Printing to print the depositions taken in Louisiana and sent to the President by Mr. Sherman's committee, it was agreed to—Yeas, 46; Nays, 13; Messrs. Key, McDonald, Randolph, Wallace, and Kernan (Dems.) voting with the Republicans in the affirmative.

Mr. MITCHELL (Rep., Oregon) submitted a series of resolutions with the following resolution:

Resolved, &c., That the Committee on Privileges and Elections is hereby instructed to investigate the facts attending the appointment of said electors and pretended electors, their action as electors and pretended electors, the action of the Governor and the Secretary of State in respect to them, and report the same to the Senate; and for this purpose may employ a stenographer, send for persons and papers, administer oaths and examine witnesses.

Ordered to be printed and lie on the table.

Mr. HOWE (Rep., Wis.), introduced the following bill:

Be it enacted, &c., That every person who shall in any State cast a ballot for President and Vice-President of the United States, or shall make or certify to any list of persons voted for on behalf of such State for President and Vice-President, or shall direct or transmit any such certified list to the President of the Senate, either by mail or messenger, or who shall deposit any such certified list with the judge of any district court within the United States, or who shall in any other way assume to act as elector for President and Vice-President without having been duly appointed to act in accordance with the law of such State, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall, on conviction thereof, be fined not less than $10,000 and imprisoned not less than ten years.

SECTION 2. Every person who shall bear any such certified list of persons voted for for President and Vice-President of the United States to the seat of Government, or shall deliver the same to the President of the Senate, knowing such list to be certified by persons not duly appointed to act, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and shall, on conviction thereof, be fined not less than $10,000 and be imprisoned not less than five years.

Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. EDMUNDS gave notice that he would call up to-morrow the proposed constitutional amendment in relation to counting the vote for President and Vice-President.

The Senate then at 5 o'clock adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

In the House to-day, Mr. ATKINS (Dem. Tenn.), a member of the Appropriation Committee, reported the Pension Appropriation bill, and gave out that he would call it up to-morrow morning. The bill appropriates $38,353,000.

Mr. McCRARY (Rep., Iowa) offered the following resolution:

Whereas, There are differences of opinion as to the proper mode of canvassing the electoral votes for President and Vice-President, and as to the manner of determining questions that may arise as to the legality and validity of returns made of such vote by the several States; and

Whereas, It is of the utmost importance that all differences of opinion, and all doubts and uncertainty on these questions should be removed, to the end that the votes may be counted and the result declared by a tribunal whose authority none can question, and whose decision all will accept as final; be it

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed by the Speaker, in conjunction with any similar committee appointed by the Senate, to prepare and report, without delay, such a measure, either legislative or constitutional, as may in their judgment be best calculated to accomplish the desired end; and that the said committee have leave to report at any time.

Mr. WOOD (Dem., N. Y.) suggested that a subject of so much importance should be referred to a committee of the House, and hoped that the gentleman from Iowa would have it referred to the Judiciary Committee, of which he himself (Mr. McCrary) was a member.

The SPEAKER—And, also, that it be printed.

Mr. HALE (Rep., Me.)—If it goes to the Judiciary Committee, let that committee have leave to report it at any time.

Mr. McCRARY—If the gentlemen desire that course, of course I shall acquiesce in it; although we all understand how important it is to have prompt action on the subject.

Mr. WOOD—Certainly; we all appreciate it.

The resolution was thereupon referred to the Judiciary Committee with leave to report at any time.

Mr. FRYE (Rep., Me.) presented the protest of the Colorado Legislature against the refusal of the House to admit to his seat the member elect from that State. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The SPEAKER appointed Mr. Beebe (Dem., N. Y.) on the Louisiana Committee instead of Mr. Lynde, excused.

Mr. LAMAR (Dem., Miss.), Chairman of the Pacific Railroad Committee, reported back the Senate bill to extend the time for the construction and completion of the Northern Pacific Railroad, and asked that it be made the special order for Wednesday, Dec. 20.

Mr. HURLBUT (Rep., Ill.) objected to taking it up.

Mr. HOLMAN (Dem., Ind.) made the point of order that the bill had first to be considered in Committee of the Whole; and as that point was sustained by the SPEAKER, Mr. LAMAR withdrew the bill.

Mr. McCRARY (Rep., Iowa), from the Judiciary Committee, reported a bill to amend the Pacific Railroad acts by making the Burlington and Missouri River Railroad in Nebraska a branch of the Union Pacific Railroad, and requiring both roads to be operated conjointly.

Mr. CROUNSE (Rep., Neb.) opposed postponement as only another means of defeating the bill.

Mr. McCRARY (Rep., Iowa) proceeded to explain and advocate the measure. It declares the Burlington and Missouri Railroad in Nebraska, a branch of the Union Pacific Railroad, entitled to all rights and privileges and subject to all the duties and requirements provided by Sections 9 and 15 of the act of July 2, 1864; provided that no Government bonds shall ever be issued to the Burlington and Missouri River Railroad to aid in its construction, and that late act shall not affect the extent or the conditions of the land grant. He contended that Congress had a clear right to pass the bill.

Mr. HOLMAN (Dem., Ind.), Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, offered a resolution appropriating $21,000 for the expenses of the special Southern Committees. Adopted.

Mr. WOOD (Dem., N. Y.) asked leave to offer a resolution calling on the President for copies of all orders and directions emanating from him or from any of the executive departments of the Government, to any military or civil officer, with regard to the services of the army in Virginia, South Carolina, Louisiana, and Florida.

Mr. KASSON (Rep., Iowa) objected.

The House then, at 1:45 p. m. adjourned, the Democratic members remaining in the hall to attend a caucus.

NOMINATIONS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—The President sent the following nominations to the Senate to-day:

Hiram Knowles, to be Assistant Justice of the Supreme Court of Montana.

United States Consuls—Isaac P. Shepherd of Missouri, at Hankow; John C. Landeau of Louisiana, at Santiago de Cuba; D. P. Ferrer of Louisiana, at Guatemala; Henrique Cabnet, at Garruchna; S. P. Bailey, jr., of Virginia, at Palermo.

Receivers of Public Moneys—Charles Reshnell of Michigan, at Colfax, Washington Territory; and George R. Smith of New-Mexico, at Santa Fe, New-Mexico.

THE ACCUSED PARK COMMISSIONERS.

CONCLUSION OF THE HEARING BEFORE THE MAYOR.

The hearing of the charges against Park Commissioners Martin and O'Donohue, before Mayor Wickham, was finished yesterday. Park Commissioner Henry G. Stebbins testified as to the wages of laborers, and thought that the payment of $2 a day, while the market rate was $1 60, was unjust. He had heard that labor tickets issued for $2 a day had been sold by the holders for the 40 cents premium, but he did not believe it had been done under the present management. Col. Rush C. Hawkins claimed that the accused Commissioners had rendered themselves liable to indictment for a misdemeanor. Park Commissioner Martin read a long argument in defense of the Commissioners' action, the gist of which was that they had not violated the law and that the laborers on the parks should be paid higher wages than those employed on ordinary work. It was stated that the average number of laborers employed on the parks would not exceed 400, while there were at least 50,000 laborers in this city, a large number of whom were out of employment. Dorman B. Eaton reviewed the facts and asked for the removal of the Commissioners.

The Mayor stated that Park Commissioner O'Donohue, by accepting the position of Presidential elector, had vacated his office, and the charges against him would not be considered. The Mayor's decision as to Mr. Martin is expected at an early day.

MEETING OF THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

The Chamber of Commerce, at its monthly meeting yesterday, adopted a resolution instituting three prizes of $150 in all, to be known as the Chamber of Commerce prizes, for presentation at each annual examination of the Nautical School of this port, to the three scholars whose standing shall be the highest during the term of one year. Solon Humphreys stated that the laws governing quarantine regulations admitted of abuses which threatened a renewal of the extortions and abuses practiced before the appointment of Dr. Vanderpool. He therefore offered a resolution that a special committee of five be appointed to draft an act remodeling the existing laws in regard to quarantine regulations. The resolution was adopted. The Council of the Nautical School, through Charles H. Marshall, made a report on the recent examination of the school, in which they expressed satisfaction at the condition of the school and the proficiency shown by the cadets, giving special credit to Commander R. L. Phythian and his assistants, Lieuts. Geo. W. De Long, William H. Jaques, and Surgeon D. C. Burleigh. A proposed existing law in regard to the negotiation of bills of lading and other commercial paper, prepared by Elliott F. Shepard, was read and unanimously adopted. It provided that a bill of lading be transferable by indorsement, unless the bill states that it is not negotiable, and that the act be construed liberally; it also suggested heavy penalties for willful violation of the provisions of the act.

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

The Board of Aldermen yesterday authorized public improvements as follows: Lighting One-hundred-and-sixth-st. from Second-ave. to East River, and Fifty-fourth-st. from First-ave. to East River; fencing vacant lots on Sixth-ave. and Fifty-fourth-st.; regulating Tenth-ave., from Ninety-fifth to One-hundred-and-tenth-st., and flagging Fifty-eighth-st. near Ninth-ave. The ordinance in relation to hackney coaches was amended so as to permit any licensed driver to drive and use any coach belonging to his employer. A communication was received from Controller Green, calling the attention of the board to the case of Assemblyman Slevin, who was elected by the board to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Alderman Patrick Lynaght. The Controller quoted Section 7 of Article III. of the Constitution of this State, which provides that no member of the Legislature shall receive any civil appointment within this State or from any city government during the time for which he shall have been elected, and all such appointments and all votes given for any such member for any such office or appointment shall be void. The Controller claimed that Mr. Slevin was not legally elected to fill the vacancy. It is understood that he has refused to pay Mr. Slevin's salary as Alderman.

IN-DEW-BITABLY SO.—Sentimental youth: "Ah, Anna Maria, you look to me like a daisy kissed with dew." Guilty party: "Oh, John! indeed it wasn't a Jew; it was that Tom Stubbs, and I told the pilot at the time every one would find it out!"—[London Fun.

THE COURTS.

CIVIL NOTES

Max S. Rohman, Leger Babut, and Simon Hirschbach, whose assignment for the benefit of creditors has been already given, have filed their schedules in the Common Pleas Court, stating their liabilities at $88,544 73 and their assets at $53,970 51.

Henry J. Greata, as assignee of William Elder, jr., sued the city for alleged extra work under a contract for repairing steam-heating apparatus at the asylums on Ward's and Randall's Islands. A motion to dismiss the complaint on the pleadings and opening was granted by Judge Lawrence, in Supreme Court, Circuit.

William Van Wagner's suit for $5,000 damages against Thomas B. Whitney came to trial yesterday before Judge Robinson in the Court of Common Pleas. The defendant says he was followed for several nights by the plaintiff in January last. He complained to the police, and the plaintiff was arrested and held in a cell for two hours, when, there being no complaint, he was discharged. The plaintiff says he was not following anybody, but going home. The case is still on.

The old case of William K. Clare against the National City Bank of New-York, which was taken from the State courts to the United States Circuit Court under the law of 1875, was put on trial before Judge Wallace and a jury yesterday. The suit grew out of injuries received by the plaintiff from a plank which fell or was thrown from the bank building, which was undergoing repairs in the Summer of 1868. The defendants set up that the work on the building was done by contractors, and that the bank corporation was not responsible for the carelessness of the workmen.

Patrick H. Dickie at the age of fourscore was declared insane. He had several children, one of whom had been married to Jasper Van Vleck. In 1868 Van Vleck failed and became insane, and his wife with five children was left to support not only herself and her children, but her husband. Her father allowed her at first $3,000 a year, afterward $4,000 a year, and, just before his insanity was declared, increased this allowance to $4,800 per year. Since then an agreement has been made among her father's heirs that she be allowed $2,600 a year, but she asks that this be increased to $4,000 a year. Her father's property in this city is valued at $700,000. The matter came before Judge Brady in Supreme Court, Chambers, yesterday. He reserved his decision.

CRIMINAL NOTES.

At the Yorkville Police Court Anton Heidelburger, for stabbing Adam Fuchs in an affray at the brewery of Ernest Hoffmann, No. 214 East Fifty-fourth-st., was committed by Justice Wandell to await the result of Fuchs's injuries.

John Haggerty and Dennis Connors were yesterday convicted in the Court of General Sessions of outrage upon Jane Brady on Oct. 21, and were sentenced by Judge Gildersleeve to 18 years' imprisonment each in the State Prison.

At the Washington Place Police Court Thomas Clark and Patrick Kelly were charged with trying to break open the store of R. M. Wilkins, at No. 1,444 Broadway. They are hard looking cases, and were held in $3,000 bail each.

Giovani Moroni alias John Murray, Michael O'Brien, and George Williams, were held by United States Commissioner Shields yesterday for passing counterfeit money. Williams has just served out a term in the State Prison for grand larceny. An Italian named John Bertignoni, living at No. 11 Crosby-st., and his son, Victor Emanuel Bertignoni, a boy 11 years old, were also held on a charge of passing repeatedly counterfeit silver half dollars at Macaline Guinio's bakery, No. 57 Grand-st.

At the Tombs Police Court yesterday 23 boys and 2 girls, chiefly Polish or German Jews, with a few English and Italians, were brought up on complaint of Officer Charde of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, who arrested them for peddling on Twenty-st. and around the precincts of Washington Market, to the great annoyance of the public. Many of them are the children of parents in comfortable circumstances, and are subject to arrest under the provisions of the truancy act. They were sent to various reformatory institutions, according to nationality and age.

UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT.

No. 127—Annie L. Watts, appellant, agt. Charles Hill and Tip Gamble.—Submitted on printed arguments by Mr. Jason Niles of counsel for the appellees, no counsel appearing for the appellant.

No. 123—The New-Orleans Canal and Banking Company et al. agt. A. B. Montgomery.—Continued.

No. 128—The United States, appellants, agt. Philadelphia and Southern Mail Steamship Company, claimants, &c.

No. 130—Philadelphia and Southern Mail Steamship Company, claimants, &c., appellants, agt. The United States.

No. 628—George Purseglove, appellant, agt. The Steamship Juniata, &c.—Argument begun by Mr. Assistant Attorney-General Smith of counsel for the United States, and continued by Mr. T. J. Durant for Purseglove, and by Mr. M. P. Henry for steamship company, claimants, &c.

Adjourned until to-morrow.

THE COURT OF APPEALS.

ALBANY, Dec. 7.—In the Court of Appeals Dec. 7, 1876:

No. 91—Hassam agt. The City of Rochester.—Argument resumed and concluded.

No. 92—Van Weert agt. The Albany and Susquehanna R. R.—Argument by J. G. Rinkle for appellant and Geo. Scrawling for respondent.

No. 94—The People ex rel. Conway agt. The Board of Supervisors of Livingston County.—Argued by J. C. Cochrane for appellant and S. Hubbard for respondent.

Proclamation was made and the court adjourned.

The following is the Court of Appeals Day Calendar for Friday, Dec. 8, 1876: Nos. 19, 52, 49, 50, 35, 61, 9, and 84.

DECISIONS—Dec. 7.

Supreme Court—Chambers—By Judge Brady.—Matter of Clinch.—Must be an order of reference. Jessup agt. The East Alabama and Cincinnati R. R. Co. et al.—Will to see counsel. Bresler agt. Volkening.—Counsel will please appear on the 8th at 10 a. m. Perry agt. The Baldwin Manufacturing Co.—Counsel will please appear on the 8th at 10½ a. m. Matter of Barnett.—Judge Barrett thinks there should be a stay without security; so ordered. Matter of Berman; Neely agt. Finch; Browning agt. Rapp; White agt. Olmstead; Butler agt. Peterson; Palmer et al. agt. Palmer et al.; Nosser agt. Cowvie et al.; The Knickerbocker Life Insurance Co. agt. Vandewater et al., Nos. 1, 2, and 3; Mechanics, &c., agt. Comstock; Gobbler agt. Steamler; The Union Dime Savings Institution agt. Bleakley; Kingland agt. Gessner and ano.; Kerr agt. Reynolds; Meyer agt. Kinney; Hunt agt. Smith; Fox agt. Tuska; Matter of Martin and Remmertz agt. Smith.—Granted. The East River National Bank agt. Holbrook.—The decisions are peculiar, but I think can be disposed of in so hour. If not, the plaintiffs incur the penalty imposed by the rule. Motion granted. Von Hein agt. Hahn.—I think the defendants should be allowed to amend as desired. The effect or value of the averment may be a subject for future examination. No opinion is expressed about it. Motion granted on payment of $10 costs. Matter of Bartour.—The jurisdiction of the Marine Court in the action against the relator cannot be disputed. Its exercise has been lawful, and therefore in accordance with the power conferring it. It matters not what is the amount claimed, if the sum finally recorded does not exceed $2,000, exclusive of costs. (Chap. 479, Laws 1875). If the recovery were in the action against the relator in excess of the sum named, interest and costs, another order could be sued to sell detained the defendant and the process of the judgment, it might be a proper subject of investigation. The relator assigns no lawful reason for his discharge, and the writ must therefore be dismissed.

Special Term—By Judge Van Vorst.—Herries agt. Newell.—The complaint is not with the papers; it should be handed up. Langdon agt. Gray et al.—Findings signed on judgment dismissing complaint. The Greenwich Bank agt. Davids et al.—Judgment for plaintiff on demurrer to portions of defendant's answer; opinion. Somers agt. Faber.—Judgment for plaintiff on demurrer, with liberty to defendant to answer on payment of costs; opinion.

Common Pleas—Special Term—By Judge Van Hoesen.—Chase agt. Draper.—Motion denied; see memorandum. Alexander agt. Celler.—Reference ordered; see memorandum. Randall agt. McCarthy.—It appearing that the sureties are not the appellants, motion denied.

FLIGHT OF MRS. GARNIER.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Garnier, the runaway wife of Albert Garnier, left her temporary home at Bayonne, N. J., telling the servant to pack up all her household goods preparatory to removal. She promised to return on the next day, but up to last night no word had been received, except a message to hurry up the preparations. The house in which she and Goettendorf have been living is situated in a retired part of the city, and is not completely furnished, no carpets or curtains being in any part of it. The contrast between it and the home she deserted is very striking. To the chief of the Bayonne police, of whom she sought protection, she said her reason for leaving her husband was that he kept late hours, frequently returning to his home at 3 o'clock in the morning.

At a thanksgiving service the preacher began by saying that the things really worth being thankful for could be included in three classes, whereupon a gentleman, turning to his lady seat mate, whispered that two of these classes were plain enough—good things to eat and good things to drink, but he couldn't imagine what the third was. She spoke up quick and solved his doubt: "Good things to wear."
