INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY-SCHOOL LESSONS.

The International Sunday-school Lesson Committee held a meeting yesterday afternoon and evening, at the St. Denis Hotel, to take action upon the International Sunday-school lessons for the next two years. After a careful consideration it was decided to select only the lessons for 1878 at this session, and another meeting was arranged for selecting the lessons for 1879, to be held early in the Spring of 1877. The following gentlemen were present: The Rev. Dr. J. H. Vincent, New-York, chairman; the Rev. Dr. Warren Randolph, Philadelphia, secretary; the Rev. Drs. John Hall of New-York, Chapin of Wisconsin, Newton of Philadelphia, and Gillett, Illinois; Franklin Fairbanks of Vermont, who takes the place of Henry F. Haven, who died during the past year; Mr. MacCallum and J. E. Tyler of Philadelphia. The Rev. Dr. Gibson and B. F. Jacobs of Chicago, and the Rev. Alexander Tyng of Peoria, Illinois, also members of the committee, were unable to be present as they are connected with Mr. Moody's work in Chicago. The lessons for 1878, from the Old Testament, embrace the history of the Kingdom of Judea up to the close of the captivity; from the New Testament, the lessons are from the Gospel of St. Luke.

WORK ON THE WATER FRONT.

At the meeting of the Commissioners of Docks yesterday, the Treasurer reported that $10,299 had been expended during the week ending Nov. 14, which left to the credit of the department $115,031 13. During that time $37,739 had been paid to the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund. Requests were received from the New-York Central Railroad Company for permission to erect a shed for freight on Pier No. 36, East River, and from the Commissioner of Public Works for the repair of the sewer extension to the Hudson river at the foot of West Tenth-st. Commissioner Wales said to a Tribune reporter that the latter pier would probably be completed by July 1. Work would soon be begun on Pier No. 47, for the National Steamship Company.

"My son," said a pious father out on Southhill to his beautiful son, "you did not saw any wood for the kitchen stove; you did not carry in a load you to, you left the barn door open and let the cow get out, you cut off 18 feet of the clothes-line to make a lasso, you stoned Mr. Robinson's pet dog and killed it, you put a hard-shell turtle in the silver girl's bed, you told a stranger dog to Mr. Jacobson's doorbell, and painted red and green stripes on the legs of old Mrs. Polsky's white pony, and hung your sister's bustle out of the front window. Now, what can I do to you for such conduct?" "Are all the counties heard from?" asked the candidate. The father replied sternly. "No trifling, Sir; no. I have got several reports to receive from others of the neighbors." "Then," replied the boy, "you will not be justified in proceeding to extreme measures until the official count is in." Shortly afterward the election was thrown into the house, and before half the votes were canvassed it was evident, from the peculiar intonation of the applause, that the boy was badly bedded.—Bloomington Hawk Eye.
