THE COURTS.

THE STOKES CASE—ANOTHER ADJOURNMENT.

John McKeon presented yesterday, in Oyer and Terminer, a plea in the Stokes case, which was filed with the Clerk of the Court. Judge Ingraham requested Mr. McKeon to read it, but he refused to do so, on the ground that it was already filed.

District-Attorney Garvin insisted on having it read, and said it was an unheard-of thing in criminal practice for counsel thus to refuse to read a plea. He thought the case had been singularly conducted from the beginning, and added that it looked bad for a prisoner to come into Court with his hands stained with blood, and then fold his arms and say nothing.

Mr. McKeon objected to the counsel for the prosecution alluding to the atrocity of the offense charged on every occasion, and said he would not let any one, much less "a tool of the Ring," talk to him as the District-Attorney had done.

Ex-Judge Garvin said that it was ungracious of Mr. McKeon to attack the Ring while carrying their money in his pocket for their defense.

Judge Ingraham declared that he should allow no personalities in the Court, and told Mr. McKeon that he had never known an instance where a plea was of such a nature that it would injure a prisoner to have it read.

District Attorney Garvin said that as it was a document of 45 pages he should take 24 hours to examine it. The case was then adjourned until this morning when a day will be set down for the trial.

THE GORDON-GOULD CASE.

The Sheriff made return yesterday to the attachment issued by Judge Leonard against Gordon, that he could not be found in the city. Upon this counsel for Gould moved to strike out Gordon's complaint, because of his non-appearance. The motion was not pressed, however, an arrangement being made between counsel to let the case go over until to-day. The Court granted an alias attachment against Gordon, returnable this morning.

SUPREME COURT.—In the matter of the application of the Commissioners of the Central Park, for and in behalf of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New-York, relative to the opening of certain new avenues, roads, and public squares or places, as laid out by the Commissioners of the Central Park in the City of New-York. (RIVERSIDE PARK.) We, the undersigned Commissioners of Estimate and Assessment in the above-entitled matter, hereby give notice to the owner or owners, occupant or occupants, of all houses and lots and improved or unimproved lands affected thereby, and to all others whom it may concern:

First: That we have completed our estimate and assessment, and that all persons interested in these proceedings, or in any of the lands affected thereby, and who may be opposed to the same, do present their objections in writing, duly verified, to JOSIAH SUTHERLAND, Esq., our Chairman, at the office of the Commissioners, Number 42 Nassau-street (Room No. 24), in the City of New-York, on or before the 13th day of June, 1872, and that we, the said Commissioners, will hear parties so objecting within the ten week-days next after the said 13th day of June, 1872, and for that purpose will be in attendance at our said office, on each of said ten days, at 10 o'clock a. m.

Second: That the abstract of the said estimate and assessment, together with our maps, and also all the affidavits, estimates, and other documents which were used by us in making our report, have been deposited in the office of the Department of Public Works in the City of New-York, there to remain until the 26th day of June, 1872.

Third: That the limits embraced by the assessment aforesaid are as follows, to wit: All those certain lots, pieces or parcels of land, bounded on the north by the center line of One-hundred-and-fifty-fifth street; on the south, by the center line of Forty-second street; on the east, by the center line of Eighth avenue; and on the west, by the Hudson River, in said City of New-York, excepting therefrom all the land now occupied and used as a railroad track by the Hudson River Railroad Company, and excepting also therefrom the land lying between Eighth and Ninth avenues, and Seventy-seventh and Eighty-first streets.

Fourth: That our report herein will be presented to the Supreme Court of the State of New-York, at a General Term thereof, to be held in the New Court-House, at the City Hall, in the City of New-York, on the 10th day of July, 1872, at the opening of the Court on that day, and that then and there, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard thereon, a motion will be made that the said report be confirmed.—Dated New-York, May 8, 1872.

JOSIAH SUTHERLAND, WILLIAM C. TRAPHAGEN, CHARLES K. GRAHAM, } Commissioners.

REAL ESTATE.

NEW-YORK, Thursday, May 23, 1872.

At the Exchange, this morning, the only transactions were the sales made by James M. Miller, as follows:

By order of Supreme Court, under direction of Nathaniel Jarvis, jr., referee, of the five four-story and basement brown-stone front houses and lots, situated on the south-east corner of Madison-ave. and Seventy-fourth-st. The pieces were sold separately, and all sold subject to the mortgages now on the property, on which interest is due and unpaid from April 1, 1871, also, past due charges for insurance and expenses of foreclosure.

The first piece offered was the house and lot on the corner, 22.2x80, on which the mortgage is $25,500, which was bought by Wm. A. Bigelow for $10,000.

The next property sold was the house and lot, next adjoining on the south; same style of house, 20 feet front, and rear by same depth, viz., 80 feet. Mortgage, $20,500; bought by same purchaser for $9,000.

The third house and lot from corner, same amount of mortgage as the second (viz., $20,500), sold to same purchaser for $8,500.

The fourth house and lot, next adjoining the above on the south, same mortgage and charges as above (viz., $20,500), was bought by same purchaser for $13,500.

No. 5, being the fifth and last house and lot offered in this lot, mortgage same as the last, sold to same party for $11,500.

The lot on the rear of the above property, on Seventy-fourth-st., which was advertised to be sold, was withdrawn.

By the same auctioneer, the property known as Nos. 132 and 134 East Fiftieth-st., on the south side, commencing 320 feet west of Third-ave.; lots 43.8x100.5; the buildings consisting of a four-story and basement brick, and a three-story and basement brick, with brick boiler-room, one story, all covering nearly the whole lot, now occupied as a paper-hanging manufactory, was knocked down for $23,400.

The same auctioneer also knocked down the property No. 113 West Twenty-seventh-st., between Sixth and Seventh-aves., for $17,500.

Also, by order of Josiah Sutherland, referee, the lease of the house and lot on the north side of Fifty-sixth-st., 134 feet east of First-ave., to Cornelius W. Van Voorhies for $7,050.

The sale which took place yesterday at Greenville, N. J., by Messrs. A. D. Mellick, jr. & Bro., resulted in disposing of 40 lots, which were sold for a total of $13,295. A full report of the lots sold will be found below.

At private sale we have to report that the four lots on the north-east corner of Fifth-ave. and One-hundred-and-eighteenth-st. have been sold for $22,000.

Also, by Dye & Curtiss, the six lots on the north-east corner of the Boulevard and Ninty-ninth-st. for $60,000—all cash, to Mr. Ulrich Simon.

It is also reported to us that the north-west corner of the Boulevard and Ninty-ninth-st., being five lots, 100x125 have been sold to Thomas Eakin for $30,000.

Also reported, that Mr. Wm. H. Raynor has sold for Edward King to James J. Goodwin, of the late firm of Dabney, Morgan & Co., nine lots on north side of One-hundred-and-sixteenth-st., commencing 175 feet east of Tenth-ave. and running east 225 feet, for $45,000. Also, the recent sale to the same party of two lots lying between the above parcel and Morning Side Park 50x100.11, for $15,500. Several other sales in this neighborhood are in process, report of which will be given as soon as completed.

Properties in the neighborhood of the above lots are very firmly held; in fact, some owners refusing to sell at any price; instance the lots on the north-east corner of One-hundred-and-sixteenth-st. and Tenth-ave., for which, we understand, the owners have been offered for the five lots (three on avenue and two on street) $25,000, which offer was flatly refused; the probable reason for which is the probability of immediate improvements in the Morning Side Park and avenue. We understand that the Park Commissioners have already begun the grading of One-hundred-and-tenth-st., on both sides of Eighth-ave.

The Wrenwood stock farm (of Wm. H. Sickles), situated at Pleasant Valley, near Keyport, Monmouth Co., N. J., is advertised to be sold at auction (on the premises) on Tuesday, 28th, at 12 m., by S. Dingee, auctioneer. This property, which consists of a model stock farm (so pronounced by Mr. Robert Bonner of The N. Y. Ledger), will be sold, as will also the stock, consisting of a very valuable lot of horses, Alderneys, etc., without reserve, and is an opportunity for those looking for such property to make a desirable investment. Full particulars of the sale will be found in the advertisement, under head of Horses, Carriages, etc. The famous trotter, Geo. M. Patchen, was born and bred on this farm, and several of his "get" are among the lots to be sold.

We would call attention of suburban owners to the advertisement of the National Rifle Association, under another column, who advertise for a large lot of property near the city.

Sales to take place during the remainder of this week:

Friday, May 24.

By Joseph McGuire.—Adjourned sale, under instruction of Jas. H. Coleman, of lots on east side of Ninth-ave., between One-hundred-and-sixteenth and One-hundred-and-seventeenth-sts., being eight tall lots.

Saturday, May 25.

By Messrs. E. H. Ludlow & Co.—Supreme Court. James R. Angell, referee, property north-east corner of Railroad-ave. and Sixth-st., Morrisania.

By James M. Miller, at Pleasantville, Westchester County, of 135 plots and lots. Sale to take place on premises.

By order of Charles A. Jackson, referee, one lot with buildings on west side of First-ave., 49 feet 3 inches north of Twenty-fifth-st., 24.8x100.

Also one lot with buildings, west side of First-ave., 74 feet 1 inch north of Twenty-fifth-st., 24.8x100.

By order of Supreme Court, at the Court-house in Poughkeepsie, a farm situated on the east bank of the Hudson River, about half way between Fishkill Landing and New-Hamburgh, about one mile north of depot at Carthage, known as the Robinson Farm.
