THE COURTS.

MISS MORGAN'S BASELESS CHARGES.

THE CASE AGAINST S. M. STILWELL, JR., DISMISSED.

Silas M. Stilwell, jr., appeared at the Fifty-seventh-st. Police Court, yesterday, to answer the charge of abandonment made by Mattie M. Morgan, who claimed to be his wife. The woman did not appear at the opening of the court, but was afterward brought in by Officer Quigley, of the Twenty-eighth Precinct, who had found her much intoxicated, and behaving in a disorderly manner on Fifty-eighth-st., near Third-ave., at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. She had been taken to the Police Station and kept in a cell until fit to appear in court. There was abundant evidence that the woman was dissolute in her habits. Justice Otterbourg, who listened to her statements, believed her to be somewhat insane.

Mr. Stilwell stated that the woman came to his law office several months ago, and asked for the privilege of doing some copying, representing herself to be in financial distress. She was given some work, but failed to give satisfaction, and employment was afterwards refused. She grew importunate in her demands, and on one occasion refused to leave the office until the janitor had been called to put her out. Justice Otterbourg dismissed the complaint against Mr. Stilwell, and also dismissed the charge of intoxication and disorderly conduct preferred by officer Quigley against the woman, who, when arrested, had given the name of Lizzie Stilwell. In discharging her from custody, the Justice warned her not to appear before him again on a similar charge.

A NATIONAL GUARD CAPTAIN'S BIAS.

The proceedings of four members of the 71st Regiment, formerly belonging to Company A—which was broken up, the members being distributed among the other companies—to test by habeas corpus the right to impose militia fines for their non-service in the other companies, was before Judge Donohue yesterday, on a motion to compel Captain Demarets to answer certain questions. Captain Demarets had admitted that he took a strong interest in the proceeding, but the questions were avowedly put to show that he was at the bottom of the proceeding, and that, being still a captain in the militia, he was guilty of stirring up a mutiny. Judge Donohue held that, having shown the captain's bias, the respondents could go no farther in these questions in that respect.

SUSTAINING AN ORDER OF ARREST.

The suit of Francis Burbridge, and others, against Peter Hart, and others, was brought both to foreclose a mechanic's lien and for a personal judgment against the defendants, and in it the plaintiffs got an order of arrest against Mr. Hart on the ground that he had obtained building materials by a false pretence that he owned the lot on which a building was put. On a motion to vacate this order on the ground of the inconsistency of the causes of action, Judge J. F. Daly, in the Court of Common Pleas, held that as a case for false pretences was clearly stated in the complaint, the order of arrest could be maintained under the new Code, whether or not the claim to foreclose a mechanic's lien could be sustained in connection with it.

A FATHER-IN-LAW'S GUARDIANSHIP.

A suit was begun some time ago by Louisa R. Mangam to recover $1,500 from Dennis C Mangam. She is the daughter-in-law of Mr. Mangam, and says that when she married his son her father-in-law was appointed her special guardian—she being an infant—to receive her share of the proceeds of the sale of the Pavilion Hotel, at New-Brighton. The defendant says he paid it all out for her benefit. She says he may have paid it to her husband, but not for her benefit. An application was made, yesterday, to Judge Robinson, in Common Pleas, Special Term, for an order of arrest of Mr. Mangam, on the ground that he is about to depart for Jacksonville, Florida.

TRIAL OF PATERSON BANK OFFICERS.

In the trial of Directors Rose and Preston, of the Merchants' Loan and Trust Company, at Paterson, David Henry testified that Robert McCullough stated that if Preston would pay him the amount the bank owed him, he would not appear before the Grand Jury, and that if he, McCullough, did not press the matter no one else would. Preston said he would not be blackmailed by McCullough or any other person, as he had done nothing wrong. J. A. Lewis, the expert, was recalled, and testified that E. K. Rose, one of the defendants, was charged 24 per cent interest annually upon his overdrafts during the nine months prior to the suspension of the bank.

A CLAIM ON SEIZED GOODS.

The trial of the suit of John B. Smith against Kayne, Spring, Dale & Co. was begun yesterday before Judge Van Brunt. The plaintiff says he advanced large sums to his father-in-law to enable him to buy goods for a business in Texas. That business being unprofitable, the goods, or such as were left, were brought back and turned over in part settlement of the plaintiff's claim. The defendants, creditors of the father-in-law, followed the goods here, seized them under attachment, and sold them. The defendants claim that the sale to Smith was fraudulent. The case is still on. Blumenstiel & Ascher and A. J. Requier appeared for plaintiff; Chittenden & Fiero for defendants.

A SMALL QUESTION FOR A JURY.

The suit of Mary A. Pearsall against Thomas D. Rivera, tried yesterday before Judge Lawrence, was for $160 rent. The defence was that the defendant had made repairs and alterations at the request of the plaintiff to nearly the whole amount of the rent. After hearing the evidence Judge Lawrence ruled that on the plaintiff's admissions the defendant was entitled to a deduction of $88 08, leaving only $71 92 due. On defendant's own statement he was liable for $63 42. The difference of $8 50 was a question for the jury to decide on the evidence. The jury found a verdict for the plaintiff for $63 42. The jury fees were $12.

A RUFFIAN DANGEROUSLY STABBED.

During a quarrel in a saloon at No. 175 Greene-st., early yesterday morning, William Shaw, age thirty-one, of No. 121 Sullivan-st., stabbed Thomas King, age twenty-eight, of No. 34 West Houston-st., just below the left groin, causing a very severe if not fatal wound. Both men are notorious Seventh ward ruffians, and have given the police a great deal of trouble. King recently returned from Sing Sing. Shaw was arrested and held in $1,000 bail, at the Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday.

CIVIL NOTES.

Judge Donohue dismissed yesterday the suit of George Gerunder against Oswald Ottendorfer for $100,000 for alleged libel, on the ground of want of prosecution.

Barlow & Olney paid $22,866 67 into the City Treasury yesterday, the amount received in the suit of Jane Deverna against Frederick W. Hofele.

In suits brought by James G. Wells and Henry Hents against Henry M. Cutter & Co., the defaulting cotton brokers, the first for $7,400, and the other for $8,600, Judge Donohue granted yesterday orders of publication.

Francis Girard, who has had charge of Mabel Leonard, appeared, yesterday, before Judge Donohue to surrender her, but Judge Donohue requested him to continue to act until he could find another guardian, and remanded her to his charge.

In the suit of Emma Cheseborough against Henry F. Daly and Arabella T. Daly, to restrain the defendants from collecting rents for two of the lots on which the Windsor Hotel is built, Judge Donohue approved yesterday the bond for costs given by the plaintiff as a non-resident.

Mrs. Margaret Shea, of Harlem, obtained a divorce from her husband, Thomas Shea, on the ground of adultery. No alimony was asked, and Mrs. Shea took charge of the children. Mr. Shea gave his wife a fine house on One-hundred-and-twenty-seventh-st. Now Mrs. Shea asks her husband to pay the bill for the children's two years' board. Judge McGown, in the Harlem Civil Court, has granted a motion to transfer the case to a higher court.

Judge Donohue, in Supreme Court, Chambers, denied yesterday a motion to vacate the injunction in the suit of Jane Deverna against Frederick W. Hofele, forbidding the defendant to dispose of the "properties" of the play called "Baba." The motion was based on the ground that E. G. Cotton, one of the plaintiff's sureties, was not responsible, being only a doorkeeper at Niblo's Garden. The answering affidavits were that he was manager of the theatre.

An application, of a somewhat unusual nature, has been made by the administrator of Thomas Jones. Fanny Jones, a daughter, was entitled to $411 as her share, but as she was under age, it was deposited with the Surrogate. She died in California, and her father's administrator was appointed her administrator. He applied to have the fund turned over to him as her administrator without being put to the expense of getting out letters of administration here. Surrogate Calvin decided yesterday that though a private individual might safely pay over the money to a California administrator, a court cannot, and denied the application.

BROOKLYN INVESTIGATIONS.

COMMISSIONER FLAHERTY'S DEFENCE—CHARGES IN THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

Fire Commissioner Gallagher, of Brooklyn, testified before the Flaherty Investigating Committee yesterday that Patrick Hayes was a bell-ringer at the Sixteenth Ward tower. The witness, at Swift's request, asked Mr. Flaherty to use his influence to secure the offal contract for Swift. This closed the case for Mr. Swift.

Alderman Ray, for the defence, said that he could remember no conversation with Patrick Hayes in regard to awarding the offal contract; Hayes never spoke to him in the interest of Swift.

Patrick Hayes testified that he never had a conversation with Mr. Swift in reference to the contract for removing dead animals. He never advised Swift to put in a bid, and never told Swift that Mr. Flaherty would vote for him. The witness favored Matthew Smith. Mr. Swift never paid him $2,000 or any other sum of money. He corroborated Andrew J. White's statement in reference to the agreement between them. For taking care of Mr. White's interests in Brooklyn the witness was to receive $1,800 a year for five years.

Commissioner Flaherty's testimony was, in substance, as follows: "I never advised or suggested the agreement between Hayes and White, and never knew of its existence until I saw it in a newspaper. I never suspected that there were any negotiations between Hayes and Swift or White. I favored giving the contract to Mr. Swift on account of my friendship for him and on account of my knowledge of his facilities for doing the work. I never told Swift to see Hayes about the contract, or that any arrangement made with Hayes would be satisfactory to me. I never expected any profit from this contract." The lobby applauded Mr. Flaherty as he left the witness stand.

The case was then submitted to the committee without argument. Alderman Murtha, the chairman, announced that the report would be made at the meeting of the Common Council on Monday.

Messrs. Stilwell, Tierney, John L. Ryder, Anderson and Snyder, of the Kings County Board of Supervisors, were appointed a committee, yesterday, to investigate charges of alleged corruption in reference to a scheme for ventilating the Court House. It is alleged that a clerk in the City Hall, named Black, combined with a Mr. Merkle to sell to the county a patent ventilator.
