THE COURTS.

THE MONTAUK INDIAN PROPERTY.

Robert M. Grinnell and Sophie his wife, have brought a suit in Suffolk County against about 250 defendants to divide the lands in Suffolk County, near Montauk, which have been in one tract for 200 years. These lands form the peninsula beyond Amagansett, which was ceded by the Montauk Indians in the XVII Century, and has since remained undivided in the technical possession of the "Proprietors of the undivided lands in the town of East Hampton." The remnant of the Montauk tribe of Indians still retains some rights, including the privileges of cutting wood and of drawing an annuity of $5 a year each. These Indians now occupy a portion of the lands included in the original cession. The form of ownership is somewhat curious. The full shares number thirty-five, and are rated at $40 each, but these have been divided and subdivided until one of the defendants owns a sixpence and one owns one penny and seven eighths, while others own various amounts up to $80, 188 Tbd. What the value of a share is may be judged from the fact that several full $40 shares have been mortgaged for $2,000 a share. The suit is brought by Olin, Rives & Montgomery.

IRREGULAR CORPORATIONS.

A suit was brought by the Attorney-General to wind up the Columbia Car-Spring Company, on the ground of irregularities in its incorporation. The defense was that one Haughian was the instigator of the suit: that he organized the company and committed the irregularities complained of, and that Francis H. Andrews and Benjamin Cloney took charge of it when Haughian had nearly ruined it, saved it, and put it in the way of a moderate prosperity. Judge Donohue, in Supreme Court Chambers, however, decides, on a motion to continue a receivership, that the Company must be wound up. He says that it is evident that the original fraud complained of was by persons not now in the Company, but on the application of the Attorney-General that fact cannot make no difference. The responsibility lies with him, as the representative of the State, to close up all corporations not properly formed or formed in fraud of the law. It is the misfortune of those who have purchased the fraud, but that cannot make the original wrong right. The parties in possession are proceeding in defiance of the law without filing the necessary statements. It is clear that whether from ignorance or design, this company is conducted as a partnership in the name of a corporation, and the public and all persons who, on the faith of its corporate name might buy stock, should be protected. To do this no way is open except to close it up.

S. W. Holcomb appeared for the Attorney-General; M. P. Stafford for the defendants.

CIVIL NOTES.

The case of Mrs. Musgrave against John H. Sherwood, reported in yesterday's TRIBUNE, was submitted to Judge Westbrook in Supreme Court Chambers yesterday. Herbert H. Turner closed the argument for the defendant and William A. Beach for the plaintiff.

Mary Henrietta Phillips sued her husband, John Arthur Phillips, for a divorce. They were married in 1869, and have one child. She charged the husband with adultery in Montreal. Judge Donohue in Supreme Court Chambers has granted her application for a divorce.

The testimony in the suit of Daniel E. Sickles against Benjamin Richardson and others to prevent the defendants from using bonds of the Chicago, Saginaw and Canada Railroad Company, claimed by Mr. Richardson, was closed yesterday in Supreme Court Special Term, before Judge Donohue, and the argument of the case was adjourned to Saturday of next week.

CRIMINAL NOTES.

Patrick Hogan, of No. 20 State-st., when returning from Jones's Wood Tuesday night, was attacked by three men, who attempted to rob him. He was knocked down and severely injured. The robbers fled when a policeman approached, but William Bennett was captured and committed for trial, without bail, at the Yorkville Police Court yesterday.

Thomas Kennedy was divorced from his wife a few months ago, and when the woman refused to allow him to see his child there yesterday, he became so violent that his arrest was ordered. At the Jefferson Market Police Court he was sent to the Penitentiary for one month. Frederick Keicher, who stabbed a fellow-workman, Frederick Mangold, was held to await the result of the injuries, which are not serious.

Writs of habeas corpus and certiorari were obtained by Mr. Howe from Judge Westbrook, yesterday, for the admission to bail in the case of Matthew Cunningham, committed on a charge of burglary; J. Whalen, charged with conspiracy; Joseph Fellon, jr., committed for burglary; James Lynch, for homicide; George Hardcastle, for burglary; James Barns, for robbery, and Daniel Brown, for burglary. These persons were committed by police magistrates in default of bail, and the amount of bail required is claimed to be excessive. The hearing will take place to-day.

At Essex Market Police Court yesterday, before Justice Murray, Albert A. Woolstein, a man of good address, was brought up on a charge of perpetrating several small larcenies and frauds on dealers in laces, novelties, etc. He was formerly in the employ of B. I. Rosenfield, of No. 316 Canal-st., who charges him with collecting the proceeds of a bill then a month in arrears, and converting the money to his own use. Among those who claim to have been swindled by him is Louis Nelson, of Avenue A. He was held in default of $1,000 bail.
