Of Media, a leading journal says: "The abominations which surround so many towns do not reach us. The charter of Media, which prohibits the public sale of intoxicating drinks within the borough, has driven away from us the evil influences which follow in its wake. Our boys can go about without coming in contact with taverns or saloons. The beauty of our location and healthful surroundings have won for Media the admiration of all who have visited it. The highlands upon which the town is built are free from miasmatic influences. We have churches of Friends, Methodist, Episcopal, Presbyterian, Baptist and Catholic. The railroad facilities are good—thirteen trains to Philadelphia daily—while from New-York the distance is now but three hours, and from Washington and Baltimore the time is cut down to the quickest possible speed."

Bayard Taylor said: "I take great pleasure in recommending to parents the Academy of Mr. Swithin C. Shortlidge."

Judge George M. Van Hoesen, of New-York, says: "Shortlidge's Media Academy affords the best instruction."

Charles C. Leland ("Hans Breitmann") says: "It is an institution liked by pupils as well as parents."

Colonel Richard J. Hinton says: "Parents will find it not only a good school, but a homelike, cheerful establishment, where rational ideas of training combine to make that wholesome mental, moral and physical atmosphere which is so necessary to the growth of healthy youth."

The Rev. John Long says: "Your attention to the duties of your position must make your school the serious and intelligent choice of parents and guardians."

Hon. Thomas V. Cooper, Pennsylvania Senate, says: "I regard it as one of the finest in the State, and one in every way suited to fit a boy for any college. The principal and his assistants are well-known educators."

The New-York Graphic says: "Particular care is taken of young boys, a home like being provided for them not usually found in boarding-schools."

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 1, 1879.—S. C. Shortlidge, esq., Media, Penn.—Dear Sir: I take great pleasure in expressing my satisfaction with the care bestowed upon my boy at your school, and am glad to be able to commend the institution to all parents and guardians who desire a comfortable home for their sons, where their education, health and morals are so admirably provided for. Very truly yours, CHARLES H. T. COLLIS.

The Hon. Fernando Wood, Member of Congress and ex-Mayor of New-York City, has had two sons at Swithin C. Shortlidge's Media Academy for two years, and has entered three for the coming year.

Mr. Wood writes: "I cheerfully consent to the use of my name as reference. My boys will return to you after their vacations."

Governor Routt, Colorado; Chief Justice Hawley, Nevada; General Robinson, Arkansas; General Martin, M. C., Illinois; Senator Rudd, Wisconsin; J. Lee Hopkins, Tennessee; Colonel Tilghman, Maryland; Commodore Guest, Commander Hooker and Captain Breese, U. S. N., Professor Blanchard, U. S. N., and Professor Stanwood, S. C. Shortlidge's Academy, having had sons at the school.

The Rev. J. A. Chilus, D. D., of Philadelphia, has a son at the Academy, and "is glad to recommend it."

The Philadelphia Times says: "Mr. S. C. Shortlidge has been long and favorably known as a successful teacher."

The Media Record says: "Mr. S. C. Shortlidge's boarding-school must command public attention."

The Media American says: "Altogether, the past year was the most successful Mr. Shortlidge has had. The class of young men and boys was unusually excellent. The students won the respect of our citizens by their uniformly gentlemanly demeanor; they always showed a dignified self-respect not generally characteristic of schoolboys, which speaks well for the discipline and influence of the academy. We gladly make record of this, as it was noticed by our people, and favorably commented upon by all. But it is not surprising that Mr. Shortlidge has built up a first-class institution in our borough. He is rewarded in his work, scarcely ever leaving the academy for even an hour at a time during school sessions; every department thus feels at all times the master's presence. We predict for the Media Academy increased popularity and usefulness."

We heartily indorse the above well-merited notice from the Media American, and commend Mr. S. C. Shortlidge's Academy to public favor:

Rev. EDWARD LOUNSBERY, late Rector of Protestant Episcopal Church, Media, Penn.

Rev. EDWARD H. ROBBINS, Pastor of Media Presbyterian Church.

Rev. JOSEPH H. TAYLOR GRAY, Pastor of Media Methodist Episcopal Church.

Hon. JOHN M. BROOMALL, ex-Member of Congress and former Judge of the District.

Colonel JOSEPH W. HAWLEY, Cashier of First National Bank.

W. Y. HOOPES, FRED. FAIRLAMB, firm of Fairlamb & Hoopes, Bankers.

THOMAS J. HALDEMAN, President of the First National Bank.

EDWIN FUSSELL, M. D., HENRY C. HOWARD, Hon. CHARLES D. MANLEY, CHAS. E. WELLES, Major I. L. HALDEMAN, and many other citizens of Media, Penn.

ST. PAUL'S SCHOOL, RIVERDALE-ON-HUDSON, N. Y. Is a Boarding-School in every respect of the highest grade. Thorough intellectual training, not only in the Classics, but equally in the Mathematics, is aimed at by the Principal. Habits of prompt obedience and of order and system are cultivated by Military discipline. Above all, a sound, moral, and religious character is developed by bringing the pupils under the influence of the Church. Riverdale stands almost alone in its qualification as a site for a boys' boarding-school. It is not even a village—not a single store or shop of any kind is in the place. It consists exclusively of gentlemen's residences. In point of healthfulness it is unexceptionable. The school building was erected expressly to meet the wants of a first-class school. Abundant means are employed in French, German, Drawing, Dancing, Fencing, Boxing, Piano, Violin, &c., without extra charge. Boats for boating, &c. School reopens September 4, 1879. Catalogues may be had on application to DR. JNO. B. HAYS, 22 East 40th-st., N. Y., or to Riverdale-on-Hudson.
