Local News.

There was quite a heavy frost on Wednesday morning. Mr. Willford has just received a car-load of good horses from St. Louis. Major C. E. Thomas and Col. Jno. L. Black, of Hidgeaway, were in town on Thursday.

Don't fail to pay your taxes by the 10th of November. The time will not be extended after that date.

There is a noticeable absence of sales or levies under agricultural liens. This is a very good sign.

Dr. E. W. Aiken won the first premium at the Chester fair for the best saddle-horse.

The drummers travel now in light marching order—with a thousand pounds of baggage each.

President Arthur has gone to New York, to remain till after the election. He wants to be at the funeral.

The treasurer's office is crowded with taxpayers settling up their dues to the State and county.

The Camden Journal has assumed its winter proportions—a six-column quarto. It is a good paper, and deserves success.

The Frick Eclipse Engine is acknowledged to be the best engine made. Sold by R. J. McCarley & Co.

They say that Alex. Stephens would be nearly six feet high if he were erect. He must be considerably bent over.

Judge Willard is writing opinions on the election law for Mr. Russell, the Greenback chairman. The Judge must be out of employment.

It may not be generally known that Judge Willard was not admitted to practice in this State till after his retirement from the Supreme Court.

Mr. A. A. Morris is taking some excellent lectures at his gallery in the Metropolitan Hall. If you want a first-rate photograph, go and sit for him.

General Bratton, in company with Col. R. M. Sims, has been spending a few days in Augusta—the guest of Mr. P. J. Bernheim, at "Fruitland."

The Rev. C. E. McDonald preached in the Associate Reformed church on Sunday morning. He has charge of the church at Charlotte, and is doing a good work.

The property of the Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta Railroad Company has been assessed for taxation at the rate of $10,500 per mile of road.

Judge Mackey writes to Senator Hampton: "I am standing by your side just as firm as I did in 1876, and I am going to vote for the Democratic State ticket."

At the recent session of the Presidential Synod of South Carolina, at Abbeville, the Rev. W. W. Mills, of this county, preached an excellent discourse on self-denial.

There is an actual vote voting majority in every congressional district in South Carolina, except the seventh. That means six Democratic Congressmen.

There will be six boxes in the coming election in this county—25 each for Governor, State officers, members of the Legislature, county officers, Congressmen and the constitutional amendments.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Mr. J. M. Blain, offering strawberry plants for sale. He has many choice varieties, and his prices are very reasonable.

The Greenbackers are having trouble in getting candidates. In most instances the nominees repudiate the ticket and avow their allegiance to the Democratic party.

Capt. Harry McKeekin was in town on Monday. He represents things as very quiet in the Monticello neighborhood. The Academy is doing well, the teachers all giving entire satisfaction.

The new Episcopal church at Lancaster was consecrated by Bishop Howe on Thursday last week. The Rev. Frank Hallam of this place preached an able and interesting sermon on the occasion.

By a slight mistake in printing the interview of Mr. J. Hendrix McLane with the National View, the year he fixed as the beginning of the use of red shirts was put as 1875, when it should have been 1876.

Capt. Winthrop Williams has returned from Newberry, where he went to cast up the accounts of Major Whites, the defuncting treasurer. He found that Whites's defalcation amounts to about $9,000 in round numbers.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Messrs. T. W. Boyle & Bro. They have ample facilities for supplying good lumber in any quantities and at low figures, and they respectfully ask a share of the public patronage.

Mr. John C. Buchanan came up from Columbia on Thursday. He has been quite sick for some days, and has come home to get better. We hope he will soon be quite well. He is a student at the South Carolina College, and stands high.

Dr. Simpson must look to his laurels. The Chester Reporter says: "We have reliable information that last Sunday just before starting to church Mr. Jas. P. Rasdale gathered a street party, weighing ten pounds and an ounce. Rosville ahead."

All parties wishing to purchase engines and gas will please give us their orders at once, so as to have them here in time for cotton ginning, as it takes fifteen to twenty days to get them from the factory.

R. J. McCarley & Co. Mr. Thomas Dent, one of the Greenback candidates for the Legislature in Richland county, declares that this is a white man's government, that he has never voted for a "nigger," and that he never will. But the Greenback party's success would render negro rule, all the same.

Dr. Cooke, president of Claflin University at Orangeburg, says that during his summer travels at the North he heard the highest commendations of Colonel Thompson on every side, in consequence of his labors in the cause of the education of the masses. He is regarded as one of the ablest and most respected superintendents of education in the Union. While the colored people are so largely voting against a man who has proven himself so earnest in promoting their best interests? We hope not.

The Rock Hill Herald says "Mr. T. R. Faulkner, of Fort Mill, has invented a motor for running sewing machines and other light machinery. It is after the principle of a clock, and is so constructed that a machine can be run for four hours at any speed and stopped at will.

An enterprising Northern firm has offered $8,000 for the right to manufacture and sell the motor in three Northern States? We hope the apparatus will prove a success. It will be a splendid thing for running a sewing machine and—a fan in the summer time.

A FEW DAYS LONGER—I will be in Winnsboro about ten days, and I ask all who may wish pictures to give me a call. My facilities for good work are excellent, and I guarantee satisfaction. A. A. Morris.

OCT 31-112* A BIG POTATO.—Dr. Isaiah Simpson has brought us a huge sweet potato—weighing seven pounds and a half, and measuring about twenty-three inches in circumference. It is one of a good crop raised by the Doctor on "Laurel Hill," his farm near Winnsboro.

THE EXTENDED.—The Comptroller General has extended the time for paying taxes to the 10th of November. After that date the penalty of fifteen per cent will be attached, and it is hoped that all the taxpayers will be satisfied of the extension and promptly pay in full.

NEW GOODS.—Mr. Wolfe has just received a fresh stock of groceries, and means to sell them off very cheap. He asks special attention to the articles mentioned in his new advertisement—choice mackerel, smoked halibut, sugars, coffees, teas, rice, canned goods, Irish potatoes, cabbage, apples, onions, &c. He invites an examination of the stock, and means to sell as cheap as anybody.

THE CONFEDERATE MONUMENT.—Mrs. J. F. McMaster has been appointed agent of the South Carolina Monument Association for Fairfield county, and she will be pleased to receive and forward any contributions to the fund now being raised to repair the monument in Columbia. The ladies have already given out the contract, and it is hoped that there will be a full and generous response to their present call for assistance. The object they have in view is one very dear to the hearts of our people, and all should feel glad to contribute to its accomplishment.

COTTON STATEMENT.—The following is the comparative cotton statement for the week ending October 27, 1882: Net receipts at all United States ports during the week 240,964; same time last year 202,114; total receipts to date 1,197,705; same date last year 1,116,683. Exports for the week 139,965; same week last year 86,629; total exports to date 579,275; same date last year 522,900. Stock at all United States ports 920,695; same time last year 646,270; stock at all interior points 68,377; same time last year 112,248; stock at Liverpool 448,000; same time last year 533,000; stock of American cotton for Great Britain 144,000; same time last year 154,000.

COTTON SHIPMENTS.—The annual report of the cotton movement over the Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta Railroad for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1882, has just been made. It shows that the total number of bales carried by this road during the year was 143,635, as against 121,751 carried during the fiscal year ending September 30, 1881. The total number of bales of cotton shipped during the year is as follows: From Charlotte 1,169; Pineville 1,830; Fort Mill 1,944; Rock Hill 1,379; Chester 21,193; Blackstock 1,846; Woodward's 2,968; Winnsboro 10,640; Ridgeway 3,395; Blythehood 596; Columbia 22,763—the other stations, between Columbia and Augusta, making up the balance.

PREMIUMS AT THE CHESTER FAIR.—The exhibitors from Fairfield at the Chester fair were quite successful. As already mentioned, Dr. E. W. Aiken received a silver pitcher for the best saddle-horse. Mr. James B. Turner, whose efforts at raising fine cattle have met with deserved success, won five premiums, as follows: Best Jersey heifer, silver cream pitcher; best Jersey heifer, one to two years old, silver spoons; best Jersey heifer, eleven months, silver preserve spoon; best Jersey bull, silver preserve spoon; best Jersey cow, three years old, silver pitcher. Master J. Shannon McCreight received a pair of silver sugar spoons for the best trio of white African guinea pigs. There may have been other awards to exhibitors from Fairfield, but as the premium list has not yet been published entire, we cannot give the particulars.

GRN-HOUSE BURNED.—The gin-house of Mr. Charles K. Rabb, in this county, was destroyed by fire on the 24th inst. About midnight the ginning was progressing as usual, when Mr. H. Y. Milling, who happened to be present, observed smoke and fire issuing from the gin. He at once made known the fact, and the engine was promptly stopped. The flames now spread very rapidly, being first communicated to the lint-room, and soon the fire had gotten quite beyond control. In a short time the building was all in flames, and it was only through very great exertions on the part of those present that a portion of the cotton in bales was saved. The building, gins and four hundred bales of cotton were destroyed. The engine was somewhat injured. The total loss is about $2,000, on which we regret to learn there was no insurance.

INTERESTING SERVICES.—The exercises in Zion Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning were of a very interesting character, the occasion being the installation of the Rev. D. E. Jordan as pastor of the congregation. The services were conducted by the Rev. George A. Trenholm, of Chester, who preached an able and eloquent sermon suited to the occasion. The charge to the pastor was delivered by the Rev. James H. Thornwell, of Fort Mill, and the charge to the people by the Rev. J. Lowrie Wilson, of Bethesda church, York county. The services were solemn and instructive throughout, and commanded the unbroken attention of the large congregation present. At night the Rev. Mr. Wilson preached a very fine sermon to a crowded church. There was also service on Saturday night, the Rev. Mr. Thornwell preaching a most excellent discourse.

THE BACONIAN SOCIETY.—The Baconian Society, an organization among the young men of the town, met on Wednesday night, to prepare for regular work during the winter. The object of the Society is the cultivation of debate, composition and literary taste. Meetings will be held weekly, and at each some question of interest will be the subject of debate. The Society promises to be the means of affording entertainment as well as improvement. The following are the officers elected for the ensuing term: President—J. Wilson Hanahan. 1st Vice-President—J. H. Hanahan. 2d Vice-President—M. B. McMaster. Secretary and Treasurer—B. G. Pratt. Critic—G. W. Ragsdale. Counselor—R. B. Hanahan, Jr.

SALE OF CIRCUS STOCK.—As the Maybury, Pullman & Hamilton circus, recently stranded in Columbia, has attracted some attention, we give the prices at which the animals sold at auction last Wednesday. The bidding was not spirited, and the entire property brought altogether only about $5,000. Twenty-five draft horses sold at prices ranging from $28 to $136. The elephant Emperor brought only $1,025, while the two smaller elephants sold for $500 each. A pair of lions, cage included, brought only $450. Sells Brothers bought in most of the animals. This probably accounts for the low figures. The entire proceeds from the sales of the circus property amount to between nine and ten thousand dollars—not more than one-third its actual value, and less than half enough to pay off the indebtedness of the concern. The Sells will let their purchases remain in Columbia till the arrival of their own show on the fourth of November.

JUDGE MACKAY'S POSITION.—Judge Mackey, says the Yorkville Enquirer, permits no occasion to pass without giving expression to his political opinions and preferences in the present political canvass, and when on the court-house green or the street he is not difficult in drawing listeners whom he entertains and amuses, though he may fail to carry convincing argument in all that he says. He is not an Independent candidate for the Senate from Chester county, nor is he a candidate for any position, but to the contrary. He says he will support the Democratic ticket in Chester, and also the State Democratic ticket, not he says, because he thinks the latter ticket is as good as it might be, but because he does not want anything worse. He supports Colonel Cash for Congress; but the McClane Greenback State ticket he says he cannot swallow. He looks upon it as the outcome of a dreadful nightmare superinduced by Durham's bad whiskey, and says the entire State ticket is enough to nauseate the Morgan statue at Spartanburg.

A NEW SERIAL.—In the Charleston Weekly News of November 8, and the Sunday News following, will begin the publication of a new serial story, entitled, "The Cavalier and the Puritan; or, Love and Loyalty." This story was written expressly for the News by "Rose Ashleigh," whose name de plume is not unfamiliar to South Carolina readers. Her writings published in different Northern periodicals have been very favorably criticised, and it is hoped she will receive quite as good a reception at the hands of the readers and critics of her native State. "The Cavalier and the Puritan" is represented as a strong and sprightly story, and its publishers believe that it can stand squarely upon its own merits. One of their objects in putting it in print is to encourage Southern talent, and show that it is not inferior to that of which other countries boast. We trust the story will have many readers.

BURGALARY.—On Sunday morning it was discovered that the store of Mr. John P. Matthews, Jr., had been broken open the night previous—the thief making his exit through the side door. None of the doors showed any signs of breaking, and Mr. Matthews thinks the burglar must have secreted himself during the day before, while those in the store were busily engaged. The goods stolen, consisting of boots, bacon and flour, were worth about fifty dollars. The money-drawers were ransacked, but fortunately there was nothing in them. On the floor was a pile of powder, with some loose powder about, and a number of matches, most of them being already struck. One theory is that the thief spread the powder and matches so that a person chasing him in the store would be walking on the matches, fire the powder and blow up the building. Mr. Matthews thinks, however, that the fellow was only stealing powder along with other things. This is the more probable view of the matter. We hope the robber may be caught, but as yet there is no clue to his detection.

SCENIC DEATH.—Mr. Hobart D. Hanahan, a brother of Dr. Hanahan of this place, died very suddenly on Saturday night. He was in rather bad health during the summer, but seemed to be rapidly regaining his former vigor. About three o'clock on Saturday he was stricken with paralysis, and remained unconscious until about nine o'clock, when he breathed his last. The funeral services were held in the Episcopal church on Sunday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Hanahan, and were attended by a large concourse of people. Mr. Hanahan was a native of John's Island, and was about forty-three years of age. He was a gallant soldier in the war, serving as sergeant in the Palmetto Guard, a company of the Second (Kershaw's) Regiment, and losing a leg in a skirmish just before the battle of Seven Pines. He fell into the hands of the enemy and remained a prisoner for some months. After the war he was for some years engaged in business in New York. For the past two months he was living in Winnsboro, recruiting his health, and though very retiring in his disposition he impressed himself upon our people as a gentleman of pleasant manners and high character. He had been a widower for many years, and leaves one daughter, now residing with relatives in Richland county.

Nervousness, debility and exhausted vitality cured by using Brown's Iron Bitters.

THE COMET.—The "visible nothing," as the comet has been very properly denominated, still shines like a blazing meteor in the early morning sky. Its tail, which a short time ago was in juxtaposition to the bright little star Alpha, has swung around to the S.W. and now points in the direction of Lepus. Its position in the heavens at five o'clock a. m. is much higher than it was when mentioned as first due to the motion of the sun, which is traveling eastward at the rate of a degree a day, and next to the comet, which is traveling westward at the same speed. It is now located midway between Leo and Canis Major—its orbit is literally surrounded by the animal creation. The two dogs (Canis Major and Canis Minor), the Lion (Leo), Taurus (the Bull), Lepus (the Hare), Arias (the Ram), Corus (the Wialo), Pisces (the Fishes), Pegasus (the Horse), the two Bears and the Dragon, are all in sight of him, and make a panorama lovely to behold. The observer will perceive that the comet is growing smaller, and its brilliancy fading, which is due to the fact that it is leaving us so rapidly, but so much so as it was ten or twelve days ago. It is being driven by the sun's centrifugal power, hence its speed is more than two millions of miles a day. The observer will also perceive that it is receding tall foremost. This is also attributable to the sun's propelling or driving power. As soon as it gets beyond this centrifugal or driving power of the sun, the comet will resume its normal mode of movement and speed, traveling head foremost. The normal speed of a comet is not so great as is generally supposed. Some suppose it merely drifts through space, sensitive to the attractive force of the smallest object. When it gets beyond telescopic range there is no way of ascertaining, or even supposing, how it behaves.—Charlotte Observer.

DEATHS.—Mr. Walter S. Brice, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Wade Brice, died in this county on Sunday last, after a painful illness, from typhoid fever. Mr. Brice was only in the nineteenth year of his age; and his death is a severe blow to his family and friends. He was a member of the Blackstock Baptist church, and was very highly esteemed by all who knew him. The funeral services were held on the 23rd inst., conducted by the Rev. R. W. Saunders, of Chester, and the remains were interred in the graveyard of Concord Presbyterian church. The large number of people present at the funeral showed the esteem in which the deceased was held, and the general sympathy felt for the afflicted family.

Mr. Charles J. Coleman died at his home in the Monticello neighborhood on Monday, the 23rd inst. Mr. Coleman had always been of robust constitution, and of late his health had been very fine. About two weeks ago he was attacked with fever, attended with complications which did not at all yield to the physician's treatment. He grew gradually worse, in spite of all that could be done for him. Mr. Coleman was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Coleman, and was about thirty years of age. He was a gentleman of intelligence, high character, and industrious habits, and very pleasing manners. He had many friends, and his loss will be felt almost as severely in the family circle. The funeral services were held at Monticello on Tuesday, conducted by the Rev. F. C. Lupo, and were very largely attended.

THE STATE FAIR.—The fourteenth annual fair of the South Carolina Agricultural and Mechanical Society will be held in Columbia, beginning Tuesday morning, November 14, and ending on Friday morning, November 17. The exhibition promises to be the best ever held under the auspices of the Society, and will offer numerous attractions to visitors. Nearly one hundred premiums have been offered for competition, aggregating in value about $4,300. One people should sustain the Society in its efforts to promote the material interests of the State, and the presence at the annual fairs is the strongest endorsement and encouragement that can be given to the Association. We trust that every farmer, especially in the State, will feel that it is his duty to visit the fair. All the railroads have offered liberal terms, and we publish these rates for the information of those who expect to attend the fair. We would caution all who purchase these tickets to present them to Colonel T. W. Holloway, secretary of the Society, while in Columbia, to be stamped as required by the railroad companies. The tickets are sold at the different stations, but in order to be used on the return trip they must be stamped by the secretary of the Agricultural Society, as already stated. The following is the price of the tickets (taken from the list of different stations in this county): Blackstock.....$1 50 Woodward's.....1 50 White Oak.....1 50 Alder's.....1 50 Winnsboro.....2 50 Simpson's.....1 50 Ridgeway.....1 50 Blythehood.....1 30 Wallaceville.....1 50 Alston.....1 50 Brother.....1 50 Blair's.....1 50 Lyles' Ford.....1 50 Shelton.....1 50

CLOSING THE CANVASS.—The following notice providing for State and Congressional maps meetings was prepared by the State Democratic Executive Committee on Tuesday and ordered to be published, and the following special and Congressional district meetings were appointed to the held, and will be addressed by the gentleman named: November 1, McCallum's store, on the Marion and Marlboro line—Hon. G. W. Warren, Col. A. Richardson Miles, Col. A. Coward. November 2, Chester—Hon. Wade Hampton, Hon. J. J. Hemphill, Hon. John Bratton, Col. A. Coward. The chairman of the executive committee of the respective counties and Congressional districts are charged with the duty of making all arrangements for the foregoing meetings and for the reception of the speakers. Cheering reports of the condition and prospects of the canvass in the different parts of the State were made to the committee. The committee was in session up to a very late hour.

NATIONAL SURGICAL INSTITUTE.—One of the surgeons of this city and notable Institute will visit Winnsboro November 11, 1882, stopping at the Winnsboro Hotel. The object of this visit is to give the afflicted an opportunity for examination at or near their homes, thus saving hopeless cases the expense of a trip to Atlanta. A careful examination will be made, and patients can learn if their cases are curable or can be benefited, and whether it will be necessary for them to visit the Institute. In such cases as can be cured, or treatment begun at home, arrangements can be made with our visiting Surgeon, and treatment commenced at once. Cases of Deformities and Chronic Diseases will be examined, such as Club Feet, Diseases of the Hip, Spine and Joints, Prolapsus, Catarrh, and Diseases of the Eye, Ear, &c.

H. S. Berlin, Esq., of the well-known firm of H. S. Berlin & Co., Attorneys, Le Droit Building, Washington, D. C., writes, Dec. 5th, 1881: Gentlemen: I take pleasure in stating that I have used Brown's Iron Bitters for malaria and nervous troubles, caused by overwork, with excellent results.

Beware of imitations. Ask for BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and insist on having it. Don't be imposed on with something resembling it, as "just as good." The genuine is made only by the Brown Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md.

WHAT is the difference between a medicinal and a common drug? Medicinal dry up themselves, but taken often dry up somebody else. Take Sanguine's Pure Corn Whiskey, and keep out of danger.
