BEEVES—The offerings to-day and yesterday were 368 cars, including 30 cars which arrived Saturday, 203 cars at Communipaw, 129 cars at One-hundredth-st., and 36 cars at Weehawken, or 5,690 beeves, against 298 cars, or 4,781 beeves last Monday, making for the week 9,364, against 8,058 the previous week, and 14,516 for the five weeks in May, against 41,153 for the corresponding five weeks last year, when there was a lighter run of cattle with cool weather, favoring trade, and the average of prices nearly 12½c., with the bulk of the cattle selling at 12@13c. To-day, at Communipaw, the cattle came in late (being nearly 1 p. m. before they arrived) the sales were slow, but good cattle were readily taken at last week's prices, while the lower grades worked off slowly at rather lower figures, the bulk of the natives selling at 11¾@11¾c., with a few top cattle reported at 12@12½c. The Texans were many of them thin and coarse, with prices generally at 9½@10½c., with some still-fed at 11@11½c.; 7 cars of Illinois steers, average 7¾ cwt., sold at 12½@12½c.; 7 cars do., average 8 cwt., at 12½ @12½c.; 12 cars do., average 7¾ cwt., at 11½@12½c.; 18 cars of Illinois steers, average 8¼ cwt., at 11½@11¾c.; 18 cars of Missouri cattle, 6½@7¼ cwt., at 11½@12½c.; 18 cars Texans, 5¾ cwt., at 10½c.; 7 cars Cherokee still-fed, average 6 cwt., at 11@11½c. The following is from The Chicago Live Stock Reporter of May 30:

The receipts of cattle during the past week have again been large, and the business done has also been correspondingly large. We have heard many complaints, and of some dissatisfaction that prices have been too low to yield fair margins; but after all, where cattle have been bought and shipped in on the basis of the markets of last or the preceding weeks, there is little room for grumbling. Our supply just now is undoubtedly larger than could be desired, and without a restriction in the shipments here of corn-fed cattle, will continue to be until distillery cattle are out of the way, which will not be the case before the close of the second week of June; after which period a more consistent and adequate supply of Western cattle may be looked for.

In regard to quality, the receipts of the past week has been fully as good as anticipated, and quite up to the average of the former week. Eastern buyers have not bought as heavily, for the simple reason that one or two have received large consignments of distillery cattle, which have been shipped through, and will have to take the place of corn-fed cattle. We have had a steady and good demand for feeding stock, for which prices have been comparatively high and very firm. Receipts of native butchers' cattle suitable for our local demand, and for Pittsburgh and Western markets, have been only fair, hence, with a good inquiry, prices of these have also ruled steady at former quotations. Medium to fair grades of shipping cattle, weighing 1,150@1,250 lb, have been a little slow owing to heavy receipts, but better grades have been in fair request.

Our Sumner County, Kansas, correspondent writes us on May 24 that for the week ending at that date the number of herds which entered the State were 26, or 26,000 cattle, against 12 herds or 12,000 for the corresponding week last year, and 31 herds or 22,933 in 1871, making a total of 56 herds or 54,667 cattle to that date, against 23 herds or 26,049 for the corresponding period in 1872, and 74 herds or 56,600 same period in 1871.
