A PRESENT FOR YOUR FRIENDS
To keep you in mind every week in the year,
THE HOME JOURNAL.
Annual subscription, $2; in town or out.
MORRIS PHILLIPS & CO., 3 Park-place, New-York.

"BUT the gem of illustrated juveniles," says The Boston Traveller, "is undoubtedly 'PRETTY PEGGY AND OTHER BALLADS,' Dodd, Mead & Company, Publishers. It is difficult to give even an impression of these charming pictures. Certain it is that no American artist has heretofore approached such work. Miss Emmet's sketches have all the life which we are wont to look for in Kate Greenaway's productions, while being more accurate in drawing and finished in tone. The book is a triumph in its way, and sure of success."

CARL KRINKEN'S CHRISTMAS STOCKING, by the author of the "Wide Wide World." 16mo. Illustrated, very neat. $1.
ROBERT CARTER & BROTHERS,
530 Broadway.

FOR A PRESENT.
QUIET HOURS, a collection of poems, meditative and religious; a dainty volume, just the book for a Christmas gift. $1.
MADAME D'ARBLAY'S DIARY AND LETTERS, MRS. DELANY'S AUTOBIOGRAPHY AND CORRESPONDENCE. Both edited by Mrs. Woolsey (Susan Coolidge), and making valuable present for a lady or gentleman. Each $1.
THE WINDSOR SERIES, comprising selections from Fenelon, Marcus Aurelius, Epictetus, the Apophthegms, Ecclesiastes, Dr. John Tauler, Imitation of Christ, and sunshine in the Soul. Each book pocket volumes, edited by the editor of "Quiet Hours." Each 50 cents.
HOLY CANONS, CAROLS AND SACRED BALLADS. This book, though published anonymously, was written by Jean Ingelow, a fact, if widely known, which would secure for it a larger sale. $1.
CAUSERIE. Mr. Hervey's admirable collection of Fun, Fact, Philosophy and Anecdote. $1.
THE HEAD OF MEDUSA. The new novel by the author of "Kismet." $1 50.
BY HARWICH. A novel which has been called the "Romeo and Juliet" of the Civil War. $1.

CHARMING GIFT BOOKS
BY CHARLES DUDLEY WARNER.

"A genial exponent of the best American thought."—[London Examiner.
"His chief power lies in the rich humor which pervades both thought and style. In this quality he ranks far above every other American writer."—[The Churchman (New-York).
MY WINTER ON THE NILE. New edition, 12mo, $2.
"Mr. Warner's pictures of Oriental men, manners and incidents are, to one who has lived so long in the East as I have, positively daguerreotype reproductions. How could a passing traveller so thoroughly appreciate and so sharply outline the peculiarities of all classes of people."—[General L. P. Di Cesnola.
IN THE LEVANT. New edition, 12mo, $2.
"From first to last he has the same unflagging spirit, the same sparkle of humor and power of observation."—[London Standard.
MY SUMMER IN A GARDEN. $1. With 12 full-page pictures by Darley. $1 50.
"That inimitable creation, 'My Summer in a Garden,' will always be fresh, though it is read for the twentieth time or by the twentieth generation."—[The Churchman.
BACKLOG STUDIES. Delightful, thoughtful, humorous conversations on women, novelists, clothes, Gothic architecture in modern churches, the great New-England Pie-line, social popularity and other engaging themes. With 21 illustrations by Hopkin. $1 50.
SAUNTERINGS. A Record of Travel in England, France, Belgium, Holland, Switzerland, Bavaria and Italy. "Little Classic" style, $1 25.
"Not only thoroughly entertaining, but exceedingly instructive."—[New-York Evening Post.
BADDECK AND THAT SORT OF THING. Travel to and Observation in Cape Breton. "Little Classic" style, $1.
"One of the freshest and most enjoyable books of the kind we have ever read."—[The Churchman (New-York).
IN THE WILDERNESS. A new edition of this charming Adirondack book, with two new chapters, 75 cents.
"As fresh and fragrant of the woods as anything that Thoreau ever wrote."—[Phila. Evening Bulletin.
BEING A BOY. Illustrated by "champ." $1 50.
"It is an elderly boy's reminiscences and reflections upon boyhood, the natural boyhood which he lovingly remembers. The book is full of the dry, unexpected humor of which Mr. Warner is a master, and is equally delightful to boys of all ages, from six to say sixty or seventy years. It is full of clever pictures, too."—[New-York Evening Post.

Instruction.

For Boys and Young Men—City.
A LIVE SCHOOL IN HEALTHY ACTION. Packard's Business College has been called a "a live school," because it is not dead. This is a distinction worthy of the attention of those who have money to spend and sons and daughters to educate. It is not only a live school in that it draws the breath of life, but it is alive to the best interests of its constituents, as any person may ascertain by calling for the "Story of a Live School," which is a very readable book, and will be sent free of cost; or better yet, by calling personally and examining its processes.
