THE NOVEMBER ELECTIONS.

FIVE PARTIES IN THE FIELD.

THE PRESIDENTIAL, STATE AND CONGRESSIONAL TICKETS—15 GOVERNORS AND 254 CONGRESSMEN TO BE ELECTED—NEW LEGISLATURES TO BE CHOSEN IN 21 STATES.

Five Presidential tickets will be voted for next Tuesday. The Republicans and Democrats have electoral tickets in all the States, the Greenback party in 32, and the Prohibitionists in 13 or more. The nominations of the Anti-Masonic party, which cast 529 votes in Illinois, Kansas, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin in 1876, have attracted very little attention. Of the 293 members of the XLVIIth Congress, 39 have been elected in four States, and on Tuesday 254 members will be elected in 34 States; two vacancies in the XLVIth Congress—one in New-York and one in Alabama—will be filled at the same time. Twenty-one States will elect members of the Legislature, and in 16 of these States the new Legislatures will be called upon to elect United States Senators for the terms beginning next March. Governors will be elected in 15 States, and minor State officers in four States. Constitutional amendments will be voted upon in 8 States, and in 3 States the question of calling Constitutional Conventions will be acted upon. The several Presidential, State and Congressional tickets are given herewith.

THE PRESIDENTIAL TICKETS.

The five Presidential tickets before the people this year are given below:

Republican.
For President..Gen. James Abram Garfield, of Ohio.
Vice-President..Gen. Chester Allan Arthur, of New-York.
Democratic.
For President..Gen. Winfield Scott Hancock, of Pennsylvania.
Vice-President..The Hon. William H. English, of Indiana.
Greenback-Labor.
For President..The Hon. James B. Weaver, of Iowa.
Vice-President..Benjamin J. Chambers, of Texas.
Prohibition.
For President..Neal Dow, of Maine.
Vice-President..Henry A. Thompson, of Ohio.
Anti-Masonic.
For President..John W. Phelps, of Vermont.
Vice-President..Ex-Senator Samuel C. Pomeroy, of Kansas.

The Republican and Democratic parties have electoral tickets in every State. In Virginia the Funder and Readjuster factions of the Democratic party have each an electoral ticket; the Funder ticket has been recognized by the Democratic National Committee. In Maine there is a Fusion ticket (Greenback and Democratic) and a straight Greenback ticket. The Greenback party has tickets in all the States, except Florida, Georgia, Nevada, North Carolina, Oregon and Virginia. Early in the campaign the Prohibition party expected to have electoral tickets in at least twenty States, but thus far public attention has been called only to the tickets in following States:

Connecticut.	Mississippi.
Indiana.	New-Hampshire.
Kansas.	*c*New Jersey.
Kentucky.	New-York.
Maine.	*c*Ohio.
Massachusetts.	*c*Pennsylvania.
Michigan.

LEGISLATURES AND SENATORS.

State Legislatures will be elected in the following States:

*c*California.	*c*Missouri.
Colorado.	*c*Nebraska.
*c*Connecticut.	*c*Nevada.
*c*Delaware.	New-Hampshire.
*c*Florida.	*c*New-Jersey.
Illinois.	*c*New-York.
Iowa.	North Carolina.
Kansas.	*c*Pennsylvania.
Louisiana.	*c*Tennessee.
*c*Massachusetts.	*c*Texas.
*c*Michigan.	*c*Wisconsin.
*c*Minnesota.

Those States marked with an italic c will elect United States Senators for the terms beginning next March. The terms of 11 Republican and 14 Democratic Senators will expire then. The successors of three Republicans have already been elected, the Republicans losing one Senator from Mississippi and gaining one from Ohio. The following table gives the names of the retiring Senators (Republicans in Roman and Democrats in italics), the Senators elect, and the political complexion of the new or old Legislatures:

State.	Present Senator.	Senator Elect.
California	Newton Booth.	Old Leg. Rep.
Connecticut	Wm. W. Eaton.	Old Leg. Rep.
Delaware	Thomas F. Bayard.	Old Leg. Dem.

West Virginia	Frank Hereford.	New Leg. Dem.
Wisconsin	Angus Cameron.	Old Leg. Rep.

c Reelected. † Readjuster Democrat.

In the present Senate there are 33 Republicans and 43 Democrats.

STATE OFFICERS.

Governors will be elected in fifteen States as follows. The Republicans have no State ticket in South Carolina:

*c*Colorado.	*c*Nebraska.
*c*Connecticut.	*c*New-Hampshire.
Florida.	New-Jersey.
*c*Illinois.	North Carolina.
*c*Kansas.	South Carolina.
*c*Massachusetts.	Tennessee.
*c*Michigan.	Texas.
*c*Missouri.

The Greenback party has tickets in the States marked with an italic c, and the Prohibitionists have made nominations in the States marked with a dagger (†). Minor State officers will be elected in Iowa, Nevada, New-York and Pennsylvania, the Greenback parties having candidates in Iowa and New-York, and the [illegible] in Pennsylvania. In Pennsylvania a compactly [illegible] party, after having made two nominations, will support the Democratic candidate for Supreme Court Judge.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

Constitutional amendments will be voted upon in Colorado, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Nevada, New-York and North Carolina, and in Florida, Kansas and Iowa the question of calling Constitutional Conventions will be acted upon. In Minnesota the people will vote upon continuing the law establishing the uniform text-book system for public schools in force for five years more. The Colorado amendment exempts the household goods of heads of families, to the extent of $200 each, from taxation. The Illinois amendment provides for electing county officers once in two years, instead of every year. The Iowa amendment strikes out the words "free white" in Section 3 of Article III., which relates to the qualifications of members of the Legislature. One of the Kansas amendments strikes out the clause exempting personal property to the amount of at least $200 for each family from taxation. The other forbids the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, except for medical, scientific and mechanical purposes. The Michigan amendment gives the Legislature power to authorize the City of Detroit to aid in constructing a railroad bridge or tunnel across the river at or near the city, to an amount not exceeding 1 per cent of the assessed value of the taxable property of the city. The Nevada amendment changes the first day of the session of the Legislature from the first Monday in January to the first day in February. The people of the State will also vote for or against Chinese immigration. The New-York amendments give the Legislature power to provide "for detaining Judges of the City Court of Brooklyn to hold circuits and special terms of the Supreme Court in Kings County," and provide that the compensation of Judges of the Court of Appeals and the Supreme Court, who shall have served ten years or more continue to the end of the terms for which they are elected, if they are compelled to retire under the provision prohibiting them from serving after the last day of December next after reaching the age of seventy years. The North Carolina amendments prohibit the payment of certain railroads, unless authorized by a vote of the people, and make some changes in the provisions relating to the support of deaf mutes, blind and insane persons.
