N. Y. WHOLESALE PRICES OF COUNTRY PRODUCE

FOR THE WEEK ENDING SEPT. 29, 1874.

[EXPRESSLY for THE N. Y. TRIBUNE by our own Reporter.]

General Directions.

Send only good articles. The freight and other expenses eat up poor goods. Put everything in good order. An attractive look secures examination, and often makes a sale where a dirty package or a slovenly appearance fails. Pack securely, so that the motion will not allow the contents to change about. Use plenty of clean dry fine cut straw with eggs. Mark plainly with paint—a stencil plate is best—and note contents on the box or bbl. Among the smooth eggs, send a letter as the same time stating what is sent, the route, time, &c. An invoice or list should also be inclosed in bbl. or box. Always state the number of packages. Secure for yourself a reputation for fine goods, put in best shape, so that your mark is in demand.

BEANS AND PEAS.

Receipts of beans for the week, 1,991 bbls.; do. last week, 893 bbls.; same week last year, 1,345 bbls. Exports of beans, 21 bbls. Exports of peas, 4,200 bush. Receipts of peas, 7,000 bush. Receipts of beans for September, 3,869 bbls.; for September last year, 4,000 bbls. Trade in beans is extremely quiet, and quotations are mainly nominal. The bulk of the receipts is of poor quality and mostly old. New Red Kidneys are lower and pressed for sale. New Medium is a small way quoted at $1 90@$1 95; Marrows, $2 40@$2 80. Green Peas are easier. The sale of Canadian Peas was at $1 25, bulk. Few others here. Quotations:

BUTTER.

Receipts for the week, 22,718 pkgs.; do. last week, 17,200; do. same week last year, 21,919 do. Exports past week, 587 firkins. Receipts of butter for September, 88,031 pkgs.; for September last year, 88,904 do. The market is without change, except for low grades of Western, and for these it is difficult to obtain more than inside ranges. Quotations for State have held up strong, and for the time being there seems little chance of a break occurring. Only a few farmer-owned dairies have arrived thus far, and as this is the period of the trade when heavy business begins, we miss the reserve that should be on hand, while the daily consumptive trade has so largely increased. It seems to be the intention of farmers to hang on to their dairies for higher prices than merchants care to operate liberally upon, and we are likely to have a feverish market during the coming month in the absence of customary supplies. Eastern buyers are already looking around for the lines of State they usually take at this season, but nearly all of them, especially those from manufacturing towns, insist that a high rate will not be supported by their trade. For the lots they take they pay the present ranges very reluctantly. Still, with the existing aspect of affairs, sellers cannot make concessions in order to fill large orders, as many of them are working upon high-bought stock and the local wants require any supplies they may hold. Firkins, as they run, brought 35c. here to-day, which is really lower than the figure demanded in the dairy sections. From what we can learn through the market it would seem that butter has started at a rate of speed that must slacken before the bulk of the make is worked off, or, in other words, the few opening high Fall sales will not compensate for sales later on. Quotations:

Orange Co. pais. prime	43@45	State Welsh tubs, other	30@32
River pails, do	36@40	Western creamery	38@40

CHEESE.

Receipts for the week, 67,501 boxes; do. last week, 55,253 do.; same week last year, 45,659 do. Exports past week, 41,531 boxes; do. last week, 38,027 boxes; same week last year, 21,578 do. Gold closes at 110. Cable quotations, 63s. 6d. Receipts of Cheese for September, 264,499 boxes; for September last year, 274,137 boxes. The export movement in Cheese continues very limited, and the advance in the interior has no noticeable effect upon the city market beyond stiffening quotations for transactions for home use, which have been quite free latterly. Western Cheese has sold above quotations, in some instances, for grocery use. The trade here look upon the late jump in the country markets as an unsound one, and see nothing to support it in a wholesale way here. The interior markets were very excitedly estimated and strong on Monday, though the high quotations are largely indebted to competition; sales at Utica 8,000 boxes at 14@15½c. for fine to extra factory; at Little Falls 9,000 boxes were sold at 13½@14¾c. for fine to fancy factory, and 13@14c. for fair to good dairies, and 14¼@14¾c. for good to choice; the factories are not reported as heavily stocked; the Fall make in the Western States is very light. We quote:

State Factory, fine	13½@14	Skims	5 @ 8
State Fac., fair	11¼@12½	Ohio Factory, fine	12½@13

DRIED FRUITS.

Receipts for the week, 1,655 pkgs.; do. last week, 1,165. Apples are again lower, with no wholesale movement. Peaches firm and unchanged. Raspberries scarce. A few State cherries are added to the stock. Cherries and blackberries are quoted easier. Quotations:

Receipts for the week, 9,018 bbls.; do. last week, 6,472 do.; same week last year, 8,130 bbls. Receipts for September, 29,524 bbls.; for September last year, 31,000 do. The trade is not an active one, and with the enlarged receipts sellers have been forced to close on prices. The best marks of Western are slow at 25c., and the general tendency is lower. Quotations:

FRESH FRUITS.

The arrivals of peaches are now mostly white preserving sorts, and these are too plentiful for the demand. A few good smocks for retail or table use bring good prices. Nothing of moment is coming from Delaware; New-Jersey now has the entire market. In pears the chief call is for Bartletts, and other good varieties are neglected. Prime ice-house Bartletts are selling high; when very fancy and large, $2 or $3 above our quotations may be realized. Grapes are looking up, still quantity and price are still in buyer's favor. Apples are steadier, but continue to rule low. Secket Pears have a wide range. A few Quinces are in market. Plums are badly unsalable. The first Cape Cod Cranberries arrived to-day; 50 bbls. fair to good sold at $8@$9. N. J. Crates are somewhat firmer. We expect Mr. N. R. French's valuable yearly record of this important crop for next week's issue. We quote:

HOPS.

Receipts for the week, 1,188 bales; do. last week, 672 bales. Same week last year, 709 bales. It was thought that interior trade has almost subsided, but there still seems to be competition to secure the choice part of the crop, and our prices here were firm in consequence. Brewers buy steadily but moderately. It is reported that nearly 1,000 bales of New have been taken for export. Quotations:

MILK.

The average daily receipts for the week at the various points of distribution were as follows: By Erie Railway, 3,725 cans milk; Harlem Railroad, 2,510 do.; New-Haven Railroad, 1,000 do.; Hudson River Railroad, 800 do.; miscellaneous near-by routes, 2,100 do.; Midland Railroad, 925 do. and 200 cans cream; West Shore Railroad, 135 do. At the Harlem Railroad platforms the daily average prices were as follows: Sept. 22, $3 75; Sept. 23, $3; Sept. 24, $3; Sept. 25, $3 25; Sept. 26, $3 50; Sept. 27, $3 50; Sept. 28, $2 75; average $3 25 per can of 40 quarts; do. last week, $3 07; same week last year, $2 03. The supply for the week has been moderate, and has been well sold up at even better figures than quoted last week. The supply will be more liberal after this month is out, but lower prices will be current. Contract prices will be made next month; the range it is expected will be about 3½@4c. for the five months following Nov. 1.

MEATS.

Live calves are scarce and prices are firm. Choice Bucks County and New-Jersey, 9½@10c.; prime State, 9@10c.; fair to good do., 8@8½c. Lambs are quoted at 7@8c. Exports of provisions past week, 617 pkgs. beef, 75 do. pork, 550 tcs. lard.

POULTRY AND GAME.

A good deal of detained stock has come in this week, and the market has rather more than trade requires, and prices are lower for fowls and chickens. We quote:

Fowls, N. J. ⅌ lb	16 @17	Spring Chickens, Western	16@ 17
Fowls, State	17 @—	Ducks, N. J., per pr.	87@$1 00

The following from the circular of French & Co. should be reserved for the coming season:

POULTRY—To insure highest market rates the stock must first be fat; next neatly dressed, skin unbroken, entrails not drawn, legs on, heads either off or on, but if off, skin tied neatly over neck-bone; then pack them when entirely cold, not frozen, backs up, in boxes holding from 200 to 400 ⅌. very tightly, with clean straw between layers. Fowls and Ducks may be packed equally well in barrels. Turkeys and Geese open handsomer from boxes. The greater part of the Poultry sent to this market is scalded or "wet packed," but the proportion of "dry picked" Turkeys and Fowls has of late years increased. When delayed, or caught in mild weather, "dry picked" keeps much better; and if fat and nicely handled it sells as well. "Dry-picked" thoroughly cooled, does not require straw between the layers. Dry thereof holding about 200 ⅌ are used advantageously at the West for packing "dry picked" poultry. Poultry should be kept from food at least twelve hours before killing, so that the crop may be empty. Poor or "scalawag" poultry should never be mixed with prime qualities. Pack the "scalawags" by themselves, so that they may be sold on their merits without prejudicing the prime, and the net result on the whole will be much better than if poor and good are mixed in the packages. The top of a package should always fairly and honestly indicate the quality throughout. Different qualities of poultry should not be packed together. Customers who want only turkeys will not buy turkeys and chickens mixed, and to sell part of a mixed package to one customer, and reserve part for another chance, is laborious and tends to complications, mistakes, and delays. Besides customers will always treat a broken package as a remnant or rejected part, and insist on a low price, so that mixing makes trouble all round, and brings decided loss to the owner of the lot.

GAME—Birds should always be packed in barrels; boxes are inconvenient, sell less readily, and at lower prices. Shot birds always sell lower than trapped, and if much mutilated should never be sent to market. Pack in natural state, feathers smooth as possible; paper wrapping in cold weather is advantageous; never mix shot and trapped birds together; pack very snugly and full, and carefully fasten the barrel heads. The first shipments of the season are generally made in small boxes by express, the catch being too small and weather too warm for packages so large as barrels. The mixing of poor and good qualities of game, and of the different sorts in the same package, is equally objectionable, and for the same reasons, as with poultry. Hereafter we shall feel constrained to charge an extra commission on such mixed consignments.

VENISON—Short saddles, cut back of shoulder-blades and containing five to seven ribs, with skin of fore-part turned over the end and fastened, sell 0@8c. ⅌ lb higher than carcasses, and often pay better than carcasses, especially when sent long distances at high rates of freight.

BUFFALO—Considerable of this meat has been received of late years, and sometimes in quantities beyond the demand, carrying prices very low. Last season the supply was moderate, and prices remunerative. It has been sent cut in saddles or quarters with the skin of the piece attached. These fragments of skins are nearly or quite worthless, while if treated like venison, i. e., cut in saddles with the most whole skin of the animal attached, such skins would be worth here $3 to $6 each according to size and condition of fur, and the only drawback would be the freight on the additional fore end of the skin. The meat from young fat animals only will pay.

MARKING AND INVOICING—Always mark each package with numbered stencil plate obtained from consignee. Also plainly mark gross weight and tare on each package of poultry, and the count in dozens or pairs on each package of game. Each piece of venison must have a tag securely attached, marked with the name of consignee, New-York, and with initials of consignor. Never fail to send promptly by mail an invoice of each shipment, stating plainly the number of packages and the net weight or count of each, and in case of venison, state whether carcasses or saddles, and the weight of the lot, or in detail as suits convenience; mention also the express or line shipped by.

If consignors do not bear in reasonable time of consignments, they may safely infer that through failure to properly mark, or from lack of invoice, there has been trouble in the identification of property.

ABSTRACT OF GAME LAWS OF NEW-YORK—The killing, possession and sale of moose or wild deer is permitted only in the months of September, October and November. The killing, possession and sale of woodcock is permitted only from the 31 day of July until the 1st day of February; of quail, from the 20th day of October to the 1st of May; of partridge, from the 1st day of September to the end of the year; of prairie chicken, from the 1st day of September to the end of the year. Persons are liable to complaint for having in their possession or selling the above-named birds after the termination of the seasons specified; but, until the 1st day of March next following, a valid defense is permitted, by proving that such birds were imported from beyond the United States, or were killed in this State during authorized periods,
