CHEESE.

Receipts for the week, 5,269 boxes, or 11,172 less than last week. Corresponding week last year, 12,724 boxes. Reports the past week, 7,226. Corresponding week last year, 15,028 boxes. Cable, 64s, gold, 108d. The market here does not respond to the cable advance of 2s in Liverpool. Gold recedes as the cable advances, and it is even more difficult to realize outside quotations than it was one week ago. While many of the larger stocks of fine cheese are held at 14c. or about ¼c. higher than English shippers will give, dealers in west of money occasionally move a factory, accepting 13@13½c. One such, numbering 200 boxes strictly fine, was sold at 13½c., with 300 at 13½c. When jobbed out, 13½c. and 14c. are charged. Trade is very quiet. The light jobbed out. 13½c. and 14c. are charged. Trade is very quick. The light receipts are partly owing to the very cold weather, which made it unsafe to move cheese. Many of the late shipments were poor cheese, with a few late Canadian shipped through this port in bond. We quote:

Arrivals are moderate, and as the demand limited eggs are offered more freely, and prices are rather easier. Many eggs which were out during the very cold weather of last week are quite frosted. POULTRY AND GAME.

There is an immense stock of frozen poultry in the city, most of it arriving after the Christmas fairly over. The dealers have been badly behind in getting stock through. We have books and letters enough now on hand to carry us past the holidays. Some large lots have sold at Boston. There were some of Christmas call for young turkeys and fine geese. It has snowed in every turkey to bring the to-day. Two cars buffalo meat have arrived during the week. It is now offering at reduced figures, with a moderate demand. Venison is abundant and lower. Quail is for domestic, good, and partridges lower, wild ducks are plenty and cheap. Live pigeons are scarce, in soft at all, drawn table is have been sold at 15 and 20c. per pair. We quote:

REMARKS.—The last market of the year, when poultry is plenty and when butchers like to square up their accounts, has so often proved unprofitable, and without the market was so crowded last week, that drovers were over-cautious this week, and the supply appears to be barely equal to the demand, hence the market is quicker, but buyers are reluctant to advance prices, as the dead meat in the city is abundant and cheap. Still we think cattle are sold a little better than last week, though most butchers have more or less on hand from last week's stock. The trade in sheep is also quick, as there are but few in the sale yards. C. H. Berger sold 9 Vermont oxen, to dress 800 lb., at 8c. ℔ lb.; Jno.
