GRAIN—This day week we left our Wheat market very quiet and weak, under the less satisfactory advices from Europe and an absence of any considerable supply of tonnage; subsequently the heaviness increased, and with some advance in freights and more liberal arrivals of Spring, prices again declined slightly, the reduced limits to many orders contributing to the heaviness and inactivity. Later the demand greatly improved, a decline in freights greatly stimulating the inquiry, and the latter advices from the Continent by cable giving holders a further advantage. The advices from Eastern Europe in regard to their crops are conflicting, but it is very evident they are not likely to come up to an average. Well informed merchants at London express the opinion that Russia will have a very moderate surplus, and express some doubt as to their having anything to spare, but we think it premature to consider this. We believe the crop in Hungary and a part of Austria does not promise well; heavy rains the latter part of June did great damage to the Wheat and Rye; the latter is not well a oken of in any locality. Our advices from France are interesting; the crop of Wheat prior to the flood on the 2th and 27th of June did not promise well; in some of the more northern provinces it had been injured by the drouth and frost, and in no district did the crop promise an average return. Later the injury by the floods has been very serious, both to the cut and standing Grain. From Germany we learn their prospects are more favorable than in any part of the Continent. From the Pacific Coast our advices are of but little interest; the crop in California has been harvested, and the result is as previously stated, about half the surplus of last year. The average quality of the Wheat it is stated is below that of last year; hence we contend her exports will not exceed one-half those of last year; an increase in consumption and wants of her farmers for seed must not be lost sight of in forming an estimate of her exporting power. From Great Britain the accounts are not so favorable; too much rain is complained of. From the West we have further reports of injury from protracted rains, and from North-Western and ana we learn the fly has done much damage. These rains have greatly delayed the harvest at the South West, and the damage it is feared will prove serious. In Illinois and Wisconsin too much rain is complained of, but the crop looks very promising indeed, and farmers look hopefully. South of us the harvest is progressing slowly, and the reports are variable. The movement of Wheat at the North West is light, and we find the receipts at the Lake ports are falling off—not up to our moderate estimates—and we find our principal receivers are placing it in store, feeling confident of a better market in August. The indications now are that we shall hold much less Wheat on the 1st of September than we had counted on, and we fear our exports this month will fall below our recent estimates. Farmers in the Winter Wheat States seem reluctant to part with their old Wheat, as the new crop is greatly below an average, and the yield is very variable; on some farms, and on entire townships, the yield is less than one quarter of an average; at the other extreme and in the center they will have five-eighths to three-quarters of a crop. This was the situation prior to the 20th of June; since then they have had very cold and protracted rains, so that the plant has had much to contend with since last Autumn, and a favorable return could hardly be expected. The plant on the Continent of Europe has had the same vicissitudes to contend with as in this country, though not so generally Winter killed. The offerings of Winter have been light, and being held comparatively high, it has not attracted the attention of shippers, but has been well sustained under a fair milling demand. The new samples of Wheat from Georgia prove to be of excellent quality, but will be the yield is light, and they have no surplus of moment. Our exports show some increase this week, and are 848,424 bush., against 1,072,214 bush. the corresponding week last year. The exports from the coast this week are 1,065,316 bush., chiefly to Great Britain. Today the market opened higher with light offerings and favorable news from Europe, but the market closed lower, the advance in prices asked for choice Spring Wheat not being met by purchasers. Winter is firmer. The market closes weaker, a reported change in the weather at London induced shippers to hold off, and prices closed lower, with less inquiry for the future. The sales are 324,000 bush. at $1 18@$1 22 for Damaged Iowa and Minnesota; $1 18@$1 19 for No. 2 Chicago Spring; and choice do. at $1 20; $1 21½@$1 23 for No. 2 Milwaukee; $1 24 for select Iowa; $1 26@$1 27 for No. 1 Milwaukee; $1 26@$1 27 for No. 1 Sheboygan; $1 21½@$1 22½ for No. 2 Milwaukee, to arrive in ten days; $1 28@$1 30 for Red Western; much of the Wheat reported sold above changed hands last night. Included in the sales are 24,000 bush. Damaged Minnesota, to arrive in ten days, at $1 12½; 16,000 bush. No. 1 Minnesota at $1 26@$1 27, spot; 8,000 bush. No. 1 Duluth, spot, at $1 26; 64,000 bush. No. 1 Milwaukee and Sheboygan at $1 26@$1 27, closing at $1 26, and 8,000 bush. screened No. 3 Milwaukee at $1 20. Barley Malt is firm but quiet. Oats are lower and close very quiet; the supply in excess of the demand; the sales are 41,000 bush. New-Ohio Mixed at 66@67c. afloat; and 66c. on track; White at 68@70c., Western Mixed at 67c., afloat, and 66c. on track; White at 69@71c. Mixed State at 66@67½c. and White do. at 69@71c. Rye is quiet but firm. Corn is less active and steady, though closing very quiet; the supply of good "sail" is moderate; the sales are 75,000 bush. Damp and Unsound at 73@77c.; Western Mixed at 8.@82c. for steamer, and 83@83½c. for "sail." Western White at 86c.; Western Yellow at 81c., including 20,000 bush. Mixed, seller August, at 80c.

BARLEY—SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—We note an increased inquiry the past few days, resulting in the sales of several parcels of new crop (feed) at $1 35 and old at $1 55. The crop appears to be in a promising condition; future prices, however, depend greatly upon the action of the Central and Pacific Railroad respecting overland freights. A demand for Choice Brewing is hoped for from Chicago, Louisville, St. Louis, &c., during the Fall season, and there is now some little desire manifested to make contract purchases for future delivery, not only for Prince Cacvalier, but Choice bright brewing. The great increase in the brewing business in the United States has of late years caused a greatly enlarged demand for Barley, and, as the maltsters have become accustomed to our grain and learned how to handle it, they seem to place a high estimate upon it. During the past year, in addition to what went by rail to Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati, and neighboring cities, we sent a number of cargoes to New-York around the Horn. This business will probably be continued during the coming Fall, besides which, we have reason to expect an increased demand from the Mississippi Valley. Prices have ruled high all through the year, the demand for brewing descriptions enhancing the value of Feed, and the crop has paid the farmers well.

OREGON, July 1.—The growing crop in Oregon is represented as being everything that could be desired, the season from the beginning having been a very favorable one. That the yield will exceed that of last year can hardly be doubted, but how much we have no means of knowing. The increased population of the State, however, will be likely to consume the surplus, whatever it may be; so we cannot figure on a greater margin for export than in the season now closed.

PROVISIONS—Our Pork market the past week has been distinguished by a fair degree of activity, and considerable variableness. The demand for the future has not been so active and there has been less speculative feeling to note, but the cash trade has slightly improved and we have daily reduced our stock, and it will be found to be considerably less than at this time last year. In Prime Mess a limited business has been reported and with our stock reduced to less than 6,000 bbls. holders have the advantage. In Extra Prime a fair business may be noted at steady figures and the current prices are about $2 per bbl. higher than last year. This doubtless checks the consumption here, but will exert very little influence at foreign ports. The warm weather has checked business greatly and we find the attendance at the Produce Exchange is limited, and there is much less spirit noticeable. To-day the market is easier, less active and unsettled; sales of 250 bbls. Mess in job lots at $20 40@$20 50; 250 bbls. $20 40, cash; 200 bbls. extra prime, private terms; 500 bbls. Mess, seller August, $20 25@$20 30, now held higher; 250 bbls. Mess, seller September, $20 40. Beef is in moderate demand and steady; sales of Plain Mess at $9; Extra, $10@$10 25; Packet $16; Family, $.0. Beef Hams are quiet but firm, $17@$21 50. Tierce Beef inactive but steady. Cut Meats are in fair demand and steady; sales of 4,000 pieces at 9⅝c. for Fresh Shoulders; 10⅝c. for Pickled do.; 11¼@11½c. for Smoked do.; 13½c. for Fresh Hams, 15 lbs. average; 13½c.; for Pickled do., 14½@15c.; for Smoked do.; 24,000 ℔ Bellies in bulk, 11¼c. for 13 lbs average, and 11½c. for 12 lbs average; 20 boxes Clear Bellies at 13c. Bacon is in better demand and stronger; we notice more inquiry for the Continent; sales 220 boxes City Long Clear 11½@12c.; the latter rate for a favorite brand. Dressed Hogs are firmer and in good demand; sales of City at 9½@10c. Lard is firmer and tolerably active; sales 700 tierces City at 12 1-16@12 9-16c.; 50 tierces New Western at 13¼c.; 100 tierces Old Western Steam 13⅝@13 11-16c.; 75 ℔, seller August, 13 7-16@13⅝c.; 1,500, seller September, 13 9-16@13⅝c.

BUTTER—There is very little change since our last; the receipts more than equal the demand; the daily consumption is growing less; all grades are weaker. Strictly Fancy rules firmer and in good demand; sales of 300 bbls. At the close the market is strong but quiet; sales of 900 bbls. We quote:

CHEESE—The hot weather has given buyers the advantage this week; the receipts are about equal to the demand. Shippers are contending for lower figures, but sellers have tried to maintain values, but the warm weather and liberal arrivals have prevented them, and little stock is being carried over, and we note a decline of ¼c. Cable advices are lower; also gold. We quote:
