REAL ESTATE.

NEW-YORK, Tuesday, Oct. 15, 1872.

The large number of proposed sales advertised to take place at the Exchange, this morning, had the effect of calling together quite a numerous audience. Bidding, however, was not very spirited. The principal transactions were those made by Messrs. Muller, Wilkins & Co., who sold the four lots, each 20x100.11, located on the southerly side of One-hundred-and-thirteenth-st., commencing 120 feet westerly from Third-ave. There is now on the plot mortgages amounting in the aggregate to $5,900. They were sold to Terence Farley for $2,500 per lot. The three lots adjoining on the rear, fronting on One-hundred-and-twelfth-st., same size, commencing 100 feet westerly from Third-ave., were withdrawn, having probably been sold at private sale. The same auctioneers sold the 5½-story marble front store and lot, 25.4x89.5, located on the northerly side of Canal-st., between Broadway and Elm-st., and known as No. 259, sold subject to two mortgages now on the property, amounting to $31,000, to N. Solomon for $65,500. Also the 2½-story brick house and lease of lot, 20x50, located on the southerly side of Henry-st., between Market and Catharine-sts., known as No. 22. The lease on this lot, which expires May 1, 1892, is at an annual ground rent of $250, and contains the usual covenants for renewal, or improvements to be paid for. This property sold to N. Cohen for $4,000.

The same auctioneer also sold by order of Matthew T. Brennan, Sheriff, all the right, title and interest which may have been held by Julia A. Conter on the 30th of September, A. D. 1868, in the property, 25.2x100, located on the north-easterly corner of Sixty-second-st. and Ninth-ave., to Henry McGuckin for $1,100.

Jos. McGuire sold by legal order, under the direction of George W. Hardy, referee, the three-story brick store and tenement on the front, and three-story tenement on the rear of lot, which is 25x100, located on the easterly side of Columbia-st., 200 feet northerly from Rivington, for $15,000, to Samuel Schuster.

Joline, referee, the four lots, 99.11x100, located on the northerly side of One-hundred-and-twenty-sixth-st., 175 feet westerly from Seventh-ave. James M. Miller, put up a three-story brick-house and lot, 25x10x100, located on the easterly side of Thompson-st., 150 feet northerly from Bleecker-st., which was knocked down at $21,800 (no sale), which concluded the transactions for the morning, all the remainder of the proposed sales were adjourned, viz.:
