HORSE and CARRIAGE MARKET

NEW-YORK, Saturday, June 20, 1874.

The near approach of the end of the season is foreshadowed by a marked decline in the volume of our local horse trade. The demand for all classes of horses ruled comparatively slow during the greater part of the week under review. The announcement of a large number of prominent auction sales in the city and its vicinity tended furthermore to unsettle the market and diminish transactions in the regular way. Among pleasure horses, medium-sized, blocky-built animals of average fair speed, high-knee action and general stylish appearance, commanded the best prices, ranging at from $1,600 to $2,000 per pair. At the Bull's Head Market, ordinary railroad and farm horses were in moderate request, and sold at from $145 to $200 per head. The market for prime truck horses was dull, but the supply being limited, there is no quotable alteration in values. The regular semi-weekly sales at the horse auction marts presented no noteworthy feature beyond a slight increase in the number of horses distributed through these agencies.

SALES OF THOROUGHBRED AND TROTTING STOCK.

At a sale held on the 10th inst. at the Mingnidate Stock Farm, near Wilmington, Del., 17 head of trotting stock, the property of Mr. George A. Lobdell, were sold at a grand total of $9,450, or an average of $200 per head.

The large sale at Col. A. H. Taylor's breeding farm at Central Valley, near Turner's Station, Orange County, N. Y., will be held by Major C. W. Barker, Stock Auctioneer of the New-York Tattersalls, on Thursday next, at 12 o'clock noon. The stock to be brought to the hammer comprises 50 head of stallions, brood mares, colts, and fillies, representing such strains of trotting blood as Jamesborough (thoroughbred), Rysdyk's Hambletonian, Billy Denton, Henry Clay, George M. Patchen, C. M. Clay, jr., Messenger Hambletonian, Bay Richmond, Volunteer, Black Prince, Sayer's Harry Clay, Suttle's Hambletonian, Tyson, Champion, G. M. Patchen, jr., Dade of Kentucky, Rex's Jupiter, Black Harry Clay, Florida, Vernon's Black Hawk, Major Edsall, Seely's American Star, Rice Graves's, Edward Everett, Alexander's Abdallah, Friday (by imported Trustee), &c. On the dams' side the pedigrees of most of the stock are equally prominent and well bred.

At the regular semi-weekly sale held to-day at Barker's City Auction Mart and N. Y. Tattersalls, the horses offered were disposed of as follows:

Description from Catalogue.	Hands.	Years.	Price.
Bay gelding Toronto Boy, sired by Toronto Chief	15.1	8	$325 00

Bay horse	15	7	160 00

In the carriage market of the week closing under this date, there was practically neither change nor improvement. The aggregate of sales would have been pretty fair for August or September, considering that to be the fortnight just preceding the general exodus to seaside places and Summer resorts, the depots and Summer vehicles ought to be most active; and the present lagging condition of the market, with sales frequently stimulated by large discounts from standard prices, can be hardly regarded as favorable to the carriage trade in general.
