SIXTH WARD BURGLARS ARRESTED.

Three burglars opened the lager beer saloon in the basement of No. 85 White-st. on Saturday evening with a skeleton key, and proceeded to break into the gold pen manufactory of John H. Ranch on the rear first floor above. They were seen to enter by Officer McGuire, who called several other officers to his aid and guarded the building, front and rear. Two of the thieves, on finding they were discovered, attempted to escape by the front door but were seized by Officers McGuire and Hisch and overpowered after a hard fight. The remaining thief escaped. The prisoners, who gave the names of Patrick Kelly and Joseph Heinman, were locked up in the Franklin-st. Police Station. In the building were found a number of wedges, screw drivers, "jimmies," dark lanterns, and other burglar's tools. Yesterday the prisoners were committed by Justice Hogan to await an examination.
