THE WILL OF JAMES LENOX.

MOST OF HIS WEALTH GIVEN TO A SISTER. SMALL BEQUESTS TO THE OTHER SISTERS AND TO NEPHEWS AND NIECES.

The will of the late James Lenox, by which his immense estate is distributed, was offered for probate in the Surrogate's Office yesterday. The will appears to have been written by the testator himself, and the handwriting and language are peculiar. Following are its provisions in full:

In the name of God, amen. I, James Lenox, of the City of New-York, do make and declare this to be my last will and testament: According to the ancient, good and laudable custom of which my heart and understanding recognize the propriety, I bequeath my soul to God, hoping for His mercy through the only merits of my Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ, trusting that through the sanctifying influences of His Holy Spirit He has made it in some measure meet for His presence and gracious acceptance.

First—I constitute and appoint my sister, Henrietta A. Lenox, of the said City of New-York, to be sole executrix of this my will.

Second—Whereas the Legislature of the State of New-York, by an act passed on the 20th day of January, in the year 1870, upon my application, did incorporate certain persons therein named under the title of "The Trustees of the Lenox Library," for the purpose mentioned in the said act; and whereas the sum of $200,000 mentioned in the said act has been assigned and transferred to the said the trustees of the Lenox Library, and a site for said library building has also been conveyed to them; but the said library building is not completed, nor have the manuscripts, printed books, engravings and maps, statuary, paintings, and other works of art mentioned in the said act been actually delivered to the said trustees. Now, therefore, in order to remove all doubts which may arise in case the said library building shall not be completed at the time of my death, I hereby authorize and empower my said executrix, in case the sum mentioned in the said act to be expended in the erection of the said library building and furnishing the same, including also any other sums of money which I may have given in addition before my death, should not be sufficient for the purpose aforesaid, to expend out of my estate such further sums of money as she may see fit to complete said building and to furnish the same in a suitable manner. And I give and bequeath to the said trustees of the Lenox Library my manuscripts and other articles mentioned in said act, and direct my said executrix to deliver them to said trustees when and as soon as said library building shall be in a condition to receive them, excepting always such family portraits and books as my said executrix shall choose to reserve for herself and retain in her own possession.

Third—I give and bequeath to my niece, Elizabeth S. Maitland, the daughter of my deceased sister, Eliza S. Maitland, the sum of $5,000; I give and bequeath to Janet S. Belknap, the daughter of my said deceased sister, the sum of $20,000; and I give and bequeath to Robert L. Maitland, the son of my said deceased sister, the sum of $5,000.

Fourth—I give and bequeath to Robert L. Banks, the son of my deceased sister, Isabella H. Banks, the sum of $10,000; I give and bequeath to James L. Banks, the son of my said deceased sister, the sum of $20,000.

Fifth—I give and bequeath to Robert L. Kennedy, the son of my sister, Rachel C. Kennedy, widow of David S. Kennedy, late of the same place, deceased, the sum of $5,000. I give and bequeath to Rachel Kennedy, the daughter of my said sister Rachel, the sum of $20,000; and I give and bequeath to Mary L. Kennedy, the daughter of my said sister Rachel, the sum of $20,000.

Sixth—I give and bequeath to my sister, Mary L. Sheafe, the wife of John Fisher Sheafe, of New-Hamburg, in the County of Dutchess and State of New-York, the sum of $20,000.

Seventh—I give and bequeath to my sister, Alethea L. Donaldson, the wife of James Donaldson, of New-Hamburg, in the County and State aforesaid, the sum of $20,000.

Eighth—I give and bequeath the following sums of money next hereafter named, that is to say: First—To each of my said brothers-in-law, John Fisher Sheafe and James Donaldson, the sum of $5,000. Second—To Aaron B. Belknap, the husband of my niece, Janet L. Belknap, hereinbefore named, the sum of $4,000. Third—To James Bearer, now, and for many years past, living in my family, the sum of $1,000; to James Geddes, also living in my employment for many years, the sum of $500; to Letitia Hanson, now, and for a long time past, living in my household, the sum of $500; and to Sarah Ann Hanson, her sister, also living in my family, the sum of $250.

Ninth—It is my will and intention that the several sums of money above bequeathed shall be raised and paid by my said executrix as soon after my decease as can be done, and if any of the aforesaid persons to whom I have hereby bequeathed any portion of my estate shall depart this life before my decease, then such portion of my said estate so bequeathed to him or her so dying shall, on the death of every such person, revert to and form part of my residuary estate, to be disposed of as hereinafter directed with respect to my said residuary estate.

Lastly—I give, devise and bequeath to my said above named sister and executrix, Henrietta A. Lenox, and to her heirs, executors, administrators and assigns for ever, the house in which we reside and the stable attached thereto, with everything contained in or belonging or appertaining to them, and all the rest and residue and remainder of the real and personal estate whatsoever and wheresoever of which I may die seized or possessed, or to which I may in any manner be entitled.

In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal this 14th day of May, in the year of Our Lord, 1870. (Signed) JAMES LENOX.

The witnesses are James S. Huggins, Walter Edwards, Jr., and Hamilton Odell.
