LITERARY NOTES.

An account of the life and works of Corot, by Alfred Rabout, is being published in Paris, and will contain many reproductions of his paintings.

A new and beautiful edition of the "Pilgrim's Progress," with 100 illustrations by Frederick Barnard, will soon be ready at A. D. F. Randolph & Co's. It is a quarto volume of 276 pages.

Miss Kate Field has introduced several famous foreigners, including Fechter, W. S. Gilbert and Arthur Sullivan, to the American public, on the eve of their arrival, through the medium of her clever pen and the magazines. She has written an article for Scribner on Mr. Archibald Forbes, who will soon begin his lecturing tour in America.

San Francisco boasts of newspapers printed in ten foreign languages, including the Chinese. The Voz Portugueza is the latest acquisition, and there are a great many natives of Portugal in the State to read it. Several hundred of them are coast whalers. They keep watchmen on elevated places to scan the sea horizon, and venture out in row-boats when a whale is sighted.

Mrs. L. B. Walford is as charming in personal appearance as the greatest admirer of "Mr. Smith" and "Troublesome Daughters" could expect. She is apparently in years between forty and forty-five. Her handsome face ordinarily wears a calm, kindly, judicial expression, and humor lurks about the eye and about a mouth denoting strength of character. She has the manner of a lady used to the best society, and her finely shaped head is supported by a stately and perfectly symmetrical figure.

It was Schiller who foretold the locomotive, in his play of "Die Piccolomini." Even Captain Eads has been forestalled by a dramatist in his scheme of a ship railway across the Isthmus. In Fielding's "Coffee-House Politician," Politick, who had contrived a plan to pay off the debts of the nation without a penny of money, says: "And how do you think it is to be compassed? Why, by procuring a machine to carry ships by land about a hundred miles, and so prosecute the East India trade thro' the Mediterranean."

The Putnams have a unique book in press, which will be ready in September. It is a Japanese historical romance, celebrated at home, which has been translated by Mr. Edward Greey, an Englishman, long a resident of Japan, and who has been assisted by Shinshiro Saito, a young Japanese who is practising law in Boston. The book will make about 300 pages, and will contain the thirty full-plate illustrations of the Japanese edition. The cover is very brilliant and after a Japanese design. "The Loyal Ronins" is the title, the Ronins being an order in Japanese knighthood.

M. Sarcey, the witty dramatic critic, has levelled his lance-like pen at M. Taine's "system," and jousts it as follows: "If the Monarchists lied in the closing days of the eighteenth century as they lie now about the Republicans, what are we to think of your famous documentary evidence on the Revolution, since you took the greater portion of it from Monarchical sources? Are we to believe that the passions and hatreds of those days perverted facts, and that half your conclusions are wrong? Suppose that a Taine of the twentieth century takes a resolutist account of the celebration of the Fourteenth of July Festival of this year for gospel, would he not be entirely wrong?"

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17.—Large holders here of Father de Smet have been greatly agitated since Saturday, over an alleged fraudulent purchase of Wyoming Water Company, in which Archibald Borland is heavily interested. It is claimed that the decision in the suit between the Homestake and the De Smet left this interest of little or no value, and hence the attempt to saddle the loss on the De Smet stockholders. To accomplish this it is said, Borland and Harmon resigned, and had two straw men appointed as trustees in their places, and, controlling another, made the purchase for the De Smet, agreeing to pay $200,000, and to assume an indebtedness of nearly as much more. D. O. Mills and Thomas Bell are actively engaged trying to prevent the purchase, and have telegraphed East to secure a sufficient number of holders to join in legal proceedings for that purpose. Borland, it is said, promised on Saturday to have the action rescinded, but now refuses to do so.

There is a large increase of business in the Gold Hill stocks, the (Comstock) market continuing strong, with heavy transactions. Belcher and Yellow Jacket are among the favorites. A temporary reaction is anticipated. A telegram from Hoffman, superintendent of the Caborca mines, Sonora, states that the Santa Rosalie shaft is down 125 feet, carrying ore assaying from $100 to $300 per ton, one-fourth gold. Grand Prize has declared a dividend of 25 cents.

LEADVILLE, Colorado, Aug. 17.—The jury disagreed in the case of the Smuggler against the Robinson Consolidated, tried at Breckenridge. This is considered a virtual success for the Robinson. The Climax has shut down all work, except sinking on the south shaft. The output of Little Chief now averages about eighty tons daily. The strike in the Big Pittsburg is considered important. The ore is high grade galena, running 280 ounces silver and 56 per cent lead per ton. Another strike of ore in the Yankee Doodle claim, belonging to the Carbonate Hill Company, reported yesterday, is confirmed. The ore body, as far as penetrated, is 28 inches thick, lying next the limestone, at a depth of 300 feet.

TUCSON, Arizona, Aug. 17.—The Girard shaft is now down 260 feet in porphyry and mixed carbonates. No cross-cut will be made until a depth of 300 feet has been attained. The Empire Hoisting Works are about completed, and are among the finest on the hill. The 20-stamp custom mill of the Boston and Arizona Smelting and Reduction Company is completed, and will be running early in September. The Tombstone Milling and Mining Company shipped $21,502 in bullion during the past week; Contention Mill, $12,690. In Tombstone District fifty stamps are now crushing ore, and seventy stamps more are in course of erection.

Eight bars of bullion, valued at $10,439 36, were received in this city from the mines yesterday.

At a meeting of the trustees of the Spring Valley Hydraulic Company on Monday, it was decided to pass the dividend at present, and devote the net earnings of the recent clean-up ($21,000) to prosecute work on the tunnel more vigorously, and pay the current expenses of the mine. The gross product of the clean-up was valued at $80,000.

At the depth of 150 feet, drifts from the shaft of the Consolidated Arizona carry a pay streak 4 feet 8 inches wide of ore, which will mill over $200 per ton. There are over 200 tons at the mill, which is finished and will begin running this week.

In the Bonanza Chief three men mine and place on the dump 35 tons of ore daily, and there is no sign of penetrating the ore body in any direction. The mine can supply 100 tons of ore daily, averaging $12 per ton, which costs about $3 per ton to reduce. The New-York office yesterday received another gold brick valued at $4,000.

Manager of Chrysolite reports, under date of August 9, that the ore bodies, generally near the Roberts' shaft, never looked so well as then.

For the week ending August 7 the average pulp assay of ores from the Standard was $55 55; shipments on July account, $164,668. The main shaft was down 910 feet.

On the east drift 300-foot level of the Empire (Utah), where the ledge was recently cut, an average of four samples of ore assayed $176 50. The width of the ledge has not yet been determined.

The new smelter of the Alta Montana will start about September 7, and furnace No. 3 will be fired up about the 20th inst. All the new machinery has been received except the crusher. The average product of one smelter, with small engine, is about $1,256 per day. The Comet Mine, belonging to the Alta Montana, is producing about 30 tons of galena ore per day, averaging $65 silver and 60 per cent lead, from a vein carrying 12 feet of solid mineral.

The following mining companies now have mills or concentrating works in course of erection, and many of them nearly or quite completed: The Bull Domingo, Bassick, Plata Verde and Palmetto, in Colorado; the Olsen, Green Mountain, Auburn and Rock Creek, Providence Consolidated, and Julian, in California; the Central Arizona, Harshaw, Mohave, Irene, and Consolidated Arizona, in Arizona; the Empire, in Utah, and the Crowell, in North Carolina. The Green Mountain is simply adding to its milling capacity, and, like it, the other companies will all probably be paying dividends before November 1. Some of them will be shipping bullion before the end of the present month. The Black Hills Placer Mining Company and the Yankee Fork Gravel Company have their ditches and flumes nearly ready for the giants and will begin washing within a month. Other mines not enumerated above have contracted for mill machinery, which will be delivered and in operation before the snow flies.
