THURSDAY, March 1—P. M.

The Stock Exchange to-day commenced its business of speculation with a grand "hoopla," regardless of the closing prices of yesterday. Hence there were anxious buyers of Lake Shore at 50@50½; of Michigan Central at 43; Central and Hudson at 94¾@95; North-Western at 33¾, preferred at 53½@53¾; St. Paul at 18; preferred at 47⅝@47½; Delaware, Lackawanna and Western at 64; Delaware and Hudson at 49@49¼, and Western Union at 66¼. Chicago and Rock Island was an exception, and after opening down at 101¼, only rallied to 101⅜, yet remaining pretty steady when the other market broke, and only declined to 100⅞. The firmness of the general list lasted not much beyond 15 minutes Western Union being the first to exhibit signs of fatigue in sale down to 63⅛. Later it rallied to 65⅝, and closed at 65½. Lake Shore dropped to 48½, and closed at 48⅞; Michigan Central sold down to 41½, and ended at 42. Central and Hudson, after touching 92½ and rallying to 93¼, closed at 93; North-West declined to 32⅛ and fetched up at 32½, while the preferred, after selling down to 51¾, closed at 52. The St. Paul preferred stock dropped to 45¾ and closed at 46, on the alleged decision of the United States Supreme Court in the "Granger cases" against the railroad company. The importance of this decision cannot be overestimated, because it establishes a principle which in relation to railroad companies is all-important, to wit, that the created is not superior to the creator. Now let the Legislature of the State of New-York look to it that its commerce is no longer taxed to pay dividends upon two and three times the real capital invested in its railroad properties. Notwithstanding the firm opening of the coal shares, they easily yielded to 62½ for Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, and to 48¾ for Delaware and Hudson, each closing at ½ higher than the lowest price. Central of New-Jersey, on a renewed interest in the stock, declined to 9½@9⅝. Pacific Mail was held steady at 25½@25, while 30 shares of Panama Railroad were booked as being sold at 130, the quotation at the time for lots of 100 shares being 122@127. The remainder of the list was simply quiet and steady without feature. The late sales at the Open Board of Brokers indicated a lower market.

The sales for the day at the Open Board were, at 9:45 a. m.: 800 Lake Shore at 50@49⅞; 12:30 p. m., 1,000 Lake Shore at 49⅞@49⅝, and, at 3:15 p. m., 700 Western Union at 65⅝@65½; 2,200 Lake Shore at 48¾@48½; 300 St. Paul at 17⅞@17¾; 300 preferred at 46@45⅞; 100 Michigan Central at 42; 100 Ohio and Mississippi at 5⅜; 200 Erie at 7⅞; 100 Rock Island at 101⅛; 200 Central and Hudson at 93; 100 Central of New-Jersey at 9¼, and 200 Pacific Mail at 25. The following table shows the

The regular weekly meeting of the Directors of the Bank of England was held to-day, but no change was made in the minimum rate of discount, it continuing at 2 per cent, the figure at which it was reduced on the 26th day of last April. During the greater portion of this time money in the open market has been a drug, outside banks having discounted freely as low as, and even lower, than 1 per cent. Latterly, however, money has been gradually stiffening, and to-day's cables quote three months' bills at 1⅝@1¾ per cent. During the week the Bank has made a gain of £163,000, but £260,000 is reported as having been withdrawn "on balance" to-day. The proportion of reserve to liabilities is now 46⅛ per cent. Bar silver is quoted at 56 pence the ounce. The last quotation of old fives in Frankfort was 105⅞. In Paris the French five per cent Rentes opened at 106.55 and closed at 106.35, as against 106.50 last night. The Bank of France gained during the week 10,000,000 francs. Yesterday's Treasury call of $10,000,000 old issue, which being satisfied will leave outstanding 106,538,650, and the more satisfactory political aspect, exercised a weakening effect on the gold market, and the rates were down to 101⅛@104⅝, as against 105⅞ on Monday. This is the lowest point touched since June 11, 1862, when the price was 103¾. On gold loans the rates were 1½ carrying and flat. Foreign exchange was exceedingly dull and the market weak; selling rates were 4.83½@4.83¾ for long, and 4.84¼@4.84½ demand sterling bills. The nominal rates are given below. The Assistant Treasurer paid out $1,976,785 in coin interest on the public debt and $93,000 in redemption of called bonds. To-day's business at the Gold Clearing Department at the Bank of the State of New-York covered: Gold cleared, $29,715,000; gold balances, $1,317,304; currency balances, $1,122,409. Time loans are not quotable. The following were the rates of exchange on New-York, at the undermentioned cities: Savannah, buying ⅜, selling ½; Charleston, scarce; buying ⅛@¼ premium; Cincinnati steady; buying par, selling ¼; St. Louis, par; Chicago, par to 25 discount; New-Orleans, commercial ⅜, bank ¼. The United States Treasurer at Washington received to-day $500,000 National bank notes for redemption. The customs receipts were $300,000, and internal revenue receipts $300,000. The following is the Clearing-house statement to-day: Currency exchanges, $75,073,847; currency balances, $3,136,384; gold exchanges, $8,380,289; gold balances, $929,522.

There was a further decline in those United States bonds likely to be affected by the process of refunding, coupon 5-20s of 1865, new issue, selling at 108, and 1867s to 111, these bonds being freely dealt in, and later rallying to 111¼. The new fives were down to 109⅛, and a large business was done in the new 4½s per cents at 105½@105⅝. Coupon 6s of 1881 sold at 111⅝, and 10-40s at 112½. We annex latest street quotations:
