night some $2,400,000 short of the amount of specie which appears in the statement. The result of the Sub-Treasury currency movements was a loss of $59,267, but as $115,000 of its currency payments were in redemption of certificates of deposit, the banks really gained from the Sub-Treasury $55,733 currency. The average of the contraction in loans is $3,387,100 and the reported decrease of $6,297,800 in deposits is about the sum of decrease which the other changes call for. As per statement, the results of the week's movement are a net loss of $2,861,500 in lawful money, and a deficit from the rule of 25 per cent reserve of $156,025, against a surplus a week ago of $1,181,025. As compared with the statement of a year ago, a notable change is that of the total reserve now; 70 3-10 per cent is specie and 29 7-10 per cent is legal tenders, against 81 3-10 per cent specie and 18 7-10 per cent legal tenders on September 3, 1881.

The following are the comparative totals of the statements of August 26 and September 2:

	Aug. 26.	Sept. 2.	Differences.
Loans	$335,746,600	$332,359,500	Dec. $3,387,100
Specie	87,183,400	84,241,900	Dec. 2,953,500
Legal-tenders	22,748,400	22,810,100	Inc. 62,000
Deposits	315,253,100	308,955,300	Dec. 6,297,800
Circulation	18,203,100	18,202,100	Inc. 800,000

The following shows the relation between the total reserve and the total deposit liabilities:

	Aug. 26.	Sept. 2.	Changes.
Specie	$87,183,400	$84,241,900	Dec. $2,953,500
Legal-tenders	22,748,400	22,810,100	Inc. 62,000
Total reserve	$109,931,800	$107,052,000	Dec. $2,891,500
Reserve required against deposits	78,813,275	77,238,825	Dec. 1,574,450
Surplus	$31,181,025	$29,813,175	Dec. $1,317,050
*Deficit		$156,025

The banks now hold in cash—specie and legal-tenders—$879,400 more than the sum held a year ago. The loans now are $4,847,700 less than then, and the deposits are $6,973,000 less; so that the reserve required by the 25 per cent rule now is $1,743,475 less than it was a year ago. And the reserve now is $156,025 deficit, against a deficit of $1,020,100 then, and the proportion of total reserve now is 24.095, against 24.68 per cent at the same date of 1881.

The following are the totals of the statements at the corresponding date for preceding years:

	1879.	1880.	1881.
Loans	$257,200,900	$311,942,800	$337,207,200

While the local money market last week ruled easy at rates averaging a trifle higher than the rates for the preceding week, there were a sufficiently increased demand and a diminished supply to give more uniformity to the market and less opportunity to make the wide fluctuations in rates which before had been so notable a feature. What the market of the immediate future has to meet are the usual if not greater demands for funds to move the grain and cotton crops (that of cotton is about two weeks late this year), smaller extraordinary payments by the Treasury than were made a year ago, and an absence of $22,000,000 of gold. Rates for call loans during the week ruled pretty steady at 5@6 per cent on pledge of the usual Stock Exchange collaterals—rates lower or higher than those named being exceptional—and at 4 per cent on Governments. Best commercial paper passes at 6@7 per cent. Domestic exchanges generally were unchanged during the week, but at Chicago New-York checks fell to 75 cents discount and recovered to 40 cents discount. The feature of the foreign exchange market is the eager inquiry by bankers for commercial bills, and that class of exchange is absorbed even in advance of its drawing, at rates much closer than usual to those for bankers' bills. The business in bankers' bills was small, but rates are firm at about the specie-shipping points. Any occurrence that should create a demand for sight bills would precipitate an export of gold. We owe the money, and that on call. Perhaps it may not be called for, and time may enable the usual movement of crops to liquidate the debt, but it is well not to ignore the true situation.

During last week all the speculations in the products of the soil suffered further sharp and decisive reversals. Cotton was weak and lower on better accounts of the growing crop, now estimated at near 6,000,000 bales, and prospects of only a moderate demand from abroad. The European stocks at date are 922,300 bales, against 1,124,000 bales at same date in 1881; 850,251 bales in 1880, and 633,704 bales in 1879, while the quantity afloat for Europe now is 238,000 bales Indian, 13,000 bales Egyptian, Brazilian, etc., and 48,000 bales American; total 299,000 bales, against 392,000 bales at same time, 1881; 229,000 bales in 1880 and 231,000 bales in 1879. Hence, it is seen that the quantity on hand in Europe and bound to European ports is not abnormally small. Grain ruled lower all the week, but the greatest decline was in corn, which at Chicago closed from 3¾ cents lower for September to 6 cents lower for May, than a month ago. Wheat finally is off from 1 to 1½ cents and oats are from 1⅛ to 2 cents lower. The receipts at the Western points of accumulation were fairly large, particularly of oats, and there was a fair export movement of wheat, but in comparison with the movement of a year ago it needs to be remembered that as affecting the balance of trade the movements require to be about 20 per cent greater to equal that of a year ago, because of the difference in the prices. The iron markets are extremely dull in all their branches and the situation is not what a few weeks ago it was expected that it would be. There is an easement in prices without a change in quotations; steel rails nominally are held at $45@$47. Of the anthracite coal market The Engineering and Mining Journal says:

Although usually the last week of the month, the time preceding the announcement of new circular rates, is the busiest, we cannot hear that, except in a few instances, there has been any unusual activity. While it is conceded on all hands that there is every prospect of an improvement at a time not far off, it is to be doubt that there has been no important change last week. It is expected that the improvement looked with last the time, end of September or the beginning of December, will, it is feared, heavy production will weigh on prices. The companies have advanced their circulars, the Philadelphia and Reading increasing hard white egg to cents and stove and chestnut 20 cents; the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre's Pioneite rock being put at $4.60 for egg, $4.90 for stove and $4.65 for chestnut; while the Delaware and Hudson makes Lackawanna lump $4.15, egg $4.45 and stove $4.65. In the open market, however, coal is selling at low figures, though the companies claim to be refusing any more business at August rates. There is no doubt that there is still considerable cheap coal in the market, and before that is absorbed there can be little chance of better figures.

The general mercantile trade of the city has entered upon its autumn season with a fair degree of activity, and there has been a good movement of dry goods, groceries, etc., but not in unusual proportions. The Southern merchants, however, are buying with more than a usual liberality, and express great confidence in the season's business because of the diversified crops of cereals which that part of the country has produced this year.

The movements at the Stock Exchange during last week require little more than a passing notice. Government bonds were dull all the way out and the bids for the continued 5s are ⅛ and for the 4½s ¼ lower than a week ago. The continued 6s having been all called in, are no longer quoted. In State bonds very little was done except in Tennessees; the 6s fluctuated between 5¼ and 5½, closing the week at the higher figure, and the new compromise bonds sold at 6⅛@6¼, and closed 6¼ bid. The share market ruled dull and the speculation, which was to equal that of a year ago, because of the difference in the prices. GENERAL MARKET REPORT.

New-York, Saturday, Sept. 2, 1882.

ASHES—Quiet and unchanged.

COFFEE—The dull and nominal on the spot at 9 3/16c. for Fair cargo lots for December sold at 7.10c. Mill grades fairly active, but at low prices. Mocca is the same, quiet. Refined sales are being forced as the stock here is large in bulk of some, and prices are shaded in order to stimulate trade. All West India coffees, in fact, are depressed, while East India are steady; sales, 1,000 bags Mangalore on sundry vessels, 500 bags do. ex Alpine, and 2,000 bag Cochin on various vessels, all on private terms. Mexicans quiet, with the sales footing up 1,000 bags at 9½c. The passing trade in all kinds of coffees is moderate.

COTTON—Spot Cotton quiet and weak, but without quotable change; sales, 1,400 bales (700 bales last evening, including 500 bales for export and 100 bales for spinning. Delivered on contracts, 700 bales. Receipts at the ports to-day, 13 bales; receipts at New-Orleans for the last day last week, 4,000 bales; last year, 7,000 bales. Futures closed steady at a decline of 10@15 points after a rather irregular trade; sales, 69,400 bales. Prices past—September, 12.38@12.31; October, 11.7[illegible]@11.[illegible]; November, 11.[illegible]@11.61; December, 11.[illegible]@11.61; January, 11.94@11.[illegible]; February, 11.[illegible]@11.[illegible]; March, 11.[illegible]@11.[illegible]; April, 11.[illegible]@12.[illegible]; May, 12.[illegible]@12.[illegible]. Prices for Rings and Margins—September, 12.31; October, 11.[illegible]; November 11.[illegible]; December, 11.[illegible]; January, 11.[illegible]; February, 11.[illegible]; March, 11.[illegible]; April, 12.[illegible]; May, 12.10; June, 12.21. Closing prices for contracts—September, 12.38@12.[illegible]; October, 11.[illegible]@11.[illegible]; November, 11.[illegible]; December, 11.[illegible]; January, 11.[illegible]; February, 11.[illegible]; March, 11.[illegible]; April, 11.[illegible]@12.[illegible]. Transferable orders, 12.[illegible].

FLOUR AND MEAL—FLOUR—Markets are [illegible] but without important change. Good and Choice grades of Spring Wheat are very firm in some instances to old at a slight advance; other kinds soft and nearly [illegible]. Export demand limited, mainly a inquiry for low grades. Minnesota Extras, at $5.[illegible]@$5.75 for the whole range, 1,050 bbls. City Mill Extras mainly at $5.[illegible]@$5.[illegible] for best brands, 250 bbls. Spring Extra, $4.50@$4.80. Quotations: No. 2, $3.[illegible]@$4.[illegible]; lower extreme superfine $3.70@$3.[illegible]; lower extreme common to fair Extra, $4.[illegible]@$4.[illegible]; Patent No. 1, $6.[illegible]@$7.[illegible]; common to good Extra Western, $4.[illegible]@$5.[illegible]; Good to Choice do., $5.[illegible]@$6.[illegible]; Common to Good Extra Round Hoop Ohio, $4.[illegible]@$5.20; Good to Choice do., $5.[illegible]@$6.[illegible]; Common Extra Minnesota, $4.[illegible]@$5.[illegible]; Clear, $5.[illegible]@$6.[illegible]; Rye Mixture, $5.[illegible]@$5.[illegible]; Superfine, $3.[illegible]@$3.[illegible]; Patent Winter Wheat, $6.[illegible]@$7.[illegible]; Patent Spring Wheat, $6.[illegible]@$7.[illegible]; Superfine Western, $3.[illegible]@$3.[illegible]; Common to Fair Extra, $4.[illegible]@$4.[illegible]; Good to Choice do., $5.[illegible]@$6.[illegible]; Patent Winter Wheat, $6.[illegible]@$7.[illegible]; Patent Spring Wheat, $6.[illegible]@$7.[illegible]; City Mill Extras for West Indies, $5.[illegible]@$5.[illegible]; South America, $5.[illegible]@$6.[illegible]; Brandywine, $5.[illegible]. MEAL—SOUTHERN FLOUR unchanged and dull; sales, [illegible] bbls. Common to good Extra $4.[illegible]@$5.[illegible]; Good to Choice, $5.[illegible]@$6.[illegible].

RYE FLOUR steady and quiet; sales, [illegible] bbls. Superfine, $3.[illegible]@$4.10. CORN MEAL dull; Brandywine quotes $4.[illegible]@$4.70. Yellow West'n, $4.[illegible]@$4.50.

GRAIN—WHEAT—Market irregular and unsettled; cash lots weak and lower; but futures closing with less strength; options opened a shade higher, subsequently lost the advance, declined [illegible], closing slower, however, at a little above the inside prices; fairly active export business, mainly in No. 2 Red; limited City Milling demand, and a moderate trade in other sorts; sales, 1,500,000 bush. future, 340,000 bush. cash, including Upgraded Winter Red, [illegible] bush. Steamer No. 3 Red, $1.04@[illegible]; No. 2 Red, $1.[illegible]@$1.11, latter delivered.
