HER CLAIMS AS A WIFE ADMITTED.

DECISION OF SURROGATE CALVIN WHICH SUSTAINS THE VALIDITY OF THE MARRIAGE OF MRS. W. R. HYNES.

Surrogate Calvin rendered a decision yesterday sustaining the validity of an alleged marriage between William R. Hynes and the petitioner, Mary E. Hynes, and the consequent legitimacy of the children springing from the marriage. Mr. Hynes was at one time a wealthy and prominent resident of St. Louis, Mo. From St. Louis he removed to New-York City and became a citizen of this State. In 1871 he went to England and contracted the marriage above referred to by simple agreement, refusing to submit to any religious or other ceremony. Subsequently, on a voyage to Paris, the marriage agreement was renewed on the high sea. He introduced Mrs. Hynes, who had formerly been an employe in the attire room of the Langham Hotel in London, as his wife, and lived with her as such at the time of his death.

In 1874 letters of administration were granted to Mary Jane McCrury, a sister of Mr. Hynes. Subsequently Mrs. Hynes and her two sons brought an ejectment suit in the Court of Common Pleas to recover possession of the Madison Avenue Hotel, of which Mr. Hynes died seized. Judgment was rendered in favor of the plaintiffs on the ground of the validity of the marriage, and this judgment was affirmed both by the General Term and the Court of Appeals. The Court of Appeals held that, as there was no law in relation to the flag of the vessel upon which the marriage took place, it must be assumed to be American, and hence that the marriage contract was valid. Mrs. Hynes also applied to the Surrogate to have the letters of administration granted to Mary J. McCrury revoked, and to have letters issued to herself. Surrogate Calvin held that the whole ground had been covered by the decision of the Court of Appeals, that the marriage must be regarded valid, and that therefore the petition of the widow should be granted.

FINED FOR CONTEMPT.

George A. Chappel obtained a judgment in the Marine Court against John C. Winters for $268 65. Execution was returned unsatisfied, and upon a supplemental examination it was discovered that Winters owned three stands in Fulton Market. Abel Crook was appointed receiver, and took possession of the stands, from which he was ejected by Winters, who was thereupon fined, as for a contempt of court, $442 76, including the original judgment. Winters was confined for a week in Ludlow Street Jail, from which he was liberated upon payment of the fine.

Abel Crook still insist upon his rights as receiver, and refuses to render up possession of the property except on payment of $2,000 for services and attorney's fees. Judge McAdam yesterday ruled that the judgment was discharged upon the payment of the $442 76, but reserved his decision as to the amount of the receiver's fees.

A LIVE SCHOOL IN HEALTHY ACTION. Packard's Business College has been called a "live school" because it is not dead. This is a distinction worthy of the attention of those who have money to spend and sons and daughters to educate. It is not only a live school in that it draws the breath of life, but it is alive to the best interests of its constituents, as any person may ascertain by sending for the "Story of a Live School," which is a very readable book, and will be sent free of cost; or better yet, by calling personally and examining its progresses.
