is not yet fixed is the IVth—John Fox's. There are two candidates for Mr. Tweed's nomination—Mr. Robert B. Roosevelt of The Citizen, who now has the preference, and Gen. McMahon, who is understood to command a strong party in the District. The probability that the Young Democracy will run John Fox is the chief complication in the case. If Mr. Fox gets the nomination, probably McMahon will be set up against him.

The Republicans of the VIth Assembly District of Hudson County, N. J., last night nominated Josiah J. Hornblower.

The Tammany Hall Democratic primaries were also held last night, for the selection of delegates to Congressional, County, Assembly District, and School Conventions.

Charles Arrowsmith of Passaic is the Democratic nominee for the Legislature from the 1st District of Morris County, N. J., and the Hon. Ferdinand Blancke for the 1st District of Essex County.

Republican Primaries were held in Kings County last evening, and delegates elected to attend the Congressional, Assembly, and County Conventions, to be held on the 18th, 19th, and 20th inst.

The Young Democracy of the Vth Assembly District of New-Jersey held a mass-meeting last night in Newark. Frederick G. Wolbert of Hudson County, Eneas Fitzpatrick, and others addressed the meeting. Resolutions were passed renouncing Orestes Cleveland.

The Democrats of Hudson County, N. J., had a ratification meeting in the Catholic Institute last night. Speeches were made by the Hon. Orestes Cleveland, the Hon. Robert Gilchrist, and others. Mayor O'Neill presided.

The XVIth Assembly District Republicans met last evening at the close of the primary election at No. 131 Third-ave. There was a large attendance. Capt. Cregan called the meeting to order, and spoke of the arbitrary conduct of the police, who, he charged, evidently acted under instructions, and permitted only those to vote who were in sympathy with a Republican defeat in this county at the next election. A Woodford and Kaufmann Campaign Club was then formed, and Isaac H. Bailey was chosen President. The meeting was closed with cheers for President Grant, Collector Murphy, and Postmaster Jones.

The New Tammany Hall Democratic Reform and Benevolent and Protective Mutual Alliance Association General Committee, Jacob Cohen, Chairman, met at Masonic Hall last evening, and made the following nominations: "For Sheriff of the Second Ward, William Vonderwulbeke; for County Clerk of the Seventeenth Ward, Charles Schneider; for Coroners of the Nineteenth Ward, Jacob Cohen and Michael Delmadge; for Coroner of the Twenty-first Ward, Richard Croker." Mr. Cohen thought that, inasmuch as Messrs. Delmadge and Croker had not contributed anything to the support of the new party, they were not entitled to the honor of a nomination, and accordingly ordered their names stricken off.

PERSONAL.

Thomas Hughes, M. P., will lecture before the Mercantile Library Association, at Cooper Institute, on Friday evening. His subject will be announced to-morrow. He sails for England on Saturday.

"John Paul" will hereafter be more careful of his wit; and there is reason to fear that newspapers and the public will be defrauded by his reserving it for home consumption. The recent marriage announcement, "Charles H. Webb and Miss Lizzie Shipman," was not the most encouraging bit of news for lovers—of "John Paul" in the newspapers.

Miss O. Bousson of this city will send two additional boxes of articles collected for the French wounded soldiers to France by the steamer St. Laurent to-morrow.

REPUBLICAN PRIMARIES.

SCENES AT THE POLLING-PLACES—DOUBLE DELEGATIONS IN MANY DISTRICTS.

The Republican primaries to elect candidates to County, Congressional, Assembly, and School Conventions met last evening, and owing to the nature of the proceedings at the General Committee on Saturday evening, possessed unusual interest. Great bitterness of feeling was manifested at the majority of the meetings.

In the 1st Assembly District Col. Burns, a Murphy man, protested against the manner of holding the election, and taking about 25 persons with him, went elsewhere to elect delegates. The meeting in the 1st Assembly District was a very crowded one.

In the IId Assembly District a similar split took place. The Murphy party, however, came out triumphant.

In the IVth there was only one ticket, which was carried without opposition. There was an immense crowd at the polling place.

In the VIIth District only one ticket was put in nomination. Owen W. Brennan, brother of the probable Democratic candidate for Sheriff, appeared as one of the delegates. Affairs passed off quietly.

In the VIIIth District there were two tickets. A drunken man entered and brandished the irregular ticket. There seemed a strong probability of a row, but the police interfered, and the intruder was expelled.

In the IXth District the entrance to the hall was locked up. As no admission could be obtained a crowd assembled outside, and charges were freely made among them that Sinclair Tousey must be in the pay of Tammany Hall.

In the XIVth Assembly District one ticket was run, and was said to be in the interest of Collector Murphy. In the XVIth District there was a regular ticket headed by M. Cregan, who, according to the statement of the Inspector, had only 17 votes; and the anti-Murphy ticket, headed by Wm. Atkinson, who, according to the inspectors, received 297 votes.

In the XVIIIth Assembly District the police at an early hour in the evening formed in force, under the command of Capt. Cheney of the Twenty-first Precinct. The police ordered the people to stand 20 feet from the ballot-box. Collector Murphy, Gen. Chester Arthur, and others objected. The police said they were acting under orders, and would, if necessary, use force. The voting began, and Gen. Arthur presented a printed roll of names of Republicans of the district. This list included only 280 names, yet there were over 500 votes polled. The inspectors were accused of tampering with the ballots.

In the XIXth District there were two tickets, a Murphy and an opposition ticket.

In the XXth District Capt. Gunner and a patrol of policemen appeared at an early hour with a ballot-box and took possession of the hall. No man was admitted who could not show a yellow ticket inscribed with the name of "Victory!" Mr. James Jackson, President, protested against this as an outrage, and said that the Republican party had been defrauded out of over 200 votes.

The following are the results of the election:
