LITERARY NOTES.

Mr. Ingram's Life of Edgar Allan Poe is just published in London. It comprises two volumes. The Pall Mall Gazette, after pointing out some of its drawbacks, says that in spite of them it contains much that is new and interesting.

The Hibbert lectures for 1881 will be delivered by Mr. T. W. Rhys Davids, who is about to publish a work on the "Buddhist Jataka Tales," which will have an introduction on the connection between the fable and story literature of the East and that of the West. His Hibbert subject will be "Buddhism." Charles Scribner's Sons, who have already published Max Müller's Hibbert's course and M. Renouf's, the latter of which is just out, will also publish Mr. Davids's.

The interest in Shelley, which was revived a few years ago, seems to continue unabated. A volume of selected poems is just out in Macmillan & Co.'s Golden Treasury Series; there is an edition de luxe of his minor poems from another English publisher, and Macmillan's Magazine, which had an article about his last days at Spezia in the May number, has another called "Some Thoughts on Shelley," by Mr. Stopford A. Brooke, in the number for June.

"A HIT IN FICTION."

A FAMOUS VICTORY.

BY AN ANONYMOUS AUTHOR.

368 pp. 12mo, Cloth. Price, $1 25.

"Of the author's style it is scarcely possible to speak too highly. It is brilliant and captivating to a degree that would attract attention to the book if the story it tells were far less interesting than it is."—[Detroit Free Press.

"To show what sort of an occupant we may expect in the White House unless the machine is restrained, unless the legitimate fruit of our present public life is prevented from ripening, is the author's task. * * * 'A FAMOUS VICTORY' is throughout a piece of scrupulous drawing."—[The Dial.

"The scene of 'A Fool's Errand' lies chiefly in the South; that of 'A FAMOUS VICTORY' is laid wholly in the North. Both have been written by men who have had personal experiences, which they have woven into the web of their respective romances; each is a keen observer, and the author of 'A FAMOUS VICTORY' is the keener of the two."—Chicago Times.

MINES AND MINING.

FRIDAY, June 18—P. M.

The dealings in mining shares to-day showed more spirit than for a long time past. For the good properties there was a general improvement in prices, conspicuous more for its steadiness than for the amount of the advances. Chrysolite rose from 18⅝ to 19⅞@19½. Little Chief from 10½ to 11⅛@10¾, and Hukill from 1.85 to 1.90. Silver Cliff was firmer at 5, Climax at 2.45@2.50, Amie at 1.10, and South Hite at 1.75. Bodie shares were weaker, Bulwer at 4 and South Bulwer at 1.10. Among the specialties of the American Board, Silver Nugget was active but declined to 1.95. Durango sold at 60@55, Auburn and Rock Creek at 1@1.05, Vandewater at 1.10@1.15, Barbee and Walker at 5¼@5@5⅛, Battle Creek at 5¼@5¼@5, Tombstone at 5@4⅞, and Mayflower at 1.35@1.30. At the old board May Belle continued to be a leading feature in the dealings; it opened at 55, against 47, yesterday's last figure, and after selling up to 58 closed at 50. Calaveras was weaker with sales down to 67, and Gold Placer fell to 64. The Comstock shares were fairly active and firm. Goodshaw, with less than the usual amount of business, was steady at about 2½. We note small sales of Ophir at 7¼, Mexican at 8¼@8⅜, La Plata at 5¼, and Horn Silver at 16. The markets closed firm.
