War Against High Prices.—In waging their war against high prices, Messrs. Q. D. Willford & Co. have found it necessary to double their advertising space, in order to quote to the public some of the grand bargains offered over their counters. Their fall and winter stock, including goods in every department found in a first-class dry goods store, has been purchased with the utmost care, and is bound to please those desiring first-class goods at living prices. Read their quotations found in another column, and then go and see for yourself.

The railroad authorities are preparing to put a state roof on the freight depot building.

The Rev. C. E. McDonald, of Pineville, N. C., is spending a few days in town with friends and relatives.

We have not heard of a single hand being torn up by the gins of our county this season. This is something unusual.

Read the latter part of the advertisement of Mr. A. Willford. He wants ten thousand pounds of fodder, and will pay the highest cash price for corn delivered at his stable.

The legislative delegation from the county and the County Commissioners will meet at the office of the County Commissioners on Wednesday, the 26th inst., to consult about matters relating to the welfare of the county.

It is hoped that a full attendance will be had on the part of all delegations.

Last Saturday, at White Oak, a difficulty occurred between a white man named Hedgepath, who is an engineer at the gin of Patrick & Co., and one of the negro workmen. Hedgepath cut the negro severely in six or seven different places, but not seriously. A warrant was sworn out for his arrest.

The Old Reliable.—See the new advertisement of Mr. F. W. Habenicht in another column. Besides having everything usually kept in a first-class bar, he receives tri-weekly fresh fish and oysters, and would be glad to see his friends when they need anything in his line.

Business Booming.—In another column will be found in the new advertisement of Messrs. J. M. Beatty & Bro. They are offering bargains in ladies' dress goods, trimmings, buttons, etc. They also have a fine line of shoes, and respectfully asks an inspection of their stock before purchasing.

A Pertinent Question.—In another column will be found the advertisement of D. Lauderdale, with the above heading. By reading it carefully you will find that the question is answered satisfactorily to all. This firm has been doing business for nearly fifty years, and the success that has attended their efforts speak well for the establishment.

Fire in Lancaster.—A destructive fire visited our sister town, Lancaster, on Saturday last. The fire originated in the cotton on the platform of the Chester & Cheraw Railroad, and destroyed about 100 bales of cotton, the depot and contents, and several other adjoining buildings. The loss will be about $20,000. Heath, Springs & Co. were the heaviest losers.

Shot in a Difficulty.—We learn that Mr. Hamp Mellichamp and a colored man by the name of Charles Whitaker, had a difficulty one day last week, in which a pistol was used by the negro, and Mr. Mellichamp received a painful wound in the mouth from the pistol. A warrant has been issued for the negro, but at last accounts he had not been arrested.

A Small Fire.—On Saturday last Mr. John Stewart had the misfortune to have eleven bales of cotton damaged by fire at his gin house near White Oak. Mr. Stewart himself was in town at the time, and it is not certain how it was caught, but is supposed to have been accidental. Prompt action on the part of those present prevented what might have been a serious fire. Only eleven bales were damaged, and the entire loss it is thought will not exceed fifty dollars.

Buckley's Arnica Salve.—The best salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, and all Skin Eruptions, and positive cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or returned. Price 25 cents per box. Sold by McMaster, Brice & Ketchin.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday last Harriet Watson, a colored woman living on Mr. T. Lumpkin's place, met with a very serious and painful accident. While feeding cane to a sorghum mill her hand was caught between the rollers and her arm drawn up nearly to the shoulder, and completely crushed up as far as it had gone. Dr. J. A. Scott was called in and the arm amputated above the elbow. At last accounts she was getting along very well.

UNCLAIMED LETTERS.—The following is a list of letters remaining in the Postoffice at Wmmsboro, S. C., October 12, 1887: Mrs. Caroline Anston, Mrs. W. Bell, H. A. Falkerson, G. H. Gladden, A. D. Hill, Martha Homes, Harlow Mazer, J. O. Connor, Mrs. Emer Rancie, W. F. Stanton, Henry Young. Persons calling for any of the above letters will please say they were advertised. DEBOSE EGLESTON, Postmaster.

A GOOD MOVE.—Under existing ordinances of the town, it is the duty of every citizen to keep the pavements in front of their own residences curbed and in good condition. A petition is now on the desk in the office of the Wmmsboro National Bank for signatures, asking the Council to make changes in the ordinances as will make it the duty of the Council to have the above mentioned work done at the expense of the town. This seems to us the most equitable way, and it will insure us, we are confident, better pavements than we have at present.

WAR AGAINST HIGH PRICES.—In waging their war against high prices, Messrs. Q. D. Willford & Co. have found it necessary to double their advertising space, in order to quote to the public some of the grand bargains offered over their counters. Their fall and winter stock, including goods in every department found in a first-class dry goods store, has been purchased with the utmost care, and is bound to please those desiring first-class goods at living prices. Read their quotations found in another column, and then go and see for yourself.

STILL BEHIND.—Messrs Sam'l. white, John M. Spratt and B. D. Springs, of Fort Mill, have filed their declaration for incorporation as the Fort Mill Manufacturing Company. The business of the Company will be to manufacture cotton and woolen goods. The capital stock is placed at $50,000, divided into 500 shares at $100 each. Here is a town of less than one-sixth the size of our own, going right ahead in the establishment of a cotton factory, while our town and county still remains idle. If the establishment of a factory will pay in other towns, why will it not pay here?

COTTON MOVEMENT AND FLUCTUATIONS.—Messrs. Lathan, Alexander & Co., the well-known bankers and commission merchants, of New York, will accept our thanks for a copy of their fourteenth annual edition of "Cotton Movement and Fluctuations." It is a handsomely bound volume, and contains all the information that one could wish concerning the cotton crop, prices, number of bales raised in each State, number of home consumption, number of acres planted, number mills in South, and in fact everything which a cotton man would like to know. It is a convenient reference book for all cotton merchants. Price $2.00.

A PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—Mr. Duncan C. Robertson, the well known commercial representative of Messrs. Pelzer, Rogers & Co., of Charleston, met with a painful mishap at the Wmmsboro Hotel on Tuesday night. While descending the rear steps of the Hotel, in company with one of the waiters who was carrying a light, the wind extinguished the light, and while the water had gone back for another, Mr. Robertson, thinking he was at the foot of the steps, started to walk, when he fell down several steps, breaking his leg below the knee. Dr. Hanahan was called in, and the broken bone set in shape. Mr. Robertson will be laid up for some time, but his host of friends in town will see that he has proper nursing and attention.

DELEGATES TO THE OLD MEN'S MEETING.—President Duncan, of the State Agricultural Society, has appointed as delegates to the Old Men's Meeting at the State Agricultural Society this fall, the following gentlemen of the county: Jas. A. McCrorey, of Gladden's Grove, age 86; Stephen Gibson, of Horeb, age 87; Capt. T. M. Lyles, of Lyles's Ford, age 76. Alternates—Sammal Stevenson, of Feasterville, age 85; John Weldon, of Wmmsboro, age 73; J. B. Cloud, of Blythewood, age 77. Each one of these gentlemen are well known and progressive farmers of this county, and it is the earnest desire of all the younger farmers and citizens generally that they should attend and represent our county. Each have been farming for more than forty years, and we think it peculiarly fitting that they should receive the appointment. Transportation will be furnished them there and return should they determine to go.
